

The Lawrenceville School

Lawrenceville, N.J.

The Lawrenceville Bulletin

February 16, 1930

Vikings Trim Knox: Defeat Ripon Last Night

Blues Swamp Illinois Five in Fast Game

Lawrence Takes Early Lead; Show Complete Reversal of Form

Showing a complete reversal of form over their victors of last term, Coach C. A. Donnelly's Vikings marched into the Kanussa to the tune of 15 to 14 at Alexander gymnasium last Saturday night.

The Lawrence team, presenting a revamped lineup, grabbed a 5 to 0 lead immediately after the starting, and never once relinquished its advantage. Fans were cheered by the improved offensive power of the team. The entire squad showed a marked increase in the spirit, in contrast to the sluggishness that had been rampant on the field since the January games.

Coach Donnelly started Biggers and Remmel at forwards, Laird, center, and Pierce and Fischl guards. Jump to 5-0 Lead

Pete Nelson's first lay-in was the first point as the Swiss gained the lead ahead of the 20-0 mark, but only two points were added to the tally. Biggers then segued into a Knox college defense, and after Biggers' basket, raised the score 35 to 13.

Dramatic Soprano In Recital Tonight

Dusolina Giannini, Pianist Rugger, To Present Third Annual Series Number 12

The following program will be sung by Dusolina Giannini, at the third of the annual series concerts, which will be given this evening in Memorial Chapel, beginning at 8:00 o'clock. Giannini is a dramatic soprano of exquisitely expressive voice. She is accompanied by Mr. Mervin Bemstein.

- Svetlova Marina, Cervuto, Caro, e von el mio Bambin, Guarnieri; Aria, "Veni Armi" from "La Toce". Paccini.
- My Mother, P. M. Bardwell: When I Love You, Martin Cate; Before the Crystal, Frank LaPage, Melody. H. France.
- Canti, Cav. Carmelo la massa Besin: In nome del mar, Italian folk songs arranged by Enr. Sodre, Cecilia Linda, Spanish folk song arranged by Noreen and Mason.

Junior Symphony To Present Recital

On Thursday evening of this week, the Junior Symphony of the Conservatory will appear in concert at the Memorial Chapel. The orchestra is under the direction of Percy Palliser. Solists will be the Hurlin Glass, soprano; Audra Bissell, violin; Jack Sampson, violin; and James Heenicker, cello, viola. Conservatory students will receive credit for attendance.

Phi Sigma Iota Will Meet Tomorrow Night

Phi Sigma Iota, national honorary music fraternity, will meet Wednesday, February 16th, at 7:30 o'clock in room 20. There will be initiation of new members, and the meeting will close with a paper on the "Consolidation of Arts."

The BILBOARD

Tuesday, Feb. 18—Artists' series, danse giannini. Wednesday, Feb. 19—Junior chamber club. Basketball, Carroll at Wacker.

Presidential banquet Tuesday evening at the Chesterfield.

Ben Greet, and his notable English company, will present two Shakespearean plays at Lawrence Memorial Chapel Tuesday, February 22. The play, one of which will be given in the afternoon, and the other in the evening, will be "Twelfth Night," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," and "Hamlet." The former will be presented by the Bethel College students and the latter by the Lawrence players. The performances will continue until the end of the month, and during these engagements a Shakespearean play is every night.

When Shakespeare's 350th anniversary was celebrated by the London Shakespearean Society with a series of 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." The performance was given up the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.

Ben Greet, and his notable English company, will present two Shakespearean plays at Lawrence Memorial Chapel Tuesday, February 22. The play, one of which will be given in the afternoon, and the other in the evening, will be "Twelfth Night," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," and "Hamlet." The performances will continue until the end of the month, and during these engagements a Shakespearean play is every night.

Greet's Shakespearean Players Appear Here Next Week

By Austin Stegath

Coach Donnelly will host a Shakespearean festival on the campus of Lawrence College, beginning this week. The productions will feature "Twelfth Night," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," and "Hamlet." The performances will continue until the end of the month, and during these engagements a Shakespearean play is every night.

During the war Mr. Greet was engaged by the London City Council to present plays at the Theatre on Waterford in London, which is known as the "Old Vic." There he produced 24 of Shakespeare's plays and 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." In the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.

When Shakespeare's 350th anniversary was celebrated by the London Shakespearean Society with a series of 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." The performance was given up the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.

When Shakespeare's 350th anniversary was celebrated by the London Shakespearean Society with a series of 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." The performance was given up the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.

When Shakespeare's 350th anniversary was celebrated by the London Shakespearean Society with a series of 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." The performance was given up the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.

When Shakespeare's 350th anniversary was celebrated by the London Shakespearean Society with a series of 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." The performance was given up the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.

When Shakespeare's 350th anniversary was celebrated by the London Shakespearean Society with a series of 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." The performance was given up the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.

When Shakespeare's 350th anniversary was celebrated by the London Shakespearean Society with a series of 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." The performance was given up the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.

When Shakespeare's 350th anniversary was celebrated by the London Shakespearean Society with a series of 12 other plays, including "Everyman," and the first production of "Hamlet." The performance was given up the assignment when the board of education failed to co-operate in the presentation of Shakespeare's plays in every night.
THE LAWRENTIAN
PolkHound every Tuesday and Friday during the college year by The Lawrentian Board of Control of Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis.
Entered as second-class matter at the post-office at Appleton, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

JOHN R. NEWBURY - Business Manager
ALVIN W. SUTHERS - Assistant Editor
ROBERT BEEGS - News Editor

VINTON JARRETT - Editor

Published every Tuesday and Friday during the college year by The Lawrentian Board of Control of Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription Rates: $2.75 per year; mailed or delivered, per copy, 5 cents.

