Reveal Name Of Speaker for Commencement

Methodist Pastor of Racine to Deliver Baccalaureate Address

The Reverend Clarence Seidenspinner, pastor of the First Methodist church at Racine, will deliver the Baccalaureate address at the Lawrence college commencement Sunday, May 30, it has been announced by President Thomas N. Barrows.

Born in Kiel, Wisconsin, in 1904, Rev. Seidenspinner received his B. S. degree at Northwestern in 1925 and his B. D. at Garrett Biblical Institute in 1928, becoming an ordained Methodist minister in that year.

He is the author of "Our Dwelling Place", published by the Abingdon-Cokesbury Press, and "Form and Freedom in Worship". For the General Conference of the Methodist church, he wrote the worship patterns, and he has also written materials for the Methodist Church's general publications to be used in religious education. Teaching part time at the Garrett Biblical Institute, Rev. Seidenspinner is at present the pastor of the First Methodist church in Racine.

Zupek Presides At Meeting Of Committee

Executive Committee Calls for Election Of Representatives

At the last meeting of the executive committee held Monday, May 3, Al Zupek, student body president, took over his duties as chairman of the group. It was decided that the fraternities, sororities, independents and co-students should elect members of next year's executive committee so that they could take over at the next meeting and complete plans for the budget.

The treasurer reported upon the budget of the past year. It was decided that the Union deficit should be completely paid off with the surplus which the new executive committee will distribute. Also at this time it was decided to separate the Hamar Union budget from the social committee budget.

The next meeting of the executive committee was scheduled for Thursday, May 13.

Follies are Great Success

Independent Girls And Betas Present Outstanding Skits

The little gym was transformed into a night club Friday night when Mace and Mortor Board gave their annual Follies. The tables were arranged in a semicircle around the spot-lighted stage and the "bar" where customers clamored for cokes.

Louis Traas, as master of ceremonies, introduced the sorority and fraternity skits. Jeanne Burke's diving act in the independent skit had everyone holding their breath. Was she really going to dive into a tub of water from the balcony? But Miss Wollaeger in her capacity as Dean of Women forbade it at the critical moment. A surprise occurred when President Barrows said he granted his permission, but Miss Wollaeger triumphed. The Phi Delt told the tale of "Goldilocks" and the three bears, accompanied by a choir which repeatedly chorused Goldilocks with "Oh, you beautiful doll, you great big beautiful doll."

History of Lawrence

The faculty gave a history of Lawrence with the principal actors in the story appearing appropriately costumed in a picture frame when they were mentioned by the narrator, Mrs. Roger Sherman. So realistic were they, it was hard to believe that they were really members of our own versatile faculty.

But the hit of the evening was the Beta skit, a take-off on the faculty. There were our professors from hesitating "Mac" with his "Mr. Winchell Walter, please" to Dave Owen with his bowed head and customary cigarette. As Winchell shot the faculty to "take care of a few minor considerations" before the coming of the navy, Dave was heard to chuckle as he fell, "Saroyan, ha! ha! ha!"

Between presentations of skits, Maury Bleick's orchestra played for those who wanted to dance. The evening's total of entertainment, dancing, refreshment, and 12 o'clock hours added up to a great success for this year's "Follies."

Mysterious Epidemic Sweeps Lawrence Campus Each Spring

Infinitely more insidiously prevalent than our late lamented measles epidemic is a wave of some mysterious disease which has lately swept the campus. The ailment has appeared most strongly on the last few warm days so undoubtedly the germ is spread by heat. The infirmity, with typical callousness, has diagnosed it as spring fever, but we laymen know better, as usual.

Symptoms are varied—some people, singly or in groups, are observed writhing, obviously in great pain, or else in a coma, on the hill behind Smith house. This would indicate that the altitude there has some bearing on the disease. In others, it resembles trichinosis, in that it produces great lethargy in the party concerned. The danger of this is great so soon before exams. Several afflicted ones have tried vitamin pills to combat this symptom, but obviously the germ is not affected by medicines, except that

Lawrentian Asks For Applications

All people interested in applying for positions of editor, makeup editor, news editor, copy editor, and typist for next semester's Lawrentian are asked to have their applications in Mr. Watt's office before noon on Tuesday, May 11.

