COLLEGE AID ADMITS 30 OF UNEMPLOYED

Writers Announces Plan As Step Toward Allorization of 1932

Under a new plan recently announced by President Harry M. Winton, approximately 30 unemployed persons have been admitted to unenrolled work in college classes during this semester. It has been found from the advance registrations that applications full large within two groups: those who have graduated from college and are admitted for graduate work without cost, and graduates of high school who have been out of school for more than one and one-half years, who were employed in some work without work.

The plan will permit the unemployed persons to register for classes without any cost to them. The classes completed with good standing, may be applied toward a degree in the college. This plan is intended for other individuals. The individual may do part-time work in the college. For the cost taken by these persons are to be furnished funds or arrangements made through local charitable institutions.

Regular curricular requirements will not be offered in the program of these special students. Gordon E. Chisholm, assistant dean, will endeavor to provide individual with a program of advancement suitable to his individual needs and interests. These students will be placed under the same curricular obligations to the regular students. Close attention will be given to their needs, and grade requirements, all apply to the students in the same way as they apply to the regular college students.

Facilities Available

President Winton announced that the college will make the use of any of the facilities of the college available to any student of the college and are eligible for athletic competition on the college, will be granted to the outstanding regularly students.

Admission to the basketball, tennis, or football, on the campus, in the class rank, and in the athletic field, is made on the basis of each student's ability, and the students are selected for their physical limitations and their athletic abilities, and the judgment of the college in charge of the recreation.

"While we are unable to take all who apply for the college in the educational course, we are offering in our educational course to the unemployed," Dr. Winton said.

Dr. Winton added: "We have two entire teams, first, to help the employed mentally and second, and second, to help employed qualified college students. Each student will be granted an individual qualification, and the parents are to be granted the students their highest education.

Writson Addresses P.T.A. Of Winnebago at Menasha

Dr. Henry W. Winton addressed the members of the Parent-Teachers association of the Winnebago school, at Menasha, on a meeting of that group Monday at the Lawrence chapel, Wednesday morning, on personality and his fitness to undertake the studies of the college.

The college, as stated in the program, seeks to register students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.

The college's aims, the opportunity, to seek students with the greatest ability to meet the highest standards of character, and to develop, constructive thinking, provide a special foundation for students to study and to conduct self-study. The college is to conduct the college life in the interest of the college.
The Lawrence Platform

1. Reform the rushing system.
2. Student government.
3. Increase student interest in world affairs.

Back the Vikings

Tomorrow night the Lawrence basketball squad meets the strong Ripon quint at the Alexander gymnasium in one of the most important games on the home schedule of the Viking squad. This is the first of two games remaining to be played before Ripon went the first game played between these two teams this season on its own floor and is coming here tomorrow determined to make it two in a row from the Demons. It will be this game which will count in the Midwest conference standings.

While Lawrence is not Number one team in either the Midwest or Big Four conference, the Vikings have been playing brilliant ball for practically the entire season. The Vikings have been in the running every minute—-the Marquette battle is an example.

A team that is fighting to climb in the conference standings deserves the unqualified support of the student body. The least bit that every Lawrence student can do to get behind his team. Saturday night will offer the students one of the few remaining opportunities they have to back their team on the home court. Make the backing one hundred per cent.

Maybe the Cardinal is Right

Not more than twenty-four hours after Cardinal O'Connor had described radio crooners as whiners, singing "immoral and insipid shuffle, music," before a religious gathering in Boston, his words had reverberated over the entire country and had aroused no small amount of comment from men and women, both old and young, in all walks of life.

There seems to be little room for argument against the accusations of Cardinal O'Connor. He states his case in a clear, concise manner and undoubtedly expresses the opinion of thousands who fear censorship.

To quote Cardinal O'Connor:

"It is a degenerate, low-down sort of an interpretation of love. The man who whines that way—-well, he just isn't a man. There is no man who would lower himself to such an act."

Instead of hearing good music over the radio we have to put up with verse after verse of this immoral shuffle. There is no other word for it.

"It is a sensuous, effeminate, luxurious sort of paganism, with which men of your age may not be influenced, but think of the boys and girls who are brought up with that idea of music."

The Lawrentian February 12, 1932
Leaders Face Stiff Games On Saturday

Big Eps and Betas favored to remain at top of keep in Fight for Honors

Standing
Big Eps - 2,060 Points
Betetas - 1,980 Points

discs 5

Betetas - 1,980 Points

No. 1 - 2,060 Points
No. 2 - 1,980 Points
No. 3 - 1,960 Points

The tournament was closed last week after defeating the Helpers 10-5 and 1-2.

Carleton Leads Share Lead in Midwest League with Beloit

Carleton college, because of the fact that it needed the Marquette silverware for the rest of the league to a third-place position in the Midwest conference of basketball, will be playing at Chicago on Friday, continuing to sharpen the Loraine of the Midwest conference, with the basketball team.

The tournament season continued Saturday to enter into the last half of the basketball schedule. The Betetas, who have pensioned themselves over the strongest spot in the eastern half, will probably have little difficulty in taking the Phi Tri. However, the Phi Tri saw plenty of fighting from the Marquette front men only by aggressive means, as the Phi Tri will give the Betetas a close game.

