Ariel Is Well Received by Students and Faculty

The 1935-1936 edition of the Ariel, college periodical, appeared on the campus after conversation had Saturday. The book, which has been edited by Barbara Rounds, and was dedicated to Carl J. Waterman, dean of the conservatory, was the object of praise by the student body and faculty alike. Bound in a black cover with the imprint of the chapel tower upon it, the book contained many helpful features.

Each fraternity and sorority was allotted four pages, containing a dress of their pet with a background of the front page of the house or sorority rooms. The active and pledge pictures, a short write-up and a panel of Infernal shots in and about the chapter hall made up the rest of the organization's section. The beauty section of the book which outlined the six beauties on campus, included a picture of the cover girl, a picture of the student who wears the cover of the Harold Teen comic strip, was especially striking because it was printed in brown ink on a darker brown background. Those appearing there were Jeanne Guild, Ruth Gray, Ruth Perdorf, Mona Quell, Dorothy Mansfield, Dorothy Neugebord and Yvonne Craig. Those receiving honorable mention were Alice Hastings, Havy Young, Miss Abbott-Shawfill, Barbara Hume, Florence McGlennon, Marag Conley, and Bill Hancock, and Ruth Perry also served in executive capacities so served in executive capacities upon it. Graf Walks Away but Vikes Lose to Beloit

Joe Graf is shown above as he walked away with the 100 yard dash in 9.9 seconds, but the Vikes lost their first dual meet in a heartbreaking finish to Beloit last Saturday afternoon by 1-2-2 points. Wil Hecht, shown behind Graf, is taking third place. A Beloit runner, not shown in the picture, took second.

The Midwest track, tennis, and golf matches were entered Saturday here at 15, literally stubbed to death by the final throw of the javelin, the final event of the afternoon. The winner was Beloit college and the margin was 1-2-2 points, at 1-2-2 in the last 30 seconds. Lawrence went into the meet doped to lose to the Gold. At one point, after two were out, it looked as if Lawrence might lose. Graf was the second place winner but he still had a jump left although reluctant to take it because he was almost exhausted and still had a relay race to run. But on the last throw of the last meet, Graf, the 127', which, however, is considerably farther than any Lawrence attempt.

Beloit will be favored to clinch the titles because of their well-balanced teams which have been more numerous, many Betas were on bases, and hits did not show up in any of these encounters, especially the pitched.

Removal of Rock Throws New Angle On Barrows Case

Persons Close to President Suggest 'Geophobias' As Cause

A new angle in the Barrows case came out late today when it was revealed that President Barrows has an intense hatred of rocks, especially old harmless boulders, which geologists call geophobias, is believed to be a result of an intellectual conflict. "Who Is the College?" Other authorities proposed that the true cause of the Barrows removal case be more deeply searched. One even went so far as to take it at his word that he was removed because it was an 'eyewnd.'

Protest D......Comprehensives

A militat group of senior men and women protested yesterday morning a demonstration against senior comprehensives. Spokesmen for the protesters asserted that the comprehensives must go. Faculty insistence to the change, which had been advocated in elective strikes of previous years, was said to be as strong as ever.

A neutral observer believed that the faculty would again try to undermine the strike by giving false information to the students. Strikes failed in previous years, he said, because striking students were too easily flattered by the praise of major professors.
