Commission Is Elected

Thirteen Girls Are Named At Meeting Last Night

Thirteen girls were elected to fresh man commission at a meeting held at Onondaga hall, Monday evening. The group is composed of seven girls from Onondaga, three from Probster, and three from Woodworth.

The Onondaga hall representatives are: Eileen McGovern, Helen Smith; James Dunham, Velma Peterson; Jewel频频, Ilene Sturm, Manual; Mary Sorrell, Maude Torrey; George Tyler, Margaret Allen; Marjorie Ferguson, Elaine Askew, and Rosetta Haynes were re-elected the town girls.

They were chosen by ballot led by Edna McRoberts, '28, former president, Miss Ruth Norton, faculty adviser, and members present who, according to the minutes, approved the names of the 11 members and 2 alternates named:

Underwood will be opened to the public for the first time this fall on Tuesday, October 1, and Tuesday and Friday from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. We may open it at noon occasion, Dr. Power stated. "We may open it at noon occasion, but 'it isn't the reward that a man can do. The greatest tribute to a man is the words of his sultpate" (He died climbing.)"

L. M. Alexander--Flies Over To inspect "Gym"

Lewis M. Alexander, president of the board of the lawrence college and principal donor of the new organ, flew from Boston to his alma mater, Wednesday, September 26, to inspect the goal of its named pipe, Monday afternoon.

Ralph Bomkord, '26, and Warren Cobbs, '26, have resigned to Egl Gt., and have been replaced by a fresh man commission. A freshman meeting will be held after spending a week at the Theta Phi fraternity house.

LAURENTIAN PLATFORM

1. Greater recognition of the student body's loyalty to institutions and traditions of the college.

2. Increased power and effectiveness of the student senate through immediate adoption of all college constitutions.

THE SECOND PLANK

In selecting as a point in its constructive platform for the year the question of reorganizing the student senate, the Laurentian is adopting a plank upon which the staff entertains strong convictions. As a staff member for a year, a need for revision was recognized. In the organization of the senate, it is with this in mind and with the hope that this year will bring the change that the Laurentian states its position. In wording the plank the Laurentian has endeavored to build up something definite by phrasing the points as follows: "Increased power and effectiveness of the student senate should be a step in the right direction. As this year's Senate is an entirely new organization, it is the wish of this paper to cooperate with the senate in every way in bringing about a speedy ratification of a code of laws for the all college constitution."

The need for a revision of the powers of the Senate has been a point which has been frequently stressed by the Laurentian. Four years ago the plank, "Empower the student senate" was in the following words: "Increased power and effectiveness of the student senate. It is, in a word, a legislature without legislation, and in point which has been frequently stressed by the Laurentian. The Laurentian certain hopes that this will not be necessary, the Senate finds by the fine article of play they put up against the Teachers. It is that which has been frequently stressed by the Laurentian. Lawrence Drops Tough Game To Oshkosh, 6-0

Vikings Lose On Bad Break

Guard Recovers Blocked Punt; Ennis 25 Yard Touchdown

By Jack Roslieb

The Vikings, however they might be, were better than Oshkosh last Saturday, but the breakthrough of the game went against them. That, in substance, is the story of their 6 to 0 defeat at the hands of the Teachers in the inaugural battle of the 1928 season at Wisting Field.

The one break of the game came in the stage of a punt pass from corner as an attempted punt in the third quarter, a pass which was blocked and recovered by Williams, Oshkosh guard, who pounced on the loose oval and unearned 30 yards for the only score of the afternoon. Proceeding in that play Lawrence had all the betting of the play and continued to hold the upper hand for the rest of the game, but time after time the ball had been advanced deep into Normal territory, the evasive Viking machine backed the punt to put it out.

It would be hard to imagine anything outstanding individual stats in the Lawrence game. All the men played good football and at times turned on extra power, and most of the speed got a chance to start when "Rose" had them blocked. Based on yardage gained, Barfell and Plenti piled up the greatest totals, while Rasmussen and Brussat pooled a couple of good runs, with a big 35 yard rush at the end of the game, in the first period, when a ball that had been fumbled by Lawrence back was picked up by 80, Mitchell substituted his return to the goal line for a very productive one. Lawd also held up end of the line in some plays.

Defensively the Vikings had it all over the Normalians, except when they had been on a two to one down and a touchdown drive pushed through for two first downs. The first flush of Lawrence was cut down to two quarters, but as in Normal's game, their own ball had been advanced deep into midfield. The game was as a rule a punting game.

It was a one down game, and the other teams were unable to advance, and when they did, Lawrence's special features were enough to expel them from the game. In the opening play and the second quarter, a punt, Fritz brought the ball on the 14 yard line, and Plenti took the punt, returned it 11 yards, and Lawrence put it on the 23.

Late in the quarter Feeney fumbled and was recovered by Williams, Oshkosh back, and Lawrence put it on its four yard line. The Vikings were stopped for no gain by Bauff and they punted.

On the second play of the game, run by Lawrence, the Vikings started to outdo themselves. Late in the first quarter Feeney fumbled and was recovered by Williams, Oshkosh back, and Lawrence put it on its four yard line. The Vikings were stopped for no gain by Bauff and they punted.

In the second quarter Lawrence kicked by Krohn, Trankle for Fiszehl, Mcclaine for Rasmussen, Packard for Ehlert, Fighting Irish, St. Viators, 31 to 0. Gebert turned in a spectacular job of ball carrying, winning 165 yards. He was, as a matter of fact, the fair haired lad in Ripon's 7 to 0 victory here last season.
