Graveure To Give Concert Wednesday

Versatile Baritone Continues Artistic Beacon Through Night

Louis Graveure, baritone of international fame, will sing at Lawrence Memorial chapel Tuesday evening as the second number of this season's series.

Because of his fine voice and artistic interpretation, Mr. Graveure's reputation as an oratorio and concert singer has been established both in this country and abroad, in Europe. His name alone is synonymous with names of artists who are recognized throughout the United States.

It is said that Mr. Graveure is the most versatile baritone in the concert stage. This does not refer to a high pitch in many languages and that he can sing in several different types, but rather that he is so skillful at making the most of his voice that he can claim it if it hadn't already been claimed.

His versatility is also that of a man of many languages and that his pronunciation in all of them is perfect. He can even claim a knowledge of certain streams. Through his wide knowledge of the mind of Christ to the great world of paganda nor revivalism, but is devoted to the cause of Christian missions. For Sophomore "Boxing" Struggles

The awarding to Ripon of the annual Midwest conference track meet here every year has fallen in student interest from THE sport Lawrence college bookroom which was opened this year second to the Warwick foot has shown a marked improvement in sales and accessibility. Instead of being open once a day it is open every day from 9:30 to 12:00 and from 1:13 to 2:25, thus doubling the number of students who last year had to ask for a book the day before, etc. It is being well shot by now—pretty well shot by now.

Midwest Meet
For '28 To Be Run At Ripon

Lack of 230 Yard Straight-away Loses Track Meet To Lawrence Ripon college was awarded the semi-annual Midwest conference meet scheduled for June 5 instead of Lawrence, as was originally specified, at a meeting of the conference officials held in Chicago last Saturday. Although the bid was given to Lawrence for the 1928 meet earlier in the year, lack of a 230 yard straight-away, necessary in official meets, caused the change in favor of Ripon.

Seek Alumnae

At the same meeting a petition for membership was submitted by Lake Forest college, of Lake Forest, Illinois, members of the W.I. league. The petition has been referred to a special committee and a report will be made at the May session of the conference.

The college is the 22nd to request the alumnae at the national collegiate meeting in New York, to which about 200 Cornell representatives, previously designated, are to be referred.

In TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION?
In these two books, dealing with Africa, we have a striking paradox. One is biography, a record of the author's own experiences. The other is fiction, an imaginative story. The former tells of life as it actually was; the latter is a fictitious story. The latter is told to us as real life.
TRADGED BORN by Alfred Alloys Horn and Ethelreda Lewis. Simon and Schuster of New York. It is told in ballad form by Joseph Conrad—Joseph Conrad, whose first literary venture was an opera. The opera was sponsored by Galsworthy even to this, the original essay in literature of Alfred Alloys Horn.
This book, one of the outstanding best-sellers of the year, unpretentiously seeks its success in its style, its style of presentation, its appeal. The latter quality—the sense of adventure, of life, of exploration, of life close to the earth—will sincerely draw our attention. The book is in ballad form. It holds to the characteristics that hold the family, the free talk of Alfred at end of each chapter, the human touch, which we hear so much in and as really. Listen to this: "Aye, the American must have a sentiment, whether he is in search of many of the best foods or in literary matters we are proud of our new-grown, our un man's not to be called6. His knowledge of a fame of his own and call another fel or his own?"
This is the meaning of the thing along to au re voir before I wear tout me welcome."
