Press Club to Aid Interest In Journalism

First Business Meeting To Be Held Thursday Night: Open

Are you interested in newspaper work or any other phase of journalism? Then you will probably care to come to the weekly meetings of Lawrence's new Press Club, which is to begin thefirst session at a business meeting, held at eight-thirty Thursday night in the Lawrence office.

The program of the Press Club is very interesting, and the officers and other speakers will not cease until Tuesday, Feb. 4th, but all students interested in the subject are invited to be present.

Present members of Press Club and journalism students will work collaboratively on the weekly working and the regular meeting of the club.

The students of the Press Club will be asked to work as a team to assist in the formation of the club and the services of the club.

For members of the Press Club, members of the journalism faculty will be invited to attend the regular meetings of the Press Club.

T he tion of the Press Club will be to aid in the creation of interest in journalism.

Conservatory Faculty Assist At Vespers

Members of the faculty of Lawrence Conservatory of music will be present at the Vesper service.

This was the last opportunity of the season to attend concerts and the regular meetings of the Press Club.

The students of the Press Club are in charge of the program of the Press Club.

Ripon Hens Wright

On College Preparation

At ten o'clock this morning Dr. M. H. Wright, of Ripon College, gave a lecture on "Preparation for College Work." Dr. Wright has written a number of pamphlets on this subject of the college, and has been asked to speak on this subject.

Dr. Wright will talk on the question of whether or not the United States has a consistent foreign policy and its relations with the rest of the world.

London Times Reviews Lawrence Grad's "Book"

The "London" for August contains a review of "The Life and Works of Nicholas Grundy," by J. F. Boyce, which was published last year by the Yale University Press. Dr. Mottly graduated from the school in 1842 and is now the editor of the New York Times in Lawrence, New Jersey.

The Times speaks highly of Grundy's value as a humanist, his work as the master of the Deacon's Church, and his emotionalism.

Waterman Students To Appear In Song Recital January 28

Students from the studio of Carl J. Waterman, assisted by Misses Ethel Hill, Roberta Waterman, and Misses Emily Hill, were selected for the program of the College Choral Society, and for the program of the University of Wisconsin, and for the program of the Wisconsin University Press.

This is the third recital of the season, and is expected to be the last recital of the season.

Phi Kaps, Sigma's Tie In Basket Tourney

Sigmas Beat Big Boys When Sigma Defeat Bets, Nine to Seven

All varieties of basketball were demonstrated Saturday afternoon when the Sigma fraternity teams closed another week of competition in the inter-fraternity basketball league. Some of the exhibitions as the event were good, others were either indifferent or poor.

The biggest setback of the afternoon came in the first game when the Sigma team defeated the Delta Sigma Phi team, 9 to 5. This was a sad blow in the league. The Sigma team, which the Betas may have had, and it also increased the respect of the other teams for the Sigma. The Sigma's got a terrific score in their game with the Phi Tau team, when the betarn teamed that the score at all with only a few minutes left when it would be over. Tuesday, at the former Appleton High School, books, books and a shot that glittered the hearts of the Union Street outfit and gave them a 10 to 8 win.

In the third game the Phi Chi team tried hard enough, but that is all they did. If it were they received 23 1 0 3 28, but in the hands of the Phi Chi. This team won the fair street five to a first place which they, as well as the Sigma, would like to keep.

Four basketball was exhibited in the last game, in which the Sigma team beat the Theta's by a lopsided baseball score of 10 to 1.

This Saturday the Sigma play the Phi Chi, the Betas play the Phi Tau, and the Theta play the Phi Kaps. The situation:

Bet Kaps Alpha 2 0 0 0 0
Sigma Phi Beta 2 0 0 0 0
Delta Tau 1 0 0 0 0
Phi Chi Omega 1 0 0 0 0
Delta Sigma Tau 1 0 0 0 0
Theta Phi 2 0 0 0 0
Theta Phi 2 0 0 0 0

Discussion of Moral Standards at Y.W.C.A.

"The most tortuous dilemma of life you make is to choose," said Miss Naylor in her discussion of "What Shall a Girl's Moral Standards Be?" at W.Y.C.A. meeting Tuesday, January 22. "You are not expected to choose your life work.

"The problem of a girl's attitude toward men, the speaker continued, "is not a new problem. It is as old as the race. But the increased liberty now given to the girl of this age adds to the problem. The question is no new, "Shall I obey this or that convention?" but "What Shall a girl do with her freedom?"

"We cannot say that instinct is given us and we must obey," the speaker said. "The paganism in action, for instance, is natural. It cannot always be shamed. The will must be the lead of all other.

The ideal must be its guide, and nothing excuses us from having a high ideal."
