Meeting of the Physics club held Tuesday evening in the physics lecture room.

Lloyd Root, 25, spoke on "The development of electricity" at a meeting of the Physics club held Tuesday evening in the physics lecture room.

Appleton is the first city in the United States to be classified a "Safe City," according to the latest fire and police statistics.

Some interesting highlights in the meeting were gathered in an interview with Rev. Benjamin, the bishop of the diocese in the United States. The rector of the church and the bishop of the diocese in the United States.

"I give you my regards when you see her," Mr. Pizzolattoni said. "Our Mutual Aid is just what the world needs in a time of crisis."

"You may have your doubts, but I continue to pray in all my affliction," he continued.

"I was denied a certain amount of the amount of money I had been promised, I had not been able to secure, and I could have expected to see a large amount of money in the future." Mr. Pizzolattoni said.

Today foods are prepared with an eye to health, because whose views are worth while ones hesitate to express themselves in students who have definite and set views on various problems and the contributors* column to give voice to ideas and beliefs on campus. Just why this should be the case is a puzzle. From participating in informal campus discussion and fraternity house "sessions" to the Lawrentian staff emphasizes its invitation to make use of grading may not be the best system in the opinion of many, there is just this much to be said. While the exact numerical system of grading may not be the best system in the opinion of many, its close of the second period is especially important. Italian Publishers Praise Book By Professor Mursell

When Italian publishers asked permission of James L. Mursell to reprint his book "Psychology of Music Teaching," the late professor, from the University of Wisconsin, undertook the honor of translation into the Italian language. The translation is the work of the late professor's son, Dr. Henry M. Mursell, of North Dakota State College. The book was well received in Italy, and the publishers, believing in the importance of the work, are now planning a new edition, to be issued in a few months. The book is now in type, and will be published in the near future.

Thanksgiving Cozy Enjoyed By Girls

Popping corn, making candy, play-ging cards, and dancing were the attractions offered to girls who attended the informal evening at Home house.

Various entertainments were staged in the different rooms of the house, but the kitchen, where taffy was being pulled and Jude cooked, proved to be the most popular place.

The veg. was in charge of Edna Nies, '29, of the Y.W.C.A. social committee.
