The Spirit of the College

The Lawrence student body has often been accused of a lack of sufficient school spirit. The manifestation of honest-to-goodness Lawrence spirit is connection. Friday morning dispelled that notion; the special train to Ripon on Saturday will scatter the rest of it.

After all, what is school spirit of Lawrence? When the Beloit or Ripon fan harps upon the Lawrence College, there are many special predispositions made for either school, other than the coaching of the team. Mass meetings are held, and the country speakers are put on the platform to influence street opinion. On the day of the game the cheer leaders and student work with utter abandon to swell the volume of cheering. After victory, or defeat, they stand by, either to appluad or to sympathize. That is an evidence of school spirit. When a campaign is flamed—for a new building, for a band, for a Ham¬er Boost, the call is answered with subscriptions of great generosity, not only from the student body but from alumni and friends. Lawrence Men¬orial chapel is the result of this spirit. Here we come to Lawrence.

Applying requests: Say what's this thing that I have to do about? Editor: "That's the place where we have all the requests that fail to get their copy in on time.

The door to the Lawrentian office is open, and will accept any report stated. He shook the water from his coat, and remarked, "It is raining without rain." Without water what? Come theready chair. Without a doubt! replied the soul as he bid the room.

Students Elected To History Organization

At a meeting of the executive com¬ mittee of the History club, Thursday, November 8, the annual elections in every member was held with the fol¬ lowing results: seniors, Wayne Park¬
isease, Agnes Norem, Faith Richards, Helen Gray, and Phyllis Schiffer; juniors, Madge Helmar, Harold Cripe, William Yerhage, Eleanor Smith, and Milton Leadholm.

Membership to the club is honor¬ ary; thus, members usually discuss at the meetings, and seniors who are majoring in history and who get an average of B or over in that subject. Occasion¬ al sophomores are admitted to the organizations if their work meets satisfactory election and if they have indicated their interest in majoring in history.

The next meeting of the club will be at a party at home at Albin park, Thursday, November 15.

Harvard Professor Will Lecture Here

The appearance of an international¬ l y known speaker before the Law¬ rence college student body has been announced through the agreement of Rollo Walter Brown, until recently Harvard University, to give a series of three lectures before the Lawrence college students. These lectures will take place on November 8, 9, and 10. Professor Brown has made appear¬ ances before numerous American colleges and universities during the past three or four years and has been highly recommended by Pres¬ ident James Bals of Allegheny Coll¬
lege, where he recently spoke.

The speaker's three topics will be chosen from the following list of four: "The Creative Spirit and the American Public," "Creative Spirit and Youth," "Creative Spirit and the Industrial Scheme," and "Creative Spirit and Art."

The lectures will be held on Mon¬ day, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov¬ ember 8, 9, 10, will be arranged in order to give the betterer efficient time.

Before he became exchange profes¬ sor at Harvard, Professor Brown held professorships at Carleton and Wal¬ sh colleges.

Students Challenge Faculty To Fall Tennis Tournament

The students of Lawrence college have issued a challenge to the faculty to compete in tennis, according to an announcement issued last Friday morning. The tennis tournament will be played at the new Whiting Field courts, and will be held next Tuesday afternoon if the challenge is taken.

As a condition of accepting the challenge, the faculty members are to be brought back by 8:00 a.m. only with permission at 9:30 p.m., and during the evening must be returned to the desk which is taken from the library, in order that books kept overdue are now in effect; books which are in circulation in the library must be returned to the desk by 9:30 p.m., or they will be charged for at the rate of two cents a day. Books which are in circulation in the library must be returned to the desk by 9:30 p.m., or they will be charged for at the rate of two cents a day.

New Election For Cheer Leader Held

Because of some dissatisfaction among the students as to the manner in which the cheer leaders were chosen, a resolution was held in order to elect a new cheer leader for the chapel period. The following fines for reserve books were made:
