The production will be accompanied by several musical numbers, including "Lickin' and L'arnin'" and "Pig Foot Polka," which are interpolated in the play.

Results of H. S. Debates Held in State Last Week

Second Series of Debates Will Be Held on Wednesday

Although the return of the high school debates held last Friday evening was not complete from two sources because of the absence of delegates from the Union and the Wisconsin High School Literary League, the second series of the debates will be held next Friday afternoon at 4:30.

Several of the debates are of great interest and will be considered the most important of the semester.

The debate will be between the Federalist and the Republican parties on the question of "The Y.M. and Y.W.C.A ought to be the leaders in the inter-fraternity life of the campus.

The Lawrentian

We have just discovered the error in the art which heads this column. For one thing, Professor Sower's room in Science Hall isn't lighted. But most important of all--the Observatory steps are lighted. Now, I ask you, who ever heard of anything like that?

Recently News: "...and bright lights." The steps change 'em for us every night and leave us.

"The Lawrentian" was lighted for its adoption here. It has been worked out by several schools--at least one reads of its adoption here. "The Lawrentian" was lighted last night to members of the Junior class.

Anyway, that's the way the report of the Junior class will read some day. As long as nothing except the idea is carried out, we may stand some chance.

Good Old Dad

Young Soper was off of college. "Goodbye, my boy," said his father. "Write to me often." "That's generously done," responded Soper brightly. "Thank you!"

Anabolic Legions Weekly.

Well, another week's over, and the six weeks exams are over on Sunday. And all of us are so amazed in our studies that even if we do not get our grades, we could be more than盧uke WARM."

The grade one students whose interests are being figured among many, and who therefore are not as good to the group.

The exams under such conditions as have been mentioned, to many Lawrentians who are learning extra-curricular hobbies run them ragged. How the situation will be further remedied without the burdens of a complicated system is a mystery.

An instructor who is concerned about his own student might, upon hearing that the student is a member of a certain activity, ask the president of the club or organization to withdraw from membership in the club without his approval. Any club president or organization head will not comply with a reasonable request of this kind from an instructor should be required to resign his student status.

Then, most effective preventive measures of all, the emphasis which groups themselves now lay on their legal liabilities should be greatly strengthened. No student should be welcomed as a member of a public club's officers, departmental club, or other organization, unless he is a regular member of the group, and a hard worker in the group. This will not put out a lot of people who are giving part of their time to little, part of their attention to that, and a little to something else. And we believe that would solve much of the problem, since trends from too many extra-curricular interests and rewards among the "deeper," the "fatter," rather than among the people who necessitate.

On The Screen

Not often do movie fans have the delight of watching two of the great screen favorites in two photoplays on the same program, as in the current attraction at Finkbein Appleton Theater. Billed as one of the best photoplays that Gloria Swanson has appeared in, "Stage Struck" is sure to add to her host of admirers. It bordered on the verge of broad comedy dealing with the love of a waitress for the big-jay hunk employed in the same river town restaurant. Larry Gray plays the Miss Swanson. Larry is about as antinews and Gloria, in hopes of winning his love, takes a correspondence course in acting, with hilarious results. On the same show is a Harold Lloyd popular fancied vaudeville comedy, "I'm D".

The McMahan orchestra from Radiostation WRIK at DeKalbton who made a hit at the vaudeville program of last week, have been held over.

"The Little Giant" is a melodrama, "modern mystery", in which Blanche Sweet, Ronny Lake, Redflower, Smith, George Cooper, Pedro de Cordova, Susan Kene, Ella Shannon, Dorothy Cummings and many others are cast.

The "New Commandment" is a screen adaptation of Colonel Ferecester's "Piquant," in which Howard Hickox wielded the megaphone for Mr. Keane in his production, and has provided several tunes and clever attention to detail.

Dr. W. F. Mitchell will speak to the employees of the Glesmesdale Drug Co. on "Riding" at a dinner at the store, Tuesday, February 3.

Frosh Win DePere and Marion Games

Hockey Players Will Play Menasha Bounders

Lawrence's newly organized hockey team will have a chance to show their power when it plays its first game with the Menasha Bounders at Whiting Field next Saturday. The latter organization is said to be composed of all-star athletes who have traveled in different sports, and should put up a good exhibition of hockey next Saturday if the weather permits. Although hockey is a new sport at Lawrence the prospects for a good team are excellent. As increasing number of fellows have turned out for the position which are held Tuesday mornings. Most of the followers who are out are good skaters, and much of the time is devoted to developing teamwork. Several combinations have been tried and the most effective one which will probably be used in the game Saturday is as follows: Center, Moore; Right Wing, Hutton; Left Wing, Noller; Right Defense, Horner; Left Defense, Anderson, and Goal Guards, Schulte and Stul. Getting in and out of position has been the greatest difficulty in handling the puck. All of these men should report for your game at Whiting Field at 2:30. All the others who are interested in hockey are urged to come out soon.
