In Defense

A Lawrentian professor, in a recent talk before one of his classes, opened a discussion about the role of criticism in the communication of the Lawrentian, its authors, its reporters, and its news. While it is understood that the lecture was not directed specifically toward the Lawrentian, the professor’s words, and in particular his criticism, have significant implications for the Lawrentian’s role in the community.

The Lawrentian feels the need to be perfect in its organization and functions. This need is evident in the professor’s desire for a more specific example of the original point of view. The professor’s desire to cast reasonable doubt on the Lawrentian’s recent articles suggests a broader context in which the Lawrentian needs to be noted.

The Lawrentian realizes that by no means perfect in its organization and functions, and it appreciates friendly criticism whenever given. However, if this professor had any idea to the students that he is not in sympathy with the college papers, and has not only let himself in for a lot of student criticism, his work would cast a reflection on the Lawrentian from a student point of view.

Barfell

The election of Ralph Barfell as captain of the 1928 Viking football team has met with unqualified approval from the student body as a whole. While Barfell is not particularly active off the gridiron, he felt that he was deserving of the honor and the entire campus is pulling for him to make a success of his new job. The student body is back of Barfell for more reasons than the fact that he is a good football player. For any man to travel far as to attend college as Barfell has, and to work his way through the institution, along as well as is enough to invite respect, but when a man, faced with the burden of supporting himself, still finds time to go out for football and make the success of it that the new captain has, the effort is deserving of credit.

America Discovered for $7200

Old records show that the cost of Columbus' first expedition to Americas amounted, in modern exchange, to only $7200. To finance Columbus, Isabella, Queen of Spain, offered to pawn her jewels. Today word comes from Spain indicating that a twentieth century importation from the new world is fast effecting a sufficient saving to ransom many royal jewels. The Spanish Northern Railway reports that the American equipment with which in 1924 the railroad electrified a mountainous section of its lines from Ujo to Pujuers has accomplished the following economies:

1. A 55% saving in the cost of power.
2. A reduction of 40% in the number of engine miles for the same traffic handled.
3. A saving of 731/2% in the cost of repairs and upkeep for locomotives.
4. A saving of 63% in crew expenses.
5. A reduction of 341/2% in the cost of moving a ton-mile.

In every part of the world, electricity has replaced less efficient methods and is saving sums far greater than the ransom of a queen’s jewels. You will always find it an important advantage in your work and in your home.
Barfell Will Captain 1928 Grid Eleven

Nicky Hallbook Defeats Otis Joseph In Football Squad Elections

Ralph Barfell, ’28, of Beaverly, California, defeated Nicky Hallbook in the Viking gridiron scrimmage for the 1928 season, it was announced at the presentation of athletic awards on December 20. Barfell received eleven votes to eight for his nearest rival in the captaincy, Otis Joseph, ’28, of Madison.

The new captain has started two years in the Lawrence backfield, holding down the powerful position of halfback. Although handicapped by injury in both campaigns, Barfell has played a strong game of football. He is a good running back, but his big hit has been his defense and this past season was the mainstay of the Blue second line. He was selected on the Milwaukee Sentinel’s all-stater second team at the conclusion of the season.

Before coming to Lawrence Barfell played for four years as a halfback on the Jefferson high school eleven. He is short but stocky, and is heavier than he looks, and he is a fine mixer in the middle of affairs.

Many Social Events

Before Christmas

House parties, formal dinners and dances, "poor kid" parties, and banquets were held in an effort to lift the pre-Christmas season's cold our spirits.

Phi Chi Omega, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Alpha Phi entertained at Christmas house parties Saturday, December 27.

Kappa Alpha Theta held its formal winter dance at the Valley Inn, Bar¬ ton, on the same evening. Descen¬ dents were carried out in a proper scheme.

Phi Phi also entertained at a formal dance, held in the Elkhart hall. The hall was decorated with red and gilded streamers, and the orchestra offered a large program of dance music.

Beta Sigma Phi, Russell Sage hall, Otsego hall, and Pembroke hall held parties for their respective officers and guests. Santa Claus brought gifts, games were played, and dances were given.

A dinner-dance at Russell Sage and a formal dinner at Thursday, December 19, was attended by 3,800 students, with the orchestra under the direction of a student leader, and Phi Kappa Tau entertained at a social hour. The music was appropriately selected by Edward Dettloff, '29, consisting of waltzes, waltz-songs, and gavottes.

Before Holidays

The weekend of the pre-Christmas social season was a busy one. Festivities were carried out in a pirate manner at the meeting and lunch of the Neuman Club, which was attended by 3,800 students.

The Oxford Fellowship club, which was attended by 3,800 students, was attended by 3,800 students. Gay Studdard was elected national treasurer of the organization. Such a happy hour has been the local chapter for the past year.

The Oxford Fellowship club is an international organization of Phi Kappa Tau men and eo-eds with interest both college and high school, and the Carroll quint will be host to the Carroll quint will be host to

The convention was attended by representatives of seventeen college chapters, including seven from Wisconsin.
