ADDRESS  "Playing by the Rules"  RICHARD WARCH
         University President
ALMA MATER

Hail to our Alma Mater, Cherished in truth and dear!
We are her loyal children, A circle that widens each year,
Let us carry her colors boldly, The modest Blue and White,
Emblems of truth and our ideal, To steadily gain more light.

Light is our Lawrence watchword, And Truth which gives us light!
Bind we them for our breastplate, And thus shall we win life’s fight.

Sweet are the days we spend here, Strong are the ties we form,
Friendships that last forever, And help us in sunshine and storm,
Dear is the well-known river, And loved are the vine clad walls,
Mingled our pleasures and labors, In the picture each heart recalls.

Light is our Lawrence watchword, And Truth which gives us light!
Bind we them for our breastplate, And thus shall we win life’s fight.

CLOSING WORDS

HOWARD NIBLOCK

RICHARD WARCH

Richard Warch has served as president of Lawrence since 1979. Immediately prior to this appointment as president, Warch served as vice president for academic affairs and professor of history.

Warch earned the Bachelor of Arts degree at Williams College in 1961 and followed that with two years of study abroad at Edinburgh University. An ordained minister in the United Presbyterian Church, he earned the Bachelor of Divinity degree at the Yale Divinity School in 1964. He continued study at Yale University and earned the Doctor of Philosophy degree in American studies in 1968.

For the next ten years, Warch served Yale in a number of capacities, including associate professor of history and American studies, director of the National Humanities Institute program, associate dean of the college, and director of the Visiting Faculty Program.

At Yale he was awarded the Rockefeller Brothers Theological Fellowship, the Mary Cady Tew Prize, the William Robertson Coe Fellowship, and the Morse Fellowship.

Warch has written the book School of Prophets: Yale College, 1701-1740 and co-edited John Brown, Great Lines Observed Series, published by Prentice-Hall, along with more than a score of articles and reviews addressing issues in higher education.
