

2019

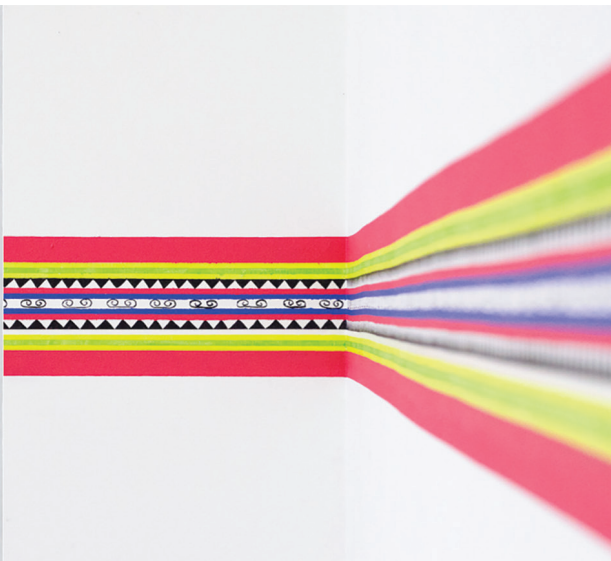

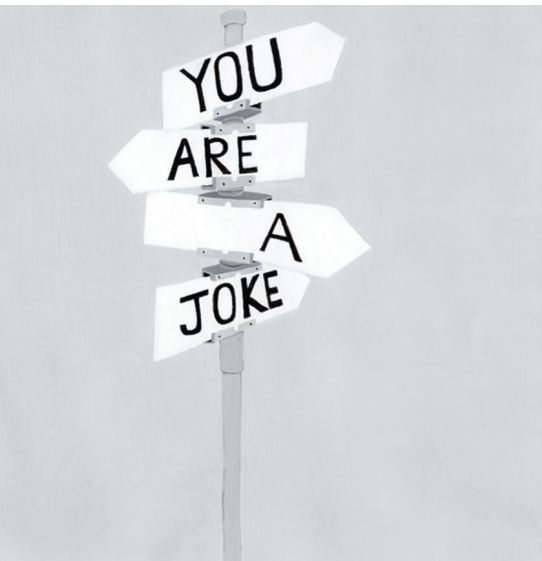

when you were made: Tshab Her & Victoria Kue

Wriston Art Center Galleries

Follow this and additional works at: https://lux.lawrence.edu/wag_exhibitions

 Part of the Art Education Commons, and the Art Practice Commons

© Copyright is owned by the author of this document.

The Wriston Art Galleries

January 11–March 8, 2019

when you were made: Tshab Her & Victoria Kue

Opening Reception

Friday, January 11 • Wriston Art Center

Artist talk by Victoria Kue at 6 p.m. • Reception with refreshments to follow

Her and Kue are emerging Hmong-American artists whose work addresses the complexities of being second-generation women members of this nationless ethnic minority. In their artwork they navigate the politics of displacement, the connections between cultural identity and place, the impact of gendered social roles, and the weight of tradition from this unique perspective. Curated by Kate Mothes, founder of Young Space.

Information on the many community programs about Hmong culture related to when you were made: Tshab Her & Victoria Kue and can be found at lawrence.edu/s/wriston.

Gallery hours: Tuesday–Friday, 10 a.m.–4 p.m. • Saturday–Sunday, noon–4 p.m.

Wriston Art Center • 613 E. College Ave., Appleton • Parking on the corner of College Avenue and Meade St.

Free, open to the public and accessible

lawrence.edu/s/wriston

These programs are supported in part by grants from the Wisconsin Humanities Council and the Bright Idea Fund within the Community Foundation for the Fox Valley Region.

Cover image: Victoria Kue, guidance, 2018 (left) and Tshab Her, Reclaiming Existence, 2016 (right)