Small Squad Is Eligible For Hilltop Game

Ineligibility and Ban On Freshmen Lessens Lawrence Chances

Lawrence will meet Marquette at Milwaukee tonight without the services of Hilton or any of the freshmen. This leaves Lawrence without a sufficient number of reserve men, as seven members of the squad are all that are eligible for the game.

Hilton again was declared ineligible because of scholastic difficulties, and Lawrence and Marquette previously agreed not to use any freshman in either of the two scheduled games between the two teams.

Smarting under the five straight defeats, Coach Christoph and his basketball team are determined to break this losing streak at the expense of Marquette. In the last two years, the Blues have defeated Marquette twice each season, and consequently Coach Murray will have his team keyed to the utmost to revenge the defeats of the past seasons.

In the short practice held Monday, Coach Christoph attempted to revive the fighting spirit of the team, and after a light practice in shooting and team work the squad was sent home.

Marquette has played some of the leading teams in the midwest this season. They have played Wisconsin, Notre Dame, Butler and the Michigan Aggies, and while they did not defeat Wisconsin or Michigan they gave them real battles. The Golden Avalanche is led by the Herte brothers and Corrie Dunn, brother of the famous "Red."

Lawrence will probably use Heide-man and Clarke at forwards, Sund at center and Briese and Grove at guards. Hillman and Bent are the only other two eligible men for the contest, and both will undoubtedly see service before the end of the game.

Westberg, Shemanski, Win Boxing Bouts

In the elimination bouts of the intra-mural boxing tournament held before the Coe basketball game, L. Westberg defeated "Bob" English, and Shemanski won from Scott. Both winners received the judge's decision.

Instead of holding these elimination bouts in the gym, they were held before the basketball game to give the students a chance to see the pugilists in action.

English displayed most of the aggressiveness in the first round of his bout with Westberg, but failed to land many blows. The fight was lively, both men missing many punches and both becoming winded. Westberg won all three rounds and the match. This was the 135 lb. class.

In the 145 lb. class Shemanski was given a shade over Scott. Shemanski won the first two rounds on aggressiveness. He had Scott completely bewildered. During the last round, Scott staged a comeback and won the round, but the bout went to Shemanski by less than a point margin.

Will Elect Y.M.C.A. Officers

The annual election of officers for the college Y.M.C.A. will be held Thursday evening in the 'Y' room at Brokaw hall. The meeting is called for seven o'clock and the cabinet has issued a special appeal for everyone interested in the reorganization of the Y.M.C.A. to be present.

Distinguished Rating Awarded "Lawrentian"

A certificate of distinguished rating in the 1926-27 National College Press Congress publication contest has been received by the Lawrentian. This award was won in a contest with college and university publications from every state in the union and the leading provinces of Canada.

The award was established at the University of Illinois where the 1926 contest was held under the direction of Lawrence W. Murphy. To quote from the "Quill", the journal of Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalistic fraternity, the publications were judged "for the purpose of determining their general merit on the basis of opportunity."

An elaborate exhibit of student publications is to be part of the Educational exposition which is being held by the Oregon State chapter of Sigma Delta Chi. One thousand high school students will be guests of the college at the exhibition.

Catlin Links Life To Athletic Education

"You will go just as far in your athletics, in your studies, in your life work, as you make up your mind to go," said Coach Mark Catlin in a speech at convocation Monday.

"The thought that everyone who comes to college should have uppermost in his mind is the will to get somewhere," Coach Catlin continued. Drawing an analogy from a court trial, he showed what a farce it would be if the lawyer gave anything less than his best.

"I have come to believe that this is a coonskin age," he went on. "College men wear coonskin coats, smoke cigarettes, and sit on the sidelines at football games."

He then mentioned the lack of interest in the football class which is being conducted during the winter months. He closed with a plea to college men to attend the class which will meet next Thursday.

Oppose Schmiede Measures As "Class Legislation"

With several of his bills coming up before the state legislature, Oscar Schmiede, assemblyman from Outagamie county, received some strong opposition recently to his bill for increasing the membership of the state board of bar examiners, and stipulating that at least two members of the board be professors of law in a publicly supported school. The opposition comes from Max Schaetz, Jr., dean of the Marquette University law school, himself a former Lawrentian.

In his attack on Mr. Schmiede's measure, Schaetz characterizes the bill as a barefaced attempt to discriminate against the Marquette law

Women Vote Favorably On Point System

Scale of Points Announced For All Campus Activities

An amendment to the W.S.G.A. constitution, providing for the organization of a point system committee, was passed by an almost unanimous vote of the women students on Friday morning. The amendment reads: There shall be a point system committee which shall be composed of a chairman and two associate members, all to be appointed by the president of W.S.G.A. on the recommendation of Student Council of W.S.G.A. The committee shall keep all records and inform of an infraction of the system with the chairman acting as ex-officio member on Student Council.

