

LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY
MATRICULATION
CONVOCATION

“Musings on the Millennium”

Richard Warch
University President

Thursday, September 23, 1999
11:10 a.m.
Lawrence Memorial Chapel

In the Quest for Understanding

Sesquicentennial Anthem for Lawrence University

Text: Carl P. Daw, Jr., 1996

Music: Thaxted, 8686x3; adapted by Gustav Holst from his 1916 orchestral suite The Planets
Harmonization, adapted from Holst, from Hymns for Church and School, 1964

1 In the quest for un - der - stand - ing, for know - ledge deep and true;
2 From the school - ars past and pres - ent by whom our minds are stirred;

with the in - tel - lect and ta - lent we bring to all we do;
from the art - ists who in - spire... us through beau - ties seen or heard;

when our stud - ies i - so - late us or pro - mote a com - mon task;
from the la - bors of our foun - ders, re - so - lute and brave - ly wise,

through the growth of taste and judg - ment by learn - ing what to ask;
from the shock of fresh per - spec - tives that take us by sur - prise;

though the an - swers seem less fre - quent than ques - tions they in - vite;
from the hope that un - der - stand - ing will help our world u - nite;

as new chal - len - ges con - front— us: we search for light, more light.
from our dai - ly life at Law - rence: we gath - er light, more light.

PROGRAM

PROCESSIONAL*

Orchestral Suite in D Major
Gavotte I and II

Johann Sebastian Bach
(1685-1750)
arranged by W. Rüksam

Wolfgang Rüksam
University Organist and Artist-in-Residence

OPENING WORDS

Howard Niblock
Professor of Music

Selections by the
New Student Week Choir
Richard Bjella, Conductor

INTRODUCTION OF PRESIDENT WARCH

John Brandenberger
Professor of Physics

ADDRESS

“Musings on the Millennium”

Richard Warch
University President

SESQUICENTENNIAL ANTHEM (All rise and sing)

CLOSING WORDS

Howard Niblock
Professor of Music

RECESSIONAL*

Toccata in F Major

Charles-Marie Widor
(1844 -1937)

* Please stand for the processional and stand and remain in place during the recessional.

Ushers for today's convocation are members of Lambda Sigma, an honor society for sophomore men and women.

RICHARD WARCH

Richard Warch has served as president of Lawrence since 1979. Immediately prior to his appointment as president, he served as vice-president for academic affairs and professor of history.

Warch earned the Bachelor of Arts degree at Williams College in 1961 and followed that with two years of study abroad at Edinburgh University. An ordained minister in the United Presbyterian Church, he earned the Bachelor of Divinity degree at the Yale Divinity School in 1964. He continued study at Yale University and earned the Doctor of Philosophy degree in American studies in 1968.

For the next ten years, Warch served Yale in a number of capacities, including associate professor of history and American studies, director of the National Humanities Institute program, associate dean of the college, and director of the Visiting Faculty Program.

At Yale, he was awarded the Rockefeller Brothers Theological Fellowship, the Mary Cady Tew Prize, the William Robertson Coe Fellowship, and the Morse Fellowship.

Warch has written the book School of the Prophets: Yale College, 1710-1740 and co-edited John Brown, Great Lives Observed Series, published by Prentice-Hall, along with more than a score of articles and reviews addressing issues in higher education.

NEXT CONVOCATION

Heinz Fricke, Music Director of the Washington Opera

Tuesday, November 2, 1999, 11:10 a.m.
Lawrence Memorial Chapel

One of the outstanding conductors of the German repertoire, Heinz Fricke currently holds the position of music director of the Washington Opera. Born in Halberstadt, Germany, he received his education in Weimar with Hermann Abendroth and in Berlin with Erich Kleiber. He is noted worldwide for his performances of operas by Wagner and Strauss and symphonic repertoire by Beethoven, Brahms, and Bruckner.

LAWRENCE
UNIVERSITY
APPLETON, WISCONSIN