Pageant Is Postponed Until Today

Heavy Rain Saturday Forces Abandonment Of May Day Festivities

A heavy rain again interferred with the May Day festivities, scheduled for last Saturday, making it necessary to postpone the May Pageant until today at 4 o'clock.

Of all the much planned events of the day none met the rain more resolutely than these. The rain was the only thing that materialized.

The fete, a colorful pageant of music and dancing, was the true expression of the May Queen, written by Miss Katherine S. Elliot of the University of Wisconsin. It includes general dance representations of the various countries and nationalities.

The route of the review pageant will be the evening of the Queen, Miss Helen Ryan, who is made up as a "Queen of May." The attendantPageant will be Mary Bess, '27, and Anne Ullman, '28, and a group of four children will escort the queen to her throne.

Presidential parts in the page will be taken by Miss Helen F. Libby, Spring, Alberta Brown, '29, at Wisdon, and E. C. Burleigh Brinn, '29, at Brown. Over two hundred girls take part in the parade.

In case it rains Tuesday the pageant will be held at Wednesday night.

Service For
Rev. Colman On Saturday

Lawrence Pays Tribute To Memory Of Oldest Alumni

Lawrence paid tribute to the memory of Dr. Henry Colman, oldest alumnus and member of the board of trustees Saturday morning at a service in the chapel. Rev. Dr. Colman died Wednesday when he is almost 80. Rev. Dr. Colman delivered the sermon during the hour of prayer. His life is one of the longest lived in the history of the university. He was a true son of the University and the University has been his home for over forty years.

Dr. Colman was born May 14, 1841, at Birmingham, Virginia. In 1860 he was trapped in the fight in the Civil War and after the war took up his work of teaching. He died in 1921. Dr. Colman was editor of the Ariel, and he was the editor of the Lawrence University Register.

Gordon Clapp Will Replace Miss Tolkien

Will Combine Work As Personnel Director With Publicity Of College

Friday, Chopin, '27, has been chosen to take the place of Miss Tolkien as personal director over Miss Tolkien will spend the year abroad as the Lawrence representative in the student exchange. Miss Tolkien will work in the committee on appointments and will help the committee, and Father Bogan in the high school. He was recently appointed secretary of public department of the city of Milwaukee where he was to plan to work for a Mas senhit, and he has been refused from his contract.

The new director has been very se­

timental four years here, because of for­ totic in formative years. This year he

ally, will be the highest honor gain

in the student body of the Lawrence.

Mr. Clapp will also work on the Commission, and to the third place winners

in the student exchange.

for the magnificent sum of three

will be toastmaster.

short talk and Dr. Henry M. Wriston

Mr. Clapp, '27, will represent the var­

made for the Lawrence Pay tribute to the mem­

to the first and second place winners.

will be for the magnificent sum of three

Dr. Colman was born May 14, 1841, at Birmingham, Virginia. In 1860 he was trapped in the fight in the Civil War and after the war took up his work of teaching. He died in 1921. Dr. Colman was editor of the Ariel, and he was the editor of the Lawrence University Register.

Gordon Clapp will also work on the Com­ commission, and to the third place winners

in the student exchange.

for the magnificent sum of three

will be toastmaster.

short talk and Dr. Henry M. Wriston

Mr. Clapp, '27, will represent the var­

made for the Lawrence Pay tribute to the mem­

to the first and second place winners.

will be for the magnificent sum of three

The new director has been very se­

timental four years here, because of for­ totic in formative years. This year he

ally, will be the highest honor gain

in the student body of the Lawrence.

Mr. Clapp will also work on the Commission, and to the third place winners

in the student exchange.

for the magnificent sum of three

will be toastmaster.

short talk and Dr. Henry M. Wriston

Mr. Clapp, '27, will represent the var­

made for the Lawrence Pay tribute to the mem­

to the first and second place winners.

will be for the magnificent sum of three

The new director has been very se­

timental four years here, because of for­ totic in formative years. This year he

ally, will be the highest honor gain

in the student body of the Lawrence.