The set of rules regulating the women's extra-curricular activities that will follow as a result of the amendment were formulated by a W.S.G.A. committee composed of Edith Reeve, chairman, Arlene Kempton, Jean Christensen, Marian Marsh, Winifred Newberry, and Mary Peck. The new system comes as the result of a careful study of the systems of Vassar, Goucher, University of Nebraska and the University of Michigan, whose systems were used as a basis for the Lawrence plan.

According to the new system no student shall carry, at one time, more than twenty permanent points; or twenty-five permanent and temporary points, of which not more than ten may be temporary; or ten temporary points only.

The following is the evaluation of activities made by the committee:

Senior class officers: president, 10p; vice-president, 5p; secretary, 5p; treasurer, 8p.

Junior class officers: president, 10p; vice-president, 5p; secretary, 5p; treasurer, 8p.

Recitals Presented By Faculty Members Of Conservatory

Series of Five Recitals Opened Last Thursday By Professor Fullinwider

A series of five faculty recitals was opened last Thursday evening with a concert by Professor Percy Fullinwider, violinist, and Nettie Steinger Fullinwider, accompanist. The numbers included a Grieg Sonata, a Mendelssohn Concerto, and Vieuxtemps' "Fantasia Appassionata." A group of varied short numbers added zest to the program.

The second recital will be given Tuesday evening, March 1, by an ensemble group made up of four teachers at the conservatory and an assisting musician, Cyrus K. Daniels, pianist; Marion Hutchinson MacCreedy, soprano; Percy Fullinwider and Wenzel Albrecht, violinists; and Carver Williams, cellist, of Evanston, Illinois.

A Beethoven centenary concert will be given by the conservatory orchestra under Professor Fullinwider Tuesday evening, March 22. Caroline Hess, mezzo soprano, professor of voice, Professor James L. Mursell, pianist, and Professor Fullinwider will be the assisting soloists.

John Ross Frampton, pianist, Carl S. McKee, baritone, Percy Fullinwider, violinist, professors at the conservatory; and Fay Liefeldt, cellist, of Chicago, will present an ensemble program on Thursday, April 20.

A piano recital by Gladys Ives Brainard, professor of piano, on Tuesday evening, May 3, will conclude the series. Miss Brainard will be assisted by the conservatory string quartet.

Women Boost Rifle Scores In Practice

Helen Fredrickson and Helen Ziegler led the list of rifle scorers in the last practice with 45, while other high scores were, Iola Langer, 44, Alice Michels 44, Esther Ziegler 42.

Girls' shooting scores are gradually attaining that "perfect fifty" aspect in spite of the position. Formerly the position was the determiner of the score, but such is not the case now, as the girls are becoming more adept in the sport.

The lineup of the girls' class basketball teams as announced in Friday's Lawrentian is tentative and players may be changed from one team to another at the discretion of the coach and class basketball managers. The definite lineup will be announced at the tournament.

Will Group Frosh Girls In Dormitories

Ormsby and Peabody To Be Reserved For First Year Women

A change in policy regarding the distribution of girls in the dormitories of Lawrence college, which means that freshmen girls will henceforth live in "dorms" of their own, has been decided upon by the administration, according to an announcement made from the college office today.

The shift in membership distribution, announcement of which was made necessary by the advance applications for rooms which have been coming in to the college office within the past few weeks, has been made by the administration after consultations with the presidents of sororities and W.S.G.A. officials.

This probably means that no freshman girls will be allowed to live at Smith house, Russell Sage dormitory or Sage cottage next fall, and that Ormsby and Peabody houses will be set aside as living quarters for the frosh women. In addition to these freshmen, a group of upperclass women, at the ratio of about one to every ten frosh, will be selected to live with the latter as guides, counsellors and friends.

The change, it is believed, will give the freshmen girls a better chance to become acquainted with each other, will put them in a place where "dorm" rules may be more easily enforced, and will break down any social distinction which at the present time may exist between dormitories.

The change, it has been pointed out, is really not much of an innovation. Comparatively few upperclassmen now live in Ormsby or Peabody, while the number of frosh girls in Sage and Smith is relatively small. The idea, which has been adhered to with considerable success in many other colleges, including Beloit, carries out some of the ideas brought to the front during Freshman Week.

Wriston Appoints Cooperation Group

Five presidents of Wisconsin colleges and universities comprise the membership of a new committee appointed by Dr. H. M. Wriston, president of the Association of Wisconsin Colleges and Universities, for the purpose of considering methods of cooperation between the colleges and universities of Wisconsin.