The Midwest standings to date:

Chicago English club will meet January 19 as per custom.

Alma Bauxman Winner in Women's Swimming Meet

Alice Saurman, 29, took first place in the swimming contest sponsored by the Phi Delta Kappas Wednesday night, the second place, a swimming 245 lengths in 19 minutes.

Candle Glow Tea Room

Old Friends and Now—We invite you to dine with us any time at your convenience

APPLETON

Wisconsin

VOIGT'S DRUG STORE

Health Foods

defeated by Beloit 32 to 24, lost an overtime battle to Kipon last Friday. The tournament was closed last week after defeating the Helpers 10-5 and 1-2.

The honor team consists of: Florence Johnson, Ripon; Dorothy Jahn, Viola; Ethel Kuether, '35, and Ethel Koford, '35, received honor at the meeting.

With a two Meeks' 10-point lead in the last half, the ball was taken over by a long-distance attack led by Romer of Marquette, and when the whistle blew, the end of the regular playing time, the score was tied at 18 to 16. Three quick golden baskets in the overtime period could not be duplicated, and the Marquette ball on the other hand broke, 24 to 21.

The Midwest standings to date:

Chicago English club will meet January 19 as per custom.

Alma Bauxman Winner in Women's Swimming Meet

Alice Saurman, 29, took first place in the swimming contest sponsored by the Phi Delta Kappas Wednesday night, the second place, a swimming 245 lengths in 19 minutes.

Candle Glow Tea Room

Old Friends and Now—We invite you to dine with us any time at your convenience

APPLETON

Wisconsin

VOIGT'S DRUG STORE

Health Foods

defeated by Beloit 32 to 24, lost an overtime battle to Kipon last Friday. The tournament was closed last week after defeating the Helpers 10-5 and 1-2.

The honor team consists of: Florence Johnson, Ripon; Dorothy Jahn, Viola; Ethel Kuether, '35, and Ethel Koford, '35, received honor at the meeting.

With a two Meeks' 10-point lead in the last half, the ball was taken over by a long-distance attack led by Romer of Marquette, and when the whistle blew, the end of the regular playing time, the score was tied at 18 to 16. Three quick golden baskets in the overtime period could not be duplicated, and the Marquette ball on the other hand broke, 24 to 21.
Faculty Passes Schedule of Lawrence College Aims

(Continued from page 1)

"Through courses in fundamental fields of knowledge the college aims to give its students some experience in the methods of scientific thought, an appreciation of the heritage of the past, some knowledge of contemporary civilization, and some understanding of modern social institutions. In these courses is stressed the dynamic character of both knowledge and institutions. Through some the achievement of a field rather than in a course it stimulates comprehensive views; through emphasis on specific correlations of the fields of learning it encourages to awaken its students to the essential unity of knowledge."

"The college seeks to emphasize the interpretation of experiences in terms of spiritual as well as material values, and part in its conduct as an institution and in its teaching, to develop an appreciation of the necessity of fundamental conceptions of honor in human relationships."

"It provides an environment conducive to social adjustments and encourages the development of student self-government."

"It guides its students away from provincialism toward an intelligent and constructive interest in national and international affairs."

"It endeavors to develop in its students an appreciation of music, literature, and art by providing opportunity for aesthetic experiences and for expression in one or more of the arts."

"The college maintains a carefully planned and co-ordinated program for the health and physical development of the students. A physician and an infirmary offer diagnostic service and advice. The physical education department in its developmental and recreational program offer instruction in various sports and activities."

Naylor Talks at Meeting of Oxford Fellowship

Dr. W. R. Naylor, dean of Lawrence college, addressed the regular meeting of Oxford Fellowship Thursday night on "The Fine Art of Preaching."

Spanish Club To Give Benefit Program at Fox

A Spanish club benefit program will be given at the Fox Theatre of Appleton Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Feb. 15, 16, and 17.

"Dance Teams," with Billy Elders and James Drew in the picture to be shown. The object of the benefit program is to secure a speaker for next semester.

Helen Mueller Returns from Inspection Trip

Miss Helen Mueller, Great Lakes pro­vincial president of Mt. Hi! Students, a national honorary service society, has returned from a two day inspection trip. She visited at Lansing and Detroit in Michigan, Toledo, Cleveland, Delaware, Alliance, and Bucyrus in Ohio, and Mans­field in Pennsylvania.

Rental Pictures

All college rental pictures or rental fees for the movies are due at the li­brary this week. The pictures now in possession of the students may be returned as payment of rental fees for the new semester, or may be exchanged, on payment of the fee, for any pic­tures now available and on display in the library.

Notice

There will be a freebie in the old gym­nastics hall from 7 to 8. Jack Rosens orchestra will play.

Student's Supplies

Sylvester & Nielsen

February parties provide many a fine chance for making Kodak silhouettes.

Try some. It's easy, with the Photoflash Lamp and Kodak Verichrome Film. We'll gladly explain if you'll stop at the photographic counter.

Make our store your head­quarters for all photo-making supplies. Prompt, skillful deve­loping, printing and enlarg­ing.

IDEAL PHOTO and GIFT SHOP