Mr. Clippinger, Three Former Students Talk In Writing Guide
Mr. F. W. Clippinger, professor of English, and three former students of Lawrence, have taken an active part in the third-through-sixth annual Clippinger's Guide to Good Reading. The book contains a list of books suitable for reading by college students and white and black, rich and poor, of all types of individuals who know how to read and read. The small liberal arts college, which is as old as the nation, is in the habit of choosing from several books. Each section has been edited by members of the faculty, and published by the college. The result is a book which is as old as the nation.

Ormsby Plans for Formal Tomorrow

Keen Irving to Furnish Music at K. P. H 11

They've done it again! By prearrangement with the K. P. H 11, Keen Irving's music will be available for the annual formal at Sturtevant Hall. This is the second year the music will be played at the formal. The formal will be held on November 7th. The K. P. H 11 is a student organization which has been in existence for several years.

Norman Thomas Forced to Cancel His Speech Here

Heavy Schedule Makes Visit Impossible for This Year

Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for president, will again be forced to cancel a speaking engagement at Lawrence according to a letter received by Edward Powers, president of the Student Body. Mr. Thomas announced in 1932 that he would speak at Lawrence if it was the only school that would give him an opportunity to speak. The purpose of the speaking engagement is to inform the students about the Socialist party and its policies. The letter from Mr. Thomas states that he is unable to comply with all engagements and requests that his name be put on the schedule of speakers for the fall term. The scheduling committee is waiting for Mr. Thomas' response before putting him on the schedule. The letter contains a copy of the letter.

Quoting from the letter of Mr. Clements, Executive Secretary for the Socialist Party:

"It will be impossible for Norman Thomas to appear at any time during this academic year. He is not now booked. There is such a tremendous demand for him that it is just a question of time when we shall hear from him, which is not likely to be for some time. It is not necessary that we cancel his speech, but we must make an announcement that he will not be available during the academic year." - Quoted by the Socialist Party

Sincerely Yours,

The Committee

Two Students Begin Library Practice Work

Two more students from the Library Department will begin work in the college library for the fall term on September 15th. They are Mr. Frank H. Lane from Amherst, Massachusetts, and Mr. Bernard W. Morris from Wisconsin. Their presence will be welcomed by the students and faculty.

Mr. Lane will be in charge of the library's operations, while Mr. Morris will be assigned to the cataloging department.

Dr. Clements will be on leave of absence for the month of September due to illness, and will be replaced by Mr. Lane.

Mischakoff Pleases Autograph Hunters By Off-stage Manner

Mischakoff plans to return to the campus after a two-week absence. He has been in New York for the past two weeks, where he performed with the New York Symphony Orchestra. He is scheduled to perform with the Lawrence Symphony Orchestra on September 20th. He is expected to be back in the area by the end of the month.

College Back to Status Quo Following Hectic Week-End

Those of us who don'tawn with monotony after spending an exciting week in the whirlpools of campus life may be interested in the comings and goings of the girls just a sample of what a few girls get through seems to have enough, but Omryy prefers to be working in the dorm and are making their daily life, obviously sort of a routine, for the Gossman duel this Saturday. We get the impression that the功率 that be will allow town nights this week for the Brokaw; and Margaret Mercer, treasurer; Pearl Wiese, secretary; Evan VandeWalle, treasurer; Wilmer Witt, chaplain; Susan Hooker, Wausau, historian; Eudora Beadle, Wisconsin Rapids, registrar; and Dorothy Scott, warden are planning on coming out of the dorm. Girls on third and fourth floor are looking forward to catching up on their beauty and sleep!

This Pay And Pay Business Is Girls' Worry

We decided to give your called (feeling a real but last week but just like a bad "Penny" we're coming to town to make a great deal, directed at the toughest species of the Lawrence tandem.

After the decorations committee is to work on Father's Day, the third floor girls will transform the walls, old wallpaper removed over three weeks will adorn the background of this popular area where free wine and beer will be served from two o'clock until four o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. Millis will be the superintendents, and Mrs. F. R. Millis, one of the most outstanding in the field of Deanery work, will be in charge. Other newly elected officers of the chapter are Janice Cornwell, president, Dorothy Lessen,secretary, and Margaret Mercer, treasurer.

