The incident is worthy of mention because it was the only climax to be brought in an unseemly manner during the years called friendly in inter-fraternity rivalry. The fraternity asked that the Lawrence against the Beloit track team. The fraternity rests in the hands of the Athletic Department. Once it sets the dates previous to Saturday’s game, were erucial and the winner would be the greatest Man who ever lived, filling us with those principles of righteousness. Different methods of putting things across appeal with greater or lesser clarity. The lawrentian tell of the victory down, but when they become, as they must, we are impressed by the fact that they walk by the same path. The book has left.

"Left! But what for?"

"For the evening," said the sophomore as he dashed for the door.

IF ONLY

I like my books. I like my hair.

You can look which can compare with yours, my shiekish, handsome one. I ought to love you, I declare. Mayhap it’s just your destiny that you will never be loved by her. You won’t be loved in real love.

West Green Bay high walked off with the victory in the First Annual Valley Conference meet held at Wau- ~Green Bay field last night. The score was 404 points, and breaking several records. Manitowoc came second with 20 points and Oshkosh third with 18.

One of the best performances of the afternoon was made by Orleebeke of Shiocton, who set a record of 2 feet 2 inches in the high jump, bettering the old record by 1 inch. Another record was broken by Osei- me of West Green Bay, who threw the javelin 107 feet which is more than 20 feet better than the record held by Barnes of the same school in 1925.

The pole vault went a bit higher than before when Kilburn and Mc- Cown sailed over the bar at 10 feet 6 inches, five inches above the former mark.

Ralph, West Green Bay, was the outstanding star of the meet. He broke both the shot put and the dis-~ discus records. On the shot put he threw 44 feet 9 inches and the discus 114 feet 9 inches, five inches above the former.

Crabke, West Green Bay, stepped the 100 yard in 14.8 seconds to establish the record which was 11.14.

waves, East Green Bay, set a record breaking when he ran the mile in 4 minutes 24.8 seconds, a time 2.5 seconds better than the old record set by Bills, Manitowoc, with a time of 4 minutes 27.3.

The low hurdles record also suffered some vengeance at the hands of West Green Bay boy, who topped them in 28.5 seconds, thereby breaking a mark of 29.8 set in 1913. The broad jump kept on going with the other new records through the leap of Ham- mon, West Green Bay, who cleared 7 feet 8 inches, 7 feet 10 inches.

There were only four out of thirteen events that did not have their mark broken. Of the new events, three were set by West Green Bay men.

100 yard high hurdles—Bos-<hun (tied for first), Paul Engle, East Green Bay, tied for second at 14.3.

Paul Vedrus, Manitowoc, tied for third at 14.8.

Faye Wilson, Manitowoc, tied for third at 14.8.

Jumps—Klinda, Cunic, Manitowoc (tied for first), Paul Eng- le, East Green Bay, tied for second at 15.4.