The editor's position pays $200 a year, the makeup editor $100, the copy editor gets $75, the news editor gets $50 and the typist gets $75. All applications must contain full reports of previous experience.

TVA Director Speaks in Chapel

Mr. Gordon Clapp of the Tennessee Valley authority will speak at Monday's convocation. Mr. Clapp has held many important offices, one of them being director of admissions and assistant dean at Lawrence college, 1927-33. In 1933-35 he was assistant director of personnel for T. V. A. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Delta Kappa, and Tau Kappa Alpha.

Chicago Couple Gives $200,000 to Lawrence

Fund Will be Used as Nucleus for Post-War Building of Fine Arts Center at College

A gift of $200,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester of Chicago, which will be used to promote the fine arts program at Lawrence college, was announced by President Thomas N. Barrow. This gift, to be known as the Charles H. and Mary F. S. Worcester Fund, is the largest single check received in the 36 year history of the college.

It is the wish of the donors, Dr. Barrows said, to have the fund used as a nucleus for the fine arts center to be built after the war. In the meantime, the income from the fund which was recently invested in war bonds, "shall be used primarily to support and advance the cultural life of the college, including the appreciation of the values of fine arts in our daily lives." Mr. and Mrs. Worcester have long been identified with the fine arts in the mid-west and Mr. Worcester is now honorary president of the Art Institute of Chicago.

Mr. Worcester, a trustee of Lawrence college, was born in Detroit in 1864. Since 1895 he has been associated with the lumber business and for many years has been president of the lumber concern which bears his name. He served during the first World war as vice chairman of the lumber department of the war industries board. Mr. Worcester is chairman of the board of The Munising Paper Company and a director of the Ontonagon Fibre Company and the Masonite Corporation.

Mr. Worcester is well known for his art activities in Chicago, especially in the development of the Art Institute with which he has been associated for many years and in connection with the art exhibits at the Chicago World's Fair. He is also a life member of the Field Museum of Natural History.

Mrs. Worcester, who is also interested in the fine arts, is a native of Fort Atkinson, Wis. The donors also are well known in Upper Michigan where they maintain a home in Chassell.

President Barrows, in announcing the gift, stated:

"While we recognize the importance of technological and scientific education, especially at this time, it is clear that one of the important aspects of the college is the development and appreciation of cultural values. This fund, so generously created by Mr. and Mrs. Worcester, will significantly further develop the fine arts at Lawrence. It is our hope that after the war the fine arts center at the college may include adequate facilities for the visual arts, dramatics, music, and a combination theater and recital hall. The Worcester fund is a magnificent start toward this goal."

Retired Navy Man Addresses IR Club Here

Mr. Ralph Blessman will be a guest speaker at International Relations club meeting next Wednesday evening at 8:30, in room 11 Main hall. He will present an eye witness account of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. Barbara Thompson, president of I. R., asked him to speak after hearing him at another group meeting.

Mr. Blessman has retired from the navy after 20 years of active duty. December 7, 1941, he was at Pearl Harbor, overseeing the construction of air bases in Hawaii. His account of the attack and the losses encountered is graphic and revealing.

Students and members of the faculty are urged to attend. There will be a fee of five cents admission to defray the speaker's expenses.

Turn Down Free Day Before Exams

The following letter was received by Al Zupek from Mr. Anderson May 4: "The faculty considered at its meeting a petition for a free day between the end of classes and the beginning of final examinations. The faculty is in no sense lacking in understanding of the problem involved and the interest which you had in presenting this petition, but felt that it had to be declined at the present time in view of the acceleration of our work now and particularly in view of the fact that we need every day of our course work this semester because of the extended spring recess.

I am sure you will appreciate the problem which this raised for the faculty and the validity of its decision.

Begin Semester Registration

Most Students Plan To Return in July Under New Program

Registration for the next semester at Lawrence college, which opens July 5, indicates that the 97th year of the college will begin with a normal enrollment despite the drastic change in school calendar. Lawrence has adopted a program of acceleration which provides for three full semesters within a year which allows for an entering freshman to earn a degree in two and two thirds year.

Advance registration of present freshmen, sophomore, and juniors, indicates that most of them plan to return to college in July. A few will remain until the start of the second semester on November 1. These are mainly young people who have been promised employment for that length of time.