Mr. Clapp will also work on the Commission, and to the third place winners

in the student exchange.

for the magnificent sum of three

will be toastmaster.

short talk and Dr. Henry M. Wriston

Mr. Clapp, '27, will represent the var­

made for the Lawrence Pay tribute to the mem­

to the first and second place winners.

will be for the magnificent sum of three

The new director has been very se­

timental four years here, because of for­ totic in formative years. This year he

ally, will be the highest honor gain

in the student body of the Lawrence.

Mr. Clapp will also work on the Commission, and to the third place winners

in the student exchange.
The Lawrentian

Member Wisconsin Intercollegiate Press Association

Edited and issued under seal of Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., on May 31, 1927, at the presses at Appleton, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1917, by...
THE LAWRENTIAN

Tournaees To Be Held

The officers of the Turnerae club for the current year will be elected Wednesday evening at the last meeting of the season. Herbert Rakowski '30, will read a paper.

Bill's Place
322 E. College Ave.

A. Pfefferle, Prop.

The Theatre That Made It

Makers of Mother's Broad,
Avenue Styles

EAT OAKS'

Pure Original Chocolates

Home Made Fresh Daily

The Talk of the Valley

OAKS'
ESTABLISHED 1885
Candy Exclusively

Next Door to Total Appleton

Elmer Pufahl, Prop.

B岱tary Science

L M. C. A. Cafeteria

Majestic

Quality Right Portions

For Men and Women

Dolores Costello

"BRIDE OF THE STORM"

Teverson and Thursday

Candle Glow Tea Room

Appleton's most delightful luncheons and dinner service—individual and for groups

The Appleton Machine Co.

The Appleton Machine Co.

 Builders of

PAPER AND PULP MILL MACHINERY

Bring Her to

The Palace Dainty Confections
Delightful Loncheras

Pleasant Surroundings
The engagement and approaching marriage of Margaret L. Benedict, '25, to Carl E. Edwards, Bloomington, all '30.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wriston, Professor and Mrs. Fred Tresize, and Mr. and Mrs. George Christoph.

Archonesses were Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Weetman, Professor and Mrs. Paul Trexel, and Mr. and Mrs. George Christoph.

Funeral Services For Rev. Colman Saturday

(Continued from Page 1)

Dr. Root of Fond du Lac paid tribute to Dr. Colman as a Wisconsin citizen and member of the Wisconsin conference. He spoke of his scholarly character, his steadfast faith, and his ever active interest in scientific affairs. "Henry Colman is not gone," he said in closing. "The memory life will ever linger in the life of this state, in this college, in the Wisconsin conference, and in the minds of every man and woman who is." Dr. Wilson S. Taylor officiated at the service. Dr. J. A. Hensler, pastor of the M. E. Church, read the scripture. Dr. Richard Evans, superintendent of the Appleton district, offered the prayer, and Dr. F. Scott Davis of Milwaukee pronounced the benediction.

Honorary pallbearers were trustees and senior members of the faculty. The trustees were L. M. Alexander, W. H. Hatton, G. W. Jawa, Lyman Nuth, James Bower, James Wood, and the faculty members were Professors J. R. Babey, J. C. Loomis, O. P. Fifefield, A. A. Trevor, C. C. Kallbus, and R. M. Rugg.

Active pallbearers were Gordon Chapp, Boy Brand, Palmer McConnell, Harry Snyder, Bruce Scott, and Leroy Beyer, all members of the senior class.

Professor J. R. Frampton presided at the organ before and after the services.

"Nation" Offers Prize To "Working" Students

The Nation magazine announces a one hundred dollar prize essay contest to any university or college student who spends his 1927 summer vacation at some agricultural or industrial occupation. The students competing must work at least two months of the summer season.

The deadline for the essay is November 1, 1927. The bulletin with complete information is posted in Professor Ophingger's room.

Professor Frank M. Tabor and Gladys Bagg Tabor, daughter of Dr. Rufus Bagg, will sail for Europe June 11. Professor Tabor was formerly a teacher in Severville. The couple plan to tour Europe, including in their itinerary the annual music festival in Germany.

Tempering Tones of Every Smart Shade, Every New Style Whim Is Here

Styles as brilliant and as daring as the young modern herself. Jacket and bolero effects—two piece and straightline modes—also the slenderizing styled dresses. Of course, they have clever trimmings. Size 16 to 52.