Table of Contents
THE SONG OF THE VIKING
SOCIETY
Local Scout Troop Visits Science Museum

THE LAWRENTIAN

THE SONG OF THE VIKING

The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.

Lawrence athletic stock made its greatest step forward three years ago, when Robert Valentine first visited the campus. The use of a catch word or particular name to designate the athletes of an educational institution has been frequent in American collegiate history. The "Gophers," the "Hawks," the "Badgers," the "Cardinals," and the "Vikings" have left their imprint upon the former Big Ten conference athletic record, just as in scores of smaller leagues, distinctive names have held a particular meaning to students of other conferences.
Cagers Seek Revenge In Win Against Carroll

The Viking freshmen "B" basketball team easily defeated the Seymour high school team by a score of 23 to 6 in a game played at the new Alexander gymnasium Saturday night. The score was 2 to 0 for the fresh men at the half.

Neither the新鲜 nor the Seymour offense was able to click in the first half, although the "E's" broke through the Seymour defense several times to make easy shots.

At the start of the second half, Coach Eddie Horr, '33, Fond du Lac, is becoming very popular for his style of play, although new to the Lawrence coaching art. Carroll led throughout, scoring 19 points to 3 for Seymour. The Lawrence team is becoming stronger with each game, and will be a team to be reckoned with when they meet other teams in the Big Ten conference.

The meeting was over at 10:15, and the crowd which came to see the game left satisfied with the performance of their home team. The game was a good one, and the players worked hard to make it a close contest. Carroll won by a score of 23 to 6, and the crowd left the gymnasium with a feeling of satisfaction. The game was a good one, and the players worked hard to make it a close contest. Carroll won by a score of 23 to 6, and the crowd left the gymnasium with a feeling of satisfaction.

The meeting was over at 10:15, and the crowd which came to see the game left satisfied with the performance of their home team. The game was a good one, and the players worked hard to make it a close contest. Carroll won by a score of 23 to 6, and the crowd left the gymnasium with a feeling of satisfaction. The game was a good one, and the players worked hard to make it a close contest. Carroll won by a score of 23 to 6, and the crowd left the gymnasium with a feeling of satisfaction.

The meeting was over at 10:15, and the crowd which came to see the game left satisfied with the performance of their home team. The game was a good one, and the players worked hard to make it a close contest. Carroll won by a score of 23 to 6, and the crowd left the gymnasium with a feeling of satisfaction. The game was a good one, and the players worked hard to make it a close contest. Carroll won by a score of 23 to 6, and the crowd left the gymnasium with a feeling of satisfaction.

The meeting was over at 10:15, and the crowd which came to see the game left satisfied with the performance of their home team. The game was a good one, and the players worked hard to make it a close contest. Carroll won by a score of 23 to 6, and the crowd left the gymnasium with a feeling of satisfaction. The game was a good one, and the players worked hard to make it a close contest. Carroll won by a score of 23 to 6, and the crowd left the gymnasium with a feeling of satisfaction.
Roudebush, '29, To Appear As Soloist

Is Invited To Become Member Of Chicago Musical College Orchestra

Everett Roudebush, '29 of Appleton, who is now studying for a Masters of Music degree in piano at the Chicago Musical College, has received the honor of being asked to be soloist with the Chicago Musical College orchestra, as a concert to be given the latter part of March. A series of concerts is being presented during this season, on Sunday afternoons at the Central Theater, Chicago, at which students representing the different studies are presented as soloists with the orchestra.

Roudebush, who studies with Milewsky Boguslawski, will play the Tschaikowsky B flat minor concerto for piano and orchestra. The orchestra is under the direction of Leon Sametini.

Sig Ep Cagers Lead Fraternity League

(Continued from Page 3)

defense were demoralized. The Theta Chis were again the star performers.

The relative standings of the teams in the Greek pin-fest remained unchanged as a result of Thursday's bowling, but the D.I.'s found themselves with the last place on the top. The D.I.'s lost their match with the Theta Chis and with a 228 to 198 score of the losers.

The relays were also won by the Theta Chis. The Theta Chis had a superior quintet. For three days D.I. team. From the beginning, up a lop-sided score, the Theta Phis romped to their third victory in five starts last Saturday when they took the Fond du Lac Y.M.C.A. team into camp by a score of 215-187. Oneida Street APPLTON, WISCONSIN Opposite Post Office

Barber

WEXLER

Whiter

10 d. 100-yd. free style—Ryan, Lawrence, 2nd; Jackson, Fond du Lac, 3rd. 25yd. back stroke—Dille, Fond du Lac, 1st; Wilson, Fond du Lac, 2nd; Van Roo, Lawrence, 3rd. 100-yd. free style—Ryan, Lawrence, 1st; Schlab, Fond du Lac, 2nd; Van Roo, Lawrence, 3rd. Diving—Clekis, Lawrence, 1st; Wilson, Fond du Lac, 2nd; Dille, Fond du Lac, 3rd. Relay—Lawrence, 1st.

Jack Wilcox, '26, visited fraternity brothers at the Beta house Sunday.

John Walter, '29, is now employed by the Press Gazette in Green Bay.

Summerry: 100-yd. breast stroke—Hirschland, Lawrence, 1st; Van Roo, Lawrence, 2nd; Jackson, Fond du Lac, 3rd. 100-yd. freestyle—Crite, Fond du Lac, 1st; Jackson, Fond du Lac, 2nd; Van Roo, Lawrence, 3rd. 50-yd. breast stroke—Ryan, Lawrence, 1st; Jackson, Fond du Lac, 2nd; Van Roo, Fond du Lac, 3rd. 50-yard free style—Ryan, Lawrence, 1st; Jackson, Fond du Lac, 2nd; Van Roo, Fond du Lac, 3rd.