Room reservations also are being made at a rapid rate with Russell Sage hall fast being filled. This dormitory with Peabody house and the fraternity quadrangle, if necessary, will be used. Brokaw hall and Ormsby hall, freshmen dormitories, will be taken over by the Navy on July 1 for the use of a minimum of 300 officer candidates who will be enrolled at Lawrence under the new V-12 program.

Crown May Queen Sunday Afternoon

Hail the queen! That will echo across the lawn of the Alexander gym next Sunday afternoon when we all learn who is the Queen of the May. There's going to be loveliness and excitement galore for everyone. Be sure to be there.

The choir will be on hand to sing "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and a number of other favorites.

After the crowning, which takes place at 3, there will be a tea at Sage for the queen and her court. The suspense ought to get you out there if nothing else does—so—see you there!

Contributor Asks For Applications To Editor's Post

Applications for editor of the Contributor for next year may be made in letter form and handed in to Mr. Watt's office before noon next Tuesday. All applicants should state their qualifications, any experience, courses in the English field, and extra-curricular activities.

Applications will be read, voted upon, and the editor selected by the Board of Control of the magazine, the latter part of next week.

Gift From Worcesters Advances Lawrence in Field of Fine Arts

ON BEHALF of the student body past, present and future, the Lawrentian would like to express its sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester for their gift of $200,000 to Lawrence college.

It is nice to know in these times of war when technological and scientific education predominate that people have the foresight to look into the future which again will have the fine arts as an important part of a college education.

Lawrence looks forward to that time when it can put this gift to use in making Lawrence one of the top fine art centers among colleges throughout the country. It will be another step forward in making Lawrence a school that everyone will point out as being a real liberal arts college.

Thank you again, Mr. and Mrs. Worcester.

Girls of Peabody House Give Party for Faculty Children

The girls of Peabody house gave their annual party for the children of the faculty members last Sunday afternoon, May 12.

Peabody became a playroom from 3 until 5, decorated with the stuffed animals from the girls' rooms and filled with toys. The 30 children, whose ages range from six months to fourteen years, appeared to enjoy the party, as did the hostesses, who certainly had as good a time as their young guests. After an hour of games outdoors, the girls presented in their little theater several skits, a complete version of "Three Blind Mice," the story of "Epaminondas," the little colored boy, and a reading of "Winnie the Pooh".

Of course a party wouldn't be complete without ice cream and cake. Served on gaily decorated tables were the ice cream and cake, and in the May day atmosphere, May baskets filled with candy, and plates of amusing animal crackers.

The mothers were served tea and cakes in the parlor, and the girls enjoyed playing their parts as hostesses. Miss Wollaeger assisted the girls by pouring tea, and Mrs. MacMahon, the former Miss Stockhausen, was a wonderful help in preparing the party.

In charge of the party was Barbara Selle, and her committee was Peg Bauman, favors; Kitty Ligare and Jean Scheibel, games; and Jo Nicholas, Jane Cloyd, Alice Andrews, and Phyllis Montague helped a great deal.

This traditional party has always been held during the Christmas season, but this year it was decided to take advantage of spring weather to have the games outdoors.

Lawrentians Observe Mother's Day With Teas and Banquets

This weekend promises to be a busy one for Lawrentians with Mother's day teas and banquets, the crowning of the May Queen, and the Pi Phi-Theta formal.

The Alpha Chis are having a tea for their mothers in their rooms after the May day fete. The delicious donuts that you Lawrentians bought last Monday were sold by the Alpha Chis to help a refugee. Next Thursday another such donut sale will be sponsored by the group. Monday they are having a picnic for actives and pledges at Pierce park. The meeting will be held afterwards around the campfire.

The Thetas will entertain their mothers at a banquet at the Conway hotel Sunday noon. Janet Jones is in charge. The Pi Phis and Thetas will dance to the rippling rhythm of Johnie Nugent's orchestra at Riverview tomorrow night.

Last Wednesday afternoon the Pi Phis initiated Jo Ann Nicolas and Betty Anderson and feted them at a banquet at Sage Wednesday night. Congratulations girls! The Delta Gamma alums will entertain the seniors next Monday night.

Tomorrow the Phi Taus are having a farewell banquet for Dave Austin and Bud Babino. Jaye Schoff and Beth Howell will be guests. The Phi Taus are also entertaining their mothers at a banquet Sunday noon.

tertaining their mothers at a banquet Sunday noon.

