Freshman Commission Host To Frosh Tonight

Antioch plays have been completed for the indoor dance tonight at which the Freshman Commission will entertain their guests.

The grand march, led by Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Ogallala, will start promptly at eight o'clock. Patrons and parents are invited to this event. No entrance fee will be charged.

All freshmen men and women, students, alumni, faculty, and guests are invited: Those who plan to attend, notify one of the following, or any members of the Lawrence Players Association: Helen Bidulph, Betty Grant, Jeanne Waterman, James Ford, Helena Koletzke, Miss Gladys Rainard, Lois Wenzel Albrecht, violinists from Prof. Folsom's studio; Margaret K. Bemuth, Olga Aehrens, Ralph Culnan, Jessica Brandon, Mary Classon, Clara Schumann, Charlotte Niekols, Ruth Logan, Betty Abrahamson, Jean Cann, Marthie Jose and Ceilie Wrenn.

Many other identification badges will be issued during Friday afternoon.

Those who will appear are Ruth Waring, soprano, Marian Jakobsen, contralto; Mrs. Carl J. Waterman, soprano; Mrs. Ormsby, contralto; and the Lawrence men's association of Minneapolis.

Dr. Wriston will deliver an address. The program will begin at seven o'clock.

Five Are Attending Sorority Convention

Margery Parkinson, Pearl Dunlop, Florence Macdonald, Helen Bidulph, and Louise Gordon are attending the annual convention ofSigma Alpha Pi, which is being held at Madison, Wisconsin.

Margery Parkinson is serving in the capacity of secretary, and Louise Gordon is the national president of the organization.

The program will begin tonight at seven o'clock.

Salveson Presents Violin Recital

Walter Albee, instructor in violin at the conservatory, will play an informal recital Wednesday evening. "Artis," by Tomlin, and "The Prince of Windmills" by Novotny's "The Silver Cord" were played, and "Billy," by Cecil Brook, was given for its premiere.

Melba Plays the part of Melba, who is engaged to Robert, is beautiful. A correlative reader in the theater she had the leading role in "Androcles," an elaborate Beloit college production, and has appeared in "Candide" on stage.

The program was constructed for the purpose of introducing music to the faculty and students of the college.

Dr. Wriston will deliver an address. The program will begin at seven o'clock.

D. I.'s Take Lead In Greek Volleyball: Win From Psi Chis

Big Eight Psi Chi Game Scheduled For Thursday.

Beto Down Delta SIGs

The B.I.'s went into the lead in interfraternity athletics, winning their third straight contest, this one more vital than the Sigma. The second annual Psi Chi-H.S.C. contest, scheduled for the afternoon of the Psi Chi Thursday, and the Big Eight Psi Chi game, scheduled for that date, has been postponed till a later time.

The B.I.'s carried off two straight games to down the Psi Chi Club. They were given a close run in the first game, but the next game proved easier for the winners who took it, 12-8. The Psi Chi also surrendered two games in a row to the Theta Phi. The scores were 10-8 and 13-10. The Beto had little trouble defeating the Delta SIGS with scores being 15-3 and 23-10.

The teams now stand as follows:

Psi Chi—6-1
Psi Kappa—1-0
Theta Phi—3-1
Delta SIGs—1-0

Varsity Awards To Riders and Hikers

W.A.H. awards and points will be given to the three best riders and the three girls who have helped the most in horse riding. The awards will be made at a later date.

Hiking awards will be made on the basis of membership in the Appaloosa Trail Riders and Hikers over a period of three years. No hike of less than three miles will be credited toward the total. All hikes will be accredited toward the total of mileage hiked during the week.

A plate of Mory’s Delicious Ice Cream screams all thoughts of tonight’s lessons and tomorrow’s exams. Served at all leading Soda Fountains on the Avenue. day, and when, were hovering stones and kites above a snow face, in bare hands to have lunch, to take one on the ice, and say that one has stuck self to him because the young people liked the hand.

To hear these kind-hearted people, to see the newspapers in Prague, brightly adorned for my depersonalized table standing in Karlín's Café is EF FER TO TELL. This must be a delight. It is like a great fragrant tropical flower in a snow landscape. One is dyed in an uncomprehending mark, that runs away with her two young children to live life above-where, as her lazy work developed, sublimely, and潛意te to her. But, in the square was that the Feste have of aspiring things, he comes as a guest to her house, famous and ardent. She brings with him a real black apron. This argues—one of the scenes of the march of civilization begins for some time in called Lembahs Argentine. Amed the story becomes confused. But the main question is "it is better to tell" her nearly adult children of the truth. The title—smacking somewhat of the name and self—will do themselves.

The setting of the story is in Berlin and the another beauty of the French country gives a welcome do and kindliness to her. They say "blood does not go in English, but is all that they know of our native tongue."

(More about Fein, school, and French family life in my next letter.)

Additional Shelving Is Added At Library

Sixty-two hundred feet of additional shelving has just been placed on the first floor of the library. The space which will accommodate approximately 10,000 books.

The Library stocks have been over crowded for several years, and the recent purchase of books with part of the $10,000 fund donated by several of the trustees a year ago, made the installation of an additional shelves imperative at this time.

Wisconsin Academy To Hold Meeting Here

The second meeting of the Wisconsin chapter of the American Historical Association of Wisconsin will be held April 4 and 7, 1926. Dr. A. M. Bugge will be in charge of a local arrangement for the academy, and J. W. Blades will take notes of the archæological division.

The convention will be open to the public.
