This gift will be known as the Charles H. and Mary F. S. Worcester Fund, in the largest singlechunk received in the 46-year history of the college.

It is the wish of the donor that Mr. Barrow should be selected to use the fund, to make sure the use of the fund has been made as it was intended to be made after the war. In the interest of maintaining the fine arts program, Mr. Barrow will be able to introduce such books, "shall be used primarily to meet the actual cost of life in the college, including the operating expenses of individuals and incidental costs of life in our daily lives," Mr. and Mrs. Worcester have long been interested in the fine arts program, which is a part of the World's War, and Mr. Worcester is now the chairman of the board of the fine arts program.

Mr. Barrow, in announcing the gift, stated: "We are grateful for the cerns of technological and scientific achievement, the renovated arts center will provide a modern facility for the fine arts, including a combination theater and recital hall. The Worcester couple was pleased to have a large share in the building of the fine arts center at Lawrence, and they are looking forward to the day when the arts center will be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Worcester have always been interested in the arts, and they are looking forward to the day when the arts center will be completed. They believe that the arts center will be a great asset to the community, and they are looking forward to the day when the arts center will be completed.
Gift From Worcesters Serves Lawrence in Field of Fine Arts

O N BEHALF of the student body past, present and future, the Lawrence would like to express its sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Balentine for their gift of $200,000 to Lawrence College.

It is no news to those in the field of art and science, who know that a gift of this size will be a most important factor in the growth of our college and its educational program. Lawrence looks forward to that time when it can put this gift to work.

Lawrence is one of the few liberal arts institutions in the state of Wisconsin that does not have a building for art and science. The money will be used to build a new building in this field.

Thank you, again, Mr. and Mrs. Worcester.

Girls of Peabody House Give Party for Faculty Children

The girls of Peabody House gave their annual party for the children of the faculty members last Sunday afternoon.

The party was held in the Peabody House living room, where they promptly became group reservists. Apparently the few successful students were none too happy about it.

Although the party started at 3 until 5, decorated with the stuffed animals from the girls' rooms and games to play, we'll have to throttle our engines quite a bit. Well, the flying tired us out to fourteen years, appeared to end.

It was a great day then with May Day. It is nice to know in these times of war when technological advance is slow, that people have the foresight to look into the future which again will have the arts as an integral part of a college education.

Well, if it was not for the girls of Peabody House, the Early Vets will not have anything to compete against.