The Betas are having a Varsity Out Monday night after meeting for the fellows who are leaving. Since the weather has been providing good opportunities for picnics, the Betas, Delts, and Sig Eps entertained at picnics last Sunday, and the Phi Dels will go to Telulah park after the May Queen crowning Sunday.

WAA Presents Athletic Awards At Annual Banquet

Women's Athletic association will hold its annual banquet next Wednesday, May 12, at Ormsby. Mrs. A. E. Bataille, women's advanced tennis coach, will be the guest speaker, and Betty Ross will act as toastmistress.

Intramural awards will be presented by Jane Brown, and inter-sorority awards by Muriel Braaten. Betsy Ross will give the "L" sweaters. The senior trophy will be awarded by Miss Barbara Timming, who is faculty adviser of the group.

Mrs. John McMahon, Miss Charlotte Wollaeger and Mrs. Bataille are faculty associates. Peg Meyers will be guest pianist for the event.

Big Surprise Sunday

Coe Is Host of Midwest Track and Field Meet

Vikings Led by Fieweger Threaten to Take Midwest Track Championship From Coe

The 1943 Midwest conference track and field championships, to be fought for among a field which has shrunk to six colleges, will be held at Coe college in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, May 8. New faces will far outnumber the veterans which indicates a wide open affair, but on meager reports it appears that Cornell, Lawrence, and Grinnell have the best opportunity of challenging Coe's right to the title which the Kohawks have held for four straight years. Cornell gets its strength from Dave Clutterham and three other lettermen; Lawrence from James Fieweger, and six other lettermen; and Grinnell mainly on the strength of numbers including four lettermen.

The stars of the meet should be Fieweger, holder of five conference titles and probably the best all around track man the conference has had in its 22 years of existence, and Clutterham, one of the best distance men in the country, who won the half mile, two mile, and mile, setting a new record in the latter, during last year's meet. Fieweger set the only other record last season with a 15 flat in the 120 yard high hurdles. He ran the first heat at the recent Drake relays in 14.9 but tripped on the fifth hurdle in the finals. Unless the coaches are keeping some of the new men under cover it appears that these two men are the only ones who will challenge any records. Clutterham's mile mark is 4:23.4. Fieweger, who in addition to winning the high hurdles last season, won the low hurdles, the shot put, broad jump, and high jump, may beat the latter mark of 6'1" inasmuch as he jumped 6'2" at the Chicago Relays and in two other meets this year.

Coe Weaker

Clutterham and Fieweger will not be the whole show, however, and either may not be enough to put their respective squads over. Monmouth has a two man team in William Laxon, a good hurdle, sprint, and broad jump man, and

Glen Rankin, who runs the quarter, half, hurdles, and also high jumps. The Scot's best new men are Tabby Talkin in the sprints, low hurdles, and pole vault, and Jim Pollock in the distances. Coe, the defending champs, have lost probably more from their great track teams than any member of the league. The Kohawks have but one man left from last year's varsity, Dick Willing, who runs the 100, broad jumps, and pole vaults. New men expected to place are Dick Wilson from last year's frosh team who handles the weights, tosses the javelin, and high jumps. Russell Collins is the quarter miler, Duane Kurelmeyer runs the mile and half mile, and Warren Pugh the dashes and broad jump.

Lettermen representing Grinnell will be Bob Corrigan, hurdler; Dean Newell, hurdles and high jump; George Sorry, javelin; and Harry Waters in the sprints. New men counted on for points are Relf Hart, high and broad jump; Brunie Vanstrum, sprinter; Koert Voodhees, quarter miler; and Walter Seidlitz, half mile.

Cornell Strong

Cornell, winner over Coe in the only showing of comparative strength this season, has Don Struchen, winner of the freshman mile and half mile competition last year, and Pete Solnitz, and Lowell Reed in the middle distances. Walt Holaupek is also a strong weight man. Cornell is always strong in the distances.

Lawrence looks for points in the javelin from Wally Patten and Al Zupek, in the pole vault from Robert Perschbacher; in the two mile from Ed Hodson, and in the weights from Warren Buesing. James Dite, Gerald Grady, and Charles Rollins will split up the dashes and short distances, and Bill Lawson, a freshman, looks good in the half mile.

