First Caging Game Of Year Here Friday
Lawrence Basketball Squad To Meet Northwestern At Watertown

With the addition to the squad of Edgar Ott, former Kaukauna high school basketballer, and the shifting of very Black to the center, Northwestern college of Watertown, in the first game of the season here Friday night, has been strengthened considerably, according to Coach A. C. Byrnes.

Overall has played almost as basketball since his high school days, and it is a veteran who can contribute to the team, and should help to lead the squad in the post and center departments, looking among the younger and more inexperienced members he has been working out a good squad.

By shifting Starck to center, Divine has given a pivot man who is especially adapted to control the ball, and has a good deal of experience in playing the forward, and the occasional tackle, according to a veteran, Ott, and Patness.

"Echo"-Black is an added improvement from the north high school and a member of both baseball and basketball teams, and his prominence at a forward position. Brevard is an addition to the guard lines, and has had some trouble in beating the new record this year, gradually developing the form, which is promising a good season. Among the other freshmen are Jeffs and Hulskin, and two more from Schey and Quinlan.

As far as ability is concerned, the freshman is the best seen in this line: the only one that the edge on the high school squad, which is the only one that has made the impression of a complete team. The team has a great deal of potential in the future, and is developing a good team, and at the same time, getting the freshman accustomed to playing on college games.

"Existence of God" Is Discussed Subject

"Proving the Existence of God" is the object of the study of the thirty Lawrenceians at the Sunday morning discussion meeting of the students at this university. The evidence showing that there is an intelligent power, and that the law and order in the universe is the work of such a power, is not so great against evidence of such a power.

The meeting will be held at 9:30 every Sunday morning in the Devoe ...
One of the little incidents of campus life which aids in increasing the spirit of fraternity between students and faculty, that occasionally creeps out in the best of colleges, is furnished at Lawrence. While the average group of instructors who have attracted their share of criticism by their attitude in regard to assignments, although the average student usually exhibits a "hard-bitten" attitude towards his professors, which tends to minimize the possibility of any genuine feeling of existing interest in his work, the slight knowledge of the law of averages prompts him to suspect that in the long run his instructor gives him over a break as those devoted to his fellow students.

Nevertheless, there are several members of Lawrence's faculty, who, while recognizing their work with an even tenor which is satisfactory, are apparently just woke up to the fact that sorority pins aren't the only ones made with care. They are going to have to take the same stories this year that they are carrying to the infirmary for the past week, because the same sort of story is going to be told out by the infirmary this week-end. It is as true of the infirmary as of the fraternity, and the longer stories are the more complete. The higher the standard the lower the murks.

On the contrary, the Campus aquatics report that they are charged with the maintenance of a depository for a long time, but we are not prepared to believe that the campus has a depository for a long time.

There is a difference in college men after all. At Lawrence, four classes have turned in four classes.

"Old Stuff"

"My wife is like a stableful of decrepit horses."
"How sweet."
"No, no, no."

That sign denoting the loss of a kitten house.

The Adventures of Pinocchio—C. Collie

The higher the standard the lower the murks.

Beryl Mauer was a patient at the infirmary this week-end. Thelma Perry, '31, spent the week-end at their home in Milwaukee. Evelyn Taylor, '31, was a patient at the infirmary this week-end. Elmer Rehbein, '24, visited at the infirmary this week-end. Beryl Maurer was a patient at the infirmary for a few days last week. Other Rehbein, '24, visited at the infirmary over the week-end. Elmer Rehbein, '24, visited at the infirmary over the week-end.
D.L.'s Take Volleyball Trophy By Defeating Sigmas On Saturday

Played in Tight and Wall Played; Phi Kappa Defeated to Sigmas

Team | W. L. Pct.
---|---
Tee 8 | 6
Delta Int | 6
Sigma Pi Eaters | 6
Tee Phi | 2
Beta Sigma Phi | 4
Chi Omega | 3
Phi Kappa Tau | 2
Phi Kappa Alpha | 2
Delta Sigma Tau | 2

In as tight and as well played a game of volleyball as gymnastics has ever seen, the D.I.'s defeated the Sigmas by a narrow margin of 17-15. The game was declared over after the Sigmas had fought hard after the initial surge by the D.I.'s in the early stages. The Sigmas fought hard after that and ran it up point and the game was declared over, but the Sigmas were not about to be outdone, only to have the Sigmas work their way back into the game. The Sigmas jumped to the front in the middle of the game with 1:4 points, but the Sigmas went ahead for the first time in their heels at 10-10 and then went ahead for the first time in their Classic 4 points with 42-23 points, and the two sides battled it out until the last point. The Sigmas won the last point and Delta Sigma had thirty points, while the Phi Tau are in eight places with 26. With the conclusion of the volleyball schedule, interest in the Greek contest will subside until after the Christmas holidays. Soon after school opens, basketball and bowling will re-take the lists.

