PERFORMER BIO

As a trumpet player, french hornist, arranger, and keyboard player, CJ Camerieri has enjoyed an active, diverse, and exciting career since completing his classical trumpet training at The Juilliard School. He has become an indispensable collaborator for numerous indie rock groups as a performer, arranger, improviser, and soloist and is a co-founder of the contemporary classical ensemble yMusic. yMusic's debut record was named Time Out New York's #1 Classical Record of 2011, the same year that Camerieri won two Grammys as a member of Bon Iver for the band's sophomore record, which later reached gold status. He is currently the newest member of Paul Simon's band, joining for 2014's "Paul Simon and Sting: On Stage Together" tour.

After graduating from The Juilliard School with a degree in Classical Trumpet Performance, CJ began working in alternative music as the Trumpet player, French Horn player, and keyboardist for Sufjan Stevens in January of 2006. He then went on to tour the world as a member of Rufus Wainwright's band in 2007-2008 before founding yMusic in the spring of 2008. CJ then toured with The National, Sean Lennon, and The Plastic Ono Band before joining Bon Iver in 2011 and winning two Grammy Awards for Best New Artist and Best Alternative Album. In 2014 CJ became the newest member of Paul Simon's touring band.

As an arranger, trumpet player, french horn player, and keyboardist CJ's discography includes well over 200 recordings including current and forthcoming releases by Paul Simon, Bon Iver, yMusic, Sufjan Stevens, The National, Rufus Wainwright, The Tallest Man on Earth, David Byrne, Antony and the Johnsons, Martha Wainwright, Loudon Wainwright III, Gabriel Kahane, Angus and Julia Stone, Ingrid Michaelson, The Staves, My Brightest Diamond, Sean Lennon, Yuka Honda, GOASTT, Jesse Harris, She and Him, Harper Simon, Chris Garneau, Clare and the Reasons, Welcome Wagon, Anthony Coleman, ACME, The New York Trumpet Ensemble, Argento New Music Ensemble and the Paragon Ragtime Orchestra.