Vikings Lose Track Meet To Marquette

Establish Three New Field Records in Fast Scoring Meet

Marquette university's well-balanced track team defeated the Lawrence thinclads Wednesday, May 5, at Whiting field by a handy 82-49 margin. Jim Fieweger led the Lawrence individual scoring with 3 firsts and 2 seconds for 21 points. He failed to place in the high jump for the first time in his career at Lawrence.

Three Whiting field records were shattered Wednesday, one by Fieweger with a :14.6 in the 120 yard high hurdles, another by Beaudry of Marquette, who ran a superb :21.7 in the 220 yard dash, and the last by Welch of Marquette in the high jump with a leap of 6 feet 4 1/2 inches.

Strong in Javelin

Sweeps of the half mile and high jump events and near-sweeps in the quarter mile and 220 aided the Marquette cause. Dyer and Rollins took respective thirds in the latter two events. The javelin proved Lawrence's strongest event with Patten and Zupek taking first and second, in that order. Patten's toss was measured at 167'10 1/2". Fieweger won the 120 highs, the 220 lows, and the shot put and took seconds in the broad jump and 100 yard dash. Beaudry took the latter event with a dash of :09.8.

Lawson ran a 4:44.8 mile for first with his running mate, Simmons, coping third for Lawrence. Lawson and Hodson took second and third in the 2 mile event. Buesing captured a second in the discus throw and Perschbacher was freed from the infirm to take a second in the pole vault. Anderson of Marquette took the pole vault with a 12 foot leap. Thirds by Dyer in the 440, Forbush in the broad jump, and Zupek in the discus completed the scoring for the Blue and White.

Lawson Posts Fast Time in Distance Run

In his first trip over the two mile distance in competition, William Lawson, freshman, last Saturday ran in the fastest time that a Lawrence two miler has registered since Coach A. C. Denney has been handling track at the local college. Lawson, running in an inter-squad meet, posted a time of 10:14.1, which is just 7 seconds above the Lawrence record which has stood since 1907. Another freshman, Chuck Simmons, ran the same distance in 10:41, both men beating letterman Ed Hodson.

Cancel Midwest Golf Tourney

Nobody in Conference Is Strong Enough to Compete With Vikes

The saddest men on the Lawrence college campus are the members of the golf squad who will be unable to defend their Midwest conference championship at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, this weekend because of the lack of competition. The Vikings, believing that they are stronger than last season when they won the title at Monmouth had hopes that a representative tourney could be held, but not more than two of the other seven members of the league have teams and the host college, Coe, wisely advised the athletic directors of the suspension of the competition for this year at least.

Lawrence also had hopes of making a strong bid for the tennis title, held by Grinnell, but this tournament was called off for the same reason. The track and field championships will be held as they have been every year since 1921, however.

Lawrence will now concentrate on the state intercollegiate championships in these sports to which they will be hosts May 15. Already signifying their intention of competing are Marquette and the University of Wisconsin. It is expected that several other state colleges will be represented either by teams or individuals.

Tennis Squad Loses to U of W

Van Hengel Wins Singles Match in Season's Last Meet

The Viking tennis squad dropped its second 7-2 decision to a Big Ten squad when it met the University of Wisconsin's well balanced squad at Madison Tuesday. This match ended the team's regular season and leaves only the State intercollegiate May 15 yet to be played.

Doc Van Hengel won Lawrence's only singles match playing in the number two slot, by trouncing Broadhead 6-2, 6-4 with a cautious, consistent game against the hard hitting but erratic Badger boy. Bob Weber and Dale Rank salvaged the number three doubles by beating Broadhead and Strasser 6-1, 5-7, 6-4.

Dupont Loses

In most of the other matches there was very little to choose between the players. Hank Dupont lost a well played match to Hubert Schneider, Wisconsin's freshman star, 6-3, 6-3. Dick Zimmerman absorbed a 6-1, spanking from Marlow, Weber lost a tough three set match 3-6, 6-3, 6-1 to Barrand, Don Erdman was edged out 6-4, 6-4 by Stephens, and Dale Rank bowed to Rotter, 6-2, 6-3.

In the doubles, Dupont and Erdman were forced to default midway in the first set, much to Don's everlasting embarrassment, to Schneider and Stephens. Zimmerman and Van Hengel lost in three sets, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4, to Marlow and Barrand.