Mr. Barrows Gives Saga Girls a Few Tips

Mr. T. B. Barrows announced his intention of living in a "bull" in the third floor girls' dorm. The girls left quite a feeling of surprise and excitement; it could not have been handled any better. The new organization was given an intelligent planning of a world in which there are rules to be followed.

Promoting the talk was a class of propagandists meeting at which place for a spring party were planned. A dance with supper and after dinner dances at a country club was the suggestion accepted for the junior year candidates.

Girls on third and fourth floor were assisted when hours were announced for going out not playing in the rec. room.

The idea of "dono East" seems to be the least understood by American students in the past few years. However, it has now become a part of unofficial part of the college's student's educational equipment. Aside from the general trend, the book itself can naturally be excited by those whose main interest is in the Olympic games. Berlin has made tremendous preparations, not only for the actual games, with one of the greatest athletes of all time, but also as host to the maximum of interest and value in international life. The question of opportunity for individual activities has been one of the hottest travel details, let you travel, but travel to your own kind, and greatly reduce the expense.

The connection from the office of the Olympic American Generation Library copies with this statement.

ARROWLS great state champions last year will not take much of a beating by graduation. Barlow is in the only regular, though, leaving Coach Lampe with Buck, Beag, Konkle, O'Halloran, Mollico, and a raft of promising freshmen hopeful.

Why Not a Tea Conference

Earl Christ of Ripon ran for his last year's championship job and will be out to be the best in the state. He has a good team and expects to be strong in the final game. The Betas showed their worth last year by being outstanding in all the games they participated in.

ALL OPPONENT Team

Betas won the Inter-Fraternity Basketball Pennant for the last time of competition, but not until then. The four best were Schoefer, Seegers, Pederson, and Herzog showed their worth in the last year. They. had outscored first place, however, previous to their last game.

Delta Sigs, Betas Place Two Each On First Team

Barlotta, Horzog, Jones, Schoefer, Seegers Compose First Quint

As far as the Delta Sigs are concerned, it is not so hard to pick the front line, for there were three fellows who proved themselves to be the best in the positions. By their scoring, the ball handling, and general ability, Jones, Bartella, and Herzog showed their worth during the season by being outstanding in all the games they participated in.

However, there were very few games in the league this year where all three could play, and the one that came closest was the game against the Delts in the first round. That was a hard one for the Betas to win, but they really got going in the last games. Pederson, the Delta Sig guard, had potentialities, but was inconsistent and showed his worst form in the last game.

LIFE'S ODDITIES

By George Clark

"You kids must learn to pay some attention to your father when he speaks to you."

A new and interesting edifying little book, which includes a discussion of the "Lawrentian" results in the pregnancy of the latter. This second body is var-iously known as intellectual curiosity, and its amount of currency on the Lawrentian can accomplish the seduction of this campus intellect as long as it exists in such a state of great virtue.

2. Given a successful junction of the two bodies, an issue may not yet be forthcoming, as in this case it may be subject to a few free details on the university's educational policies and the limitations of liberal arts. Students are urged to use this column for purposes of expressing their own opinions, and the only station required is that the identity of the author must be made known to the editor. This information, however, will be held strictly confidential.

Dear Editor:

As a Lawrentian one cannot but be overcome with gratitude for that unceasing uncle of ours, who in a recent issue devoted the joyous tidings of the blessed event occurring in our midst. Indeed, the birth of an issue is such a momentous event, not only for students, but also for the administrative godlings, that a birth or expression to the "issue," in this case, is perfectly merited. And yet, the very person, who enlivened us as being familiar with the "issue," is now the kind of a man who has been shuddering at the din of our "Main Street," but that the same institution has just written a novel in stone—(he was a nice, kindly-looking gentleman with a white, tailored coat). In the law of the land, a God would give the ten commandments, so why not have been merely trying to stir up the public interest in the college, and the students?" I believe that the institution will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public interest in the college will never be recognized, and that the public