Members of the committee are President Glenn Frank of the University of Wisconsin, chairman; president A. C. Fox of Marquette university, Milwaukee; President Irving Mauer of Beloit college; President Silas Evans of Ripon; and Dr. Wriston as head of the organization.

The committee, which was authorized at the last annual convention of the association in January, will conduct an extensive study of the problem under survey and report its findings at the 1928 convention of the Wisconsin association.

National Y.W. Secretary Here

Miss Hamilton, national student secretary of Y.W.C.A. for the states of Wisconsin and Illinois, will speak at the Y.W.C.A. meeting at Hamar House on Thursday evening.

Reads For Women's Club

Miss Lucille Welty will read "A Kiss for Cinderella" by Barrie before the Women's Club of Marshfield Tuesday.

Evelyn Thelander, '26, who is head of the Fond du Lac High School library, spent the week-end with Alpha Delta Pi sisters.

THE POINT SYSTEM

One of the most discouraging things which can be said about a student body is that it is sleeping—inactive. The constant popping of ideas from the Lawrence student body keeps us from falling into the dead-from-the-neck-up-never-get-nowhere-class.

The new idea right now is the Point System, worked out by a group of W.S.G.A. girls. According to Edith Reeve, chairman of the point system committee, the plan has three aims: first, to protect a girl's scholastic standing by preventing her from giving too much of her time to outside work; second, to promote efficiency in the carrying out of responsibilities; third, to give the opportunity of participation in extra-curricular activities to a larger number of girls.

The realization of these aims is assuredly something worth working for. Too many students barter their scholastic accomplishment for heavy extra-curricular work; too many students get no chance to add to their liberal education through extra-curricular efforts. No college rut is deeper than the one which has to do with the choosing of leaders. Each year there is a select group of capable individuals—people who have the happy faculty of getting things done and who fairly radiate reliance and organization power—and into the laps of these individuals is unloaded all the extra-curricular work that should be carried by scores of individuals. As a result, extra-curricular becomes a burden and not an education, and many individuals with potential power are left undiscovered.

The Point System, as it now stands, is in only a tentative form, and the committee asks for constructive criticism. Is the evaluation too high? Too low? Have some activities been overlooked? Is there a possible correlation of work which might result in a lowering of points? These are questions which the committee wishes the girls to discuss and constructively criticize. The rules are flexible and no doubt many alterations will be necessary before the system is put into permanent form. Make your suggestions now while the plan is still tentative.

"AND NOW THAT I HAVE BECOME A MAN—"

Hissing and wise-cracking at a basketball game—more specifically, at the referee—is obviously a high school stunt, and should be discarded, like shooting spitballs or throwing blackboard erasers, when one enters college. If for no other reason, the very fact that the practice brings no results should make intelligent people realize that booing the referee is below the level of a college audience and a useless waste of energy, energy which might be expended in good cheering.

There are certain things in this world of ours which serve to label us cultured or uncultured. One of them is panning the referee at a game. Lawrence has been lauded for its wholehearted spirit of sportsmanship, and custom has led opposing teams to expect courteous treatment of a superior sort. Let's avoid flagrant violations of a traditions like the one exhibited Friday night.

Mystery Solved at Last

It was ink after all.

After investigations in the chemistry laboratories had conclusively shown that the spot on the sidewalk was writing fluid, the confession of a First Ward schoolboy solved the dilemma. Because of important family relationships, the matter is not to be disclosed publicly.

And that is that!

The question is: Who was fooled the most?

Dumb: My girl has a guttural voice.

Ditto: What do you mean, guttural?

Dumb: Very low in tone.

Ditto: That's nothing; my girl has a guttural mind.

Kohawks Grab 24 to 20 Struggle From Scrappy Blues

Second Half Lawrence Rally Fails to Close Gap On Coe
Squad

Starting their second half rally too late, Lawrence college lost their fourth straight conference game to Coe college Saturday night 24 to 20. Lawrence took an early lead which Coe overtook before the end of the first half, and from then on the Blues never threatened until just before the end of the fray.

The Coe college team was a smooth, well coached aggregation composed of crack shots. They were lead by Captain Tullis, Lamb and Hubbard who did most of the scoring for the Kohawks.

The Lawrence play was ragged at times and it seemed that the Blues were playing the man rather than the ball. Twelve personal fouls were committed by the Lawrence team, Grove and Briese both being put out of the game on four personals.

For Lawrence, Sund, and Hillman, inserted late in the game, did most of the scoring. Sund made all of Lawrence's points during the first half which ended 10 to 6 in favor of Coe.

Lawrence took the lead when Sund made a short shot and one free throw on a foul. The big center scored three more free throws during the half. Baskets by Hubbard and Lamb put Coe in the lead a little later.