Unfortunately, Wisconsin is unable to put in an appearance on Lawrence's home courts this season, due in part to a rather full schedule. The one duel match which had been posted on the Viking calendar for May 16 against the Town club of Milwaukee will probably not be played, due to the conflict with the Invitational here.

Vike Golfers Lose to U. W.

Members of Both Teams to Compete in Meet Saturday

Lawrence college golfers dropped their first intercollegiate match of the season at Madison Saturday, May 1, with the University of Wisconsin squad scoring a combined singles and doubles victory of 14 1/2 to 3 1/2. Members of both teams will compete in the Wisconsin invitational tournament at Riverview Country club Saturday along with golfers from other state colleges. An invitational tennis tournament will be held at the same time.

In Saturday's competition, Phil Harvey lost to Oldenberg, 2-1, on scores of 41-40-80 against Oldenberg's 42-38-80. Dick Haligas took but one point off Captain Peters with 40-41-81 against a 41-36-77 for his opponent. Butke shot 40-43-83, losing three points to Evans who sizzled a 75 on 38 and 37 for medalist honors. Radford also lost three points, shooting 41-40-81 to 40-39-79 for Ladd.

Harvey and Haligas won 1 1/2 points in the doubles scoring while Butke and Radford went scoreless.

Greek Sports

BY BILL LEVERENZ

BY trouncing the Deltas, 7 to 1, last Sunday the Phi Deltas took undisputed first place in the interfraternity softball loop. Sunday's games completed the first of two four-game rounds. The Phi Deltas are undefeated while the Deltas have won 3 and lost 1, the Betas have broken even with 2 and 2, the Sig Eps have lost 3 and won 1, and the Phi Taus have gone without a victory thus far.

George Gregory Greisch's one-hit pitching featured Sunday's tilt, the lone run resulting after Knell doubled and stole third and then scored while a walked runner was being run down between first and second base. Boge had a job on his hands from the first inning in, when the Phi Deltas scored their first run on no hits. Four consecutive bingles in the third really put him in a hole and from that point on the Phis had little trouble rapping out his offerings.

At the same time the Sig-Phi Taus were battling to get out of that cellar and up into fourth place, neither having won a game up to that point. The Sig Eps emerged on the long end of a 14-7 count in a free-hitting game. Bob Wilch put on a one-man show for the Eps, hitting a home run to help his own cause on the mound. McNair and Fenz hurled futilely for the Taus.

In Friday's games, the Betas took a sound beating at the hands of the Phi Deltas, 14 to 4. Crossett kept the Betas in check while his mates pounded Hardeker for an abundance of hits, many for extra bases. Beta errors also contributed to the Phi Delt cause. Meanwhile the Deltas were romping over the Phi Taus by about 13 to 4, the game amounting to a little more than a Delt batting practice.

Today the Betas will play the Sig Eps and the Phi Deltas will engage the Phi Taus. The latter game should produce a record-breaking score unless the Phi Deltas bat left-handed again. Sunday the Deltas and Betas will lock horns, and the Sig Eps and Phi Deltas will also see action.

Dupont Defeats Weber To Win Men's Singles Tennis Tournament

The men's singles tennis tournament held last weekend resulted in a victory for Hank Dupont. The finals match played Sunday was an exhibition of fine tennis on the part of both Hank and Bob Weber. Hank defeated Bob 6-, 6- and 6-. There was a slight mix-up in the semi-finals due to the default of Doc Van-

Book of the Week

Fosdick, Harry Emerson. On Being a Real Person.

This book is based on twenty years of experience in dealing with the personal problems of men and women. Dr. Fosdick says "the book does not talk about religion, any more than a happy family talks about love. It is there, it moves, it works, it justifies and makes alive. At this hour, in a world uprooted, nothing else works. But this does."

Library Helps in Observing 'I Am An American Day'

The celebration of "I am an American Day" this year will be

May 16. President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation in which he urges that this day be "set aside as a public occasion for the recognition of all our citizens who have attained their majority . . . to understand more fully the duties and opportunities of citizenship and its special responsibilities in a nation at war."

In view of this fact, the library has arranged an interesting exhibit on American ideals. The exhibit groups pictures around the "four freedoms"; freedom of speech, freedom from fear, freedom from want, and freedom of worship.