CONWAY HOTEL BARBER SHOP

The Sigma defense cracked in the first game, and the D.I.'s opened out in the last game, running the score up to 13-5 for two-thirds of the game, the D.I.'s stepping in the winning battlefront, while the Sigmas were 1.V10, 15-17, and 13-7, in the intraconference volleyball league. Although the D.I.'s were leading in the first and second place points in the interfraternity athletic supremacy race, they are divided.

Newman Club Officer

Paul McAdoo, '25, was elected vice-president of the Newman club at a meeting held last Sunday evening at the Catholic Home on W. Winding ten street. The club's secretary, an executive committee, composed of three members, from Capuchin representing the school class, Ulysses Boswell, the Rohm and Co., and Karl Schweizer, secretary, was appointed.

Hotel Northern Barber Shop

Ruth Lewis, '31, spent the week-end at the home of friends in Wisconsin. Helen Radio, Mary Test, Florence French, Beatrice Bake, '27, spent Saturday at the house of Helen Graun, '26, at Neen. Ruth Lewis, '31, spent the work-end at her home in Fond du Lac.

Hotel Northern Barber Shop

The Sigma defense cracked in the first game, and the D.I.'s opened out in the last game, running the score up to 13-5 for two-thirds of the game, the D.I.'s stepping in the winning battlefront, while the Sigmas were 1.V10, 15-17, and 13-7, in the intraconference volleyball league. Although the D.I.'s were leading in the first and second place points in the interfraternity athletic supremacy race, they are divided.

Newman Club Officer

Paul McAdoo, '25, was elected vice-president of the Newman club at a meeting held last Sunday evening at the Catholic Home on W. Winding ten street. The club's secretary, an executive committee, composed of three members, from Capuchin representing the school class, Ulysses Boswell, the Rohm and Co., and Karl Schweizer, secretary, was appointed.

Hotel Northern Barber Shop

Ruth Lewis, '31, spent the week-end at the home of friends in Wisconsin. Helen Radio, Mary Test, Florence French, Beatrice Bake, '27, spent Saturday at the house of Helen Graun, '26, at Neen. Ruth Lewis, '31, spent the work-end at her home in Fond du Lac.
Annual Beta "Brawl" Held Saturday

Annual Beta's "Brawl," held Saturday, was a dinner party given by the Campus Association of University Women, which was held in the dining room of the Conway Hotel Saturday afternoon at Ormsby Square. Entertainment was furnished by the Amherst Symphony Orchestra, which was held in the dining room of the Conway Hotel Saturday afternoon at Ormsby Square. Entertainment was furnished by the Amherst Symphony Orchestra.

The regular meeting of the department of English composition and journalism, open to everyone, was held Thursday, March 28, for manuscripts submitted in these fields. There is no limit to the number of manuscripts which one person may submit, although each one should be signed with a pseudonym and be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the author's real name, address, and signature. All contributions should be sent to the contest editor, 311 College House, Dr. W. S. Naylor, E. C. Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe.

Annual Beta "Brawl" held Saturday. A bootleg confetti dance was of special interest to members of the evening.

DINNERS HELD

Browsing Through the Bookshelf by James C. allowed writing or work of any kind is all too seldom these days upon the college or university campus. When such a venture is launched upon the Lawrence sea, a voyage into the future, for lands under the arched, white sails of the sea, is an undertaking in which the student is faced with the question: "What are you going to do with yourself?"

A PRIZE OFFERED

The Contest Editor, 311 College House, is open to everyone, but we suggest the coming holiday spirit at a Christmastime party held by the Lawrentian last Sunday. The regular meeting of the department of English composition and journalism, open to everyone, was held Thursday, March 28, for manuscripts submitted in these fields. There is no limit to the number of manuscripts which one person may submit, although each one should be signed with a pseudonym and be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the author's real name, address, and signature. All contributions should be sent to the contest editor, 311 College House, Dr. W. S. Naylor, E. C. Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe.

A PRIZE OFFERED

The Contest Editor, 311 College House, is open to everyone, but we suggest the coming holiday spirit at a Christmastime party held by the Lawrentian last Sunday. The regular meeting of the department of English composition and journalism, open to everyone, was held Thursday, March 28, for manuscripts submitted in these fields. There is no limit to the number of manuscripts which one person may submit, although each one should be signed with a pseudonym and be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the author's real name, address, and signature. All contributions should be sent to the contest editor, 311 College House, Dr. W. S. Naylor, E. C. Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowe.