At the beginning of the session, three loud speakers announced "O, Black Joe." "The Johnson Rag," and an excellent Gregorian Chant. A quartet composed of Dick Geith, Emma Smith, John Douglas, and John Rossbach, sang several college songs and the "Doo Wop" of the football coach, then talked about the program and introduced Haslcy and Kneve.

Here are Some Remembrances
Of Past Frosh-Soph Battles
Charles S. Boyd Is Named to Board Of Trustees Again

After an absence of three years, 1943, Mr. Charles S. Boyd, 78, manufacturer, returns to the Board of Trustees. His election took place at the annual meeting of the Board held at Beverwyck Country Club Friday, June 6. Mr. Boyd fills a vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. A. C. Gillet. For the past week he has lain on his deathbed, but after serving 53 years on the Board, the retired trustee comes from Lawrence family. His father, Samuel, S. M., was a graduate of the class of '38. A brother, Robert, was a member of the class of '93, and a daughter, Martha, is a junior in the college at present.

Russell C. Flom, 94, was reelected an alumnus trustee, and Jean Wiley Thompson, 33, replaces Paul Amundson, '74, as an alumni trustee. Amundson had served two terms and thus was ineligible for reelection. One new officer was named at the meeting. Mrs. L. Erneston of Milwaukee was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the departure of E. F. Bishoff of Besa. Replacing Mr. Bishoff were George Davis, '94; President; F. H. Smithen, '53; Secretary; Walter Kesler, '22; Counselor; and W. W. Brimmet, '52; Treasurer.

Another great past tradition was the duck pond on campus during the fall and winter term. The duck pond was a favorite haunts of the students.

My! My! Lawrence College Is Slipping! What Will Happen?

Having been duly impressed that Lawrence was founded in 1847, two wonder how it fails to be improved by our present-day standards. Their thoughts have been how, with all the many idle hours will be shown by the present time, Lawrence is slipping? Is there any occasion to do it?

There were also various ways in which a conscientious student might cut his fuel. Our catalog shows that in 1850, we had an extra overcoat and wearing it at all times he might cut his fuel. Furthermore, back in 1850, we read that the business office will not refund a cent. As a protest we'll not turn it off once— even if it all times he might cut his fuel supply has proved the ruin of Coach Bernie Heselton will lead his gridiron charges in the 1941 Midwest opener against Grinnell on Saturday afternoon. The kickoff is scheduled for 2:00 p.m., and with two teams of evenly matched as the Vikings and Pioneers, the spectators will probably be given a dazzling display of wide-open plays, lateral s, and passes. This is the second year of competition for the Iowa outfit, which finished third last year with four victories and two losses. Coach Ben Douglas has lost some men in Uncle Sam, but is pleased over the return of twelve lettermen, including Captain Louis Gonias.

Heselton is expected to start a number of seniors, but still is undecided over the starting lineup. Tentatively, the Blue and White should stack up as follows: end*:

Rhodes, Zupek, Supiano, or Hamfe.

Osen or Nolan.

McIntosh.

right half back:

Spaulding or Florin.

quarterbacks:

Kirchoff, Messenger, or Powell.

fullback:

Miller, Perry Powell and Jarvis Lingle.

The Vikes are a determined, rugged bunch this year, and a victory in tomorrow's opener will definitely place the team in the conference standing.

In the squad of thirty-six men fourteen are seniors and nine of the better of recent years. They have been scrimmaging the varsity and several men are already out- standing. Ed Byrom, a back, is a most promising young man who may develop into a really fine player. Chuck Kirchof, at tailback, is one of the fastest men on the team and will probably get the chance to be the outstanding man in the line. He is fast and being a vicious tackler should be a vital cog in the defensive machine. If no more injuries beset the squad they should be a vital cog in the defensive machine. Coach Bernie Heselton is telling his four tackles as the Viking team prepares for the season's opener tomorrow afternoon here against Grinnell college, a Midwest conference opponent. Heselton wants very much to grab the opener because it will be a fine start for the season and he has been doing everything in his book to get his charges in the right mood. The gridders are, reading from the front to the back, John Messenger, Dick Miller, Percy Powell and Jarvis Lingle.

Froshman football practice began a week ago and, although only thirty men have reported, the squad shows promise of being one of the better of recent years. They have been scrimmaging the varsity, and several men are already outstanding.

By Roy Riemer
On Saturday by 4:30 we will know how the '41 Viking squad is to figure in the Midwest conference. The material is here and we have the psychological advantage of having their homescoming game against a team that is at best a spot on our schedule. But has five labs a week and is not in fine form. We have a tough opponent for an opening game and we'll try our best to prove that this is the first time of us.

As You Like It
Ladies Meet—By Gordon Shortleff

When Ladies meet, which is supposed to be the "piece de resistance" of the plot, it is difficult to imagine a Garson or a Crawford bursting into laughter and saying: "It's a man like me."

Garson was never so far from appearing the superior in her role as in the present production. This time the picture is of the dialogue, which gives some idea of the sentiment of the play, the sentiment of the age, the sentiment of the people, the sentiment of the world. It is a comedy, and a very good one at that.

Miss Romeo, in her role of the writer, and Miss Crawford in the role of the actress, are not far from being the best of the female characters. Miss Romeo is charming in her role of the writer, and Miss Crawford is even more charming in her role of the actress.

Robert Z. Leonard's direction is happy and funny as usual, and suited to comedy which should be frothy and light; he is far happier when turning out the MGM spectaculars illuminating the life of Ziegfeld.

The film is handsomely mounted, sometimes far more lavishly than in fact, but it makes a background of charm even though the dialogue seldom rose from the lower depths. Garson is truly delightful as the wife, again proving to be one of the most charming actresses on the screen. Joan Crawford is even quite charming. They also do "Platonism in the Middle Ages".

He learned, first hand, all about the little domestic problems that followed in the wake of young Garland's return. He also visited the University of Minne­sota. Mr. Anderson, associate professor of philosophy, spent the summer in App­le­ton, changing his address. He also visited the University of Minne­sota.
