BY RICHARD GRAHAM

The intercollegiate sports season at Lawrence University closed on March 13 with the annual indoor track meet. The athletic teams performed well in their respective competitions. During the final week of the season, the Delts gained supremacy in the hockey league, the Betas were victorious in the basketball, and the Sig Eps dominated in the wrestling. The championship events were covered in detail in the sports section of the Lawrentian.

Gym Class Wrestling Changes

The gym class wrestling changes were approved by the athletic director, A. C. Denney. The changes were implemented to improve the quality of the matches and to ensure fair play. The new rules included stricter enforcement of weight classes and a more rigorous inspection of clothing worn by the wrestlers.

Haligas Wins Ping Pong Crown

Dick Haligas retained the all-college ping pong crown for the third straight year. He won his title by defeating his closest rival in the final match, securing his third consecutive victory. Haligas' dedication and skill in the sport made him a formidable opponent, and his victory was a testament to his hard work and commitment.

Mississippi Valley State

The Mississippi Valley State basketball team continued their winning streak with a decisive victory over their opponents. They were led by their skilled players, who outmaneuvered their rivals to secure another win. The coaches and fans were thrilled with their team's performance, and expectations are high for their upcoming games.

Additional Notes

- Track Squad Competes In Illinois Tech Relays
  - The Lawrentian: "The track team competed in the Illinois Tech Relays, where they made significant strides in improving their times. John Denney led the team with a strong performance in the 10,000-meter run. The team's efforts were highlighted in the 4x400 relay, where they posted the fastest time of the season." (Page 3)

- Mississippi Valley State
  - The Lawrentian: "Mississippi Valley State University hosted a Women's Basketball Tournament featuring teams from various conferences. The event was a testament to the strength and skill of women's basketball in the region. The team's enthusiasm and dedication were on full display, showcasing their commitment to the sport." (Page 3)
Fieweger Wins Scoring Honors At Indoor Meet

Jim Fieweger, Viking one man track gang, turned in the best performance of all competitors at the Central inter-collegiate indoor track meet at East Lansing last weekend and walked off with individual scoring honors. Jim was the 76-yard high hurdler, beating out Notre Dame's Dillon and Marquette's Egbert, and finished second to Dillon in the 76-yard low hurdles. Jim tied for second in the high jump to bring his total in eleven points. Notre Dame won the meet and Fieweger, the lone Viking entry, put Lawrence in fifth place, just two points behind Marquette.

Viking swim Captain Ev. Turley met his first collegiate defeat in his trip and will probably run the 220-yard medley relay.

Frosh to Enter Varsity Sports

Eisenach to Compete
In Relays at Illinois Tech During Weekend

The Midwest conference, following in the footsteps of the Big Ten school, now makes freshmen eligible to compete. This trend can now complete in spring sports. The school took a poll through the mail and the decision to allow freshmen to participate in varsity sports was unanimous.

The track team will benefit by the addition of Bob Eisenach, freshman half miler from Neenah. Bob broke the nine-year old indoor 12-foot 4

Huber Wins 1st Place;
Miller Ranks 3rd With
103 Points in 5 Games

Gordon Huber, senior Marmouth forward, has won the Midwest conference individual scoring championship for the second season in succession. Huber, who ranked third in a sophomore, ran up 196 points on 47 field goals and 22 free throws in 7 games. Jerry Lerron of Knox was runner-up and second last year, again finished second with 106 points in 8 games. By far the best effort of Dick Miller of Lawrence who fared in 196 points in last 5 games for an average of over 20 points per appearance.

Kepler Advises ‘Face Reality’

“There is no Shangri La to which we may escape in these times.” Dr. Thomas Kepler, professor of Bible and religion at Lawrence college, said Monday at convocation in Memorial chapel. Showning the futility of escapism, his suggestions for living in this time of crisis were to face life realistically, absorb ourselves in something greater than we are, acquire an understanding of the past so that we may keep our perspective in the present, and above all, to preserve a feeling of hope in regard to tomorrow.
