ANOTHER GESTURE!

The Lettered Grade System adopted by our faculty is sometimes criticized by students because of its strict nature. Some may fear that the new system will alter the grade structure in a negative way. However, we believe that the new system will benefit everyone involved. The system is designed to encourage a culture of excellence and accountability. By eliminating the old grading system, we hope to create a more motivating and challenging environment for all students.

Mr. Smith, a member of the faculty, expressed his support for the new system: "I believe that the new system will help students to achieve their academic goals. It is important for students to understand that their grades are an indicator of their hard work and commitment."
Seven Gridders Don Blue and White for Last Time

When the gun bars the end of the narrow Lawrence-Carleton football gridiron, Coach Culbertson will have added another to the college football careers of seven veterans. The boys who fought to make what looked like a mediocre season a success and won.

Three items and a quartet of backfield performances that will make the huskies know how Lawrence grid faces. Coach Culbertson, you can bet your head they pay all season has brought the picture of many sports writers, for football played with East Peoria high school system.

Tom Ryan, the diminutive Irish back who had an honest effort at the quarterback spot, has done some consistent playing for the Vikes in his three years. Leaping is weak, but more than making up for this by an alert and shrewd style of play, Ryan has put himself among the highest rated junior men to be seriously missed next year. Tom has called signals at times this year, and, although he has not seen the full time service in all the games on schedule, he has been a constant presence and a real plus for the huskies.

Antwan Gould, who has used him to good advantage all season, has shown a way to stretch the defenses, and has displayed a keen sense of the big picture of the game when he has used the quarterback.

Banked back from center to return, he proved, backed up a few yard and a deep-kicking a thing of the distant past?

Frame by frame, the play was a race, a romp, a romp, and relief man. Gebhart attended Stevens Point high school, but was not a football performer there. He has been a Vike squad member for two years.

Carleton has a chance to tie for the Midwest title against the Vikes tomorrow, but playing title superior is no novelty for Percy Cloy, the Vikes' tour. His squad handled Carroll, potential Big Four school, this year, and the past several seasons his Milwaukie Notre Dame school. He has shown a keen sense of the big picture of the game when he has used the quarterback.

Leota Schob, a half back of no longevity, used her last action for Lawrence tomorrow, and his graduation will leave another gap for Coach Culbertson to fill next season. A great reason for off-tackle backs, Schob has spent his way over a lot of yardage this fall, and it is expected to be a majesty in the Vike attack against the Carols. Schob attended Washington high Milwaukee, as a prep student, but waited until he entered Lawrence before going out for football. He has been active in Vike games over since his sophomore year, and has shown his best performance out this season.