In the second half, Hillman was inserted at guard, Briese going to forward. When Grove was taken out on four personals, Slavik took his place at guard. Fifty seconds before the end of the game Briese was put out on four fouls and Bent took his place.

Coe advanced the lead to a 20 to 10 advantage in the second half. Towards the end of the half a basket by Heideman, free throws by Briese and two long shots from mid-floor by Hillman put Lawrence within striking distance of Coe but the rally was short lived when the game ended 24 to 20 in Coe's favor.

Phi Kap-D.I. Tie As Phi Taus Roll 909

Coming back with a rush after dropping the first two games to the D.I.'s, the Phi Taus swept the alleys for a 909 count in the last game to push the D.I. keggers into a tie with the Phi Kaps with fifteen victories and three upsets. This 909 count sets the record for the second highest game of the year, coming within one pin of tying the high water mark.

Rolling on the second shift the Betas made a clean sweep of their series with the Sig Eps, sliding into third position in the league standings, one game behind the leaders. With but one more set of games for each fraternity remaining on the schedule there is every possibility for an interesting mixup before the championship is decided.

In the next series the D.I.'s and Betas throw pins at each other in the contest that will virtually decide the race. If the D.I.'s sweep this series and the Phi Kaps throw the Delta Sigs for a loss these two teams will have to decide the pennant between themselves. On the other hand, should the Betas crush the D.I. pin dusters and the Delta Sigs pull a surprise victory out of the fire the Betas will cop the bacon. Even a 2 to 1 victory for the Sigs will tie the Phi Kaps and Betas. Then again if the D.I.'s crash the maples for three straight and the Delta Sigs take a single game from the Phi Kaps the D.I.'s will come out on top of the pile.

In a very closely contested game of the inter-fraternity basketball league the Thetas defeated the Betas 16-6 Saturday afternoon at the Alexander gym. The first half was very hard fought with numerous fouls being called on both teams for roughing. The half ended 6-4 in favor of the North Street boys.

In the second half the Betas were weakened by the absence of MacDonald and Lowry who were taken out on personal fouls soon after the half was under way, and the Thetas were able to run up enough baskets to win.

the game. The Betas had plenty of chances to shoot, but were off style and few of the shots fell true.

In a well-played game of basketball the D.I.'s defeated the Sig Eps 12-5 Saturday afternoon in an inter-fraternity league game. The game started off with the D.I.'s taking the lead on a basket by Mitchell, but the Sig Eps came right back and scored a basket to even the count. The score at the end of the first half stood 5-3 for the D.I.'s. In the second half both teams missed numerous "pot" shots along with enough free throws to win any basketball game. Rasmussen did the best playing for the winners, and Schauer played best for the Sig Eps.

The Phi Taus and the Phi Kaps had a real game with the Phi Taus staging a rally in the closing minutes, sewing up the game by the score of 13-8. Behling started the scoring for the Phi Taus with a basket from mid-floor, thereby putting them in the lead for the first few minutes. Then Barfell dropped one through to make it even. Behling and Valentine carried the brunt of the attack for the Phi Taus while Bloomer was the Phi Kaps best man. The first half ended 9-5 in favor of the Phi Taus, but the Phi Kaps nearly tied the score in the fourth quarter. The Phi Taus then threw in a few baskets to put the game on the shelf.

In the final game of the afternoon the Delta Sigs defeated the Psi Chis in a hard-fought game by the score of 6-2. The two teams were very evenly matched but the Delta Sigs had the best eyes and as a result were able to put across a win. The Delta Sig defense was impenetrable, and the Psi Chis did not make a single basket in the entire game. There were very many fouls called but very few of the free throws were made. Kittleson, with two baskets, was high point man for the Delta Sigs, while the Psi Chi points were divided between Huberty and McMahon.

SPRING As Reflected in New Frocks at $19.50

Spring of 1927 and what of its frocks? They are almost sure to have the bloused back or grouped tucks, pleats in an infinite variety of arrangements and perhaps a perky bow at the waist or neckline. They are suitable for immediate wear and come in the most delightful variety of fabrics at $19.50.

The Jacket Frock Is Smart in Flat Crepe

Jacket frocks are first choices for day-time wear. There are so many pretty versions of it, but one of the most popular is the two-piece frock in flat crepe, usually in two colors. Very tailored in its simplicity.

Pleats, Tiers, Aprons Are Seen on New Models

Skirts of the smartest frocks for early spring show the cleverest arrangements of pleats, sometimes at the sides and sometimes the whole skirt is finely pleated. Tiers and apron effects are almost as frequent, and in every case the slim line is preserved.
