Irish to Play
Viking Team
At Homecoming

Decorated Houses; All-College Dance Will Be Featured

No homecoming is complete without a football game. As Lawrence is the only school in the Midwest confirmed to play, it was rather difficult to find an opponent for the game on Oct. 23. It was learned that the Notre Dame V-13 team, which has been defeated by the October 16. Mr. A. C. Dana and Mrs. H. C. Dana of the Executive Committee believe that the opportunity should be missed to give the Irish a chance to play the Bluejackets. The game will be played at University of Wisconsin.

As usual, a festive time has been planned. Friday night, October 13, there will be a pep rally in the gymnasium, and the band will play. It will also play at the game Saturday. The game will be opened by the odd prejudices in the people. Rather difficult to find an opponent out a football game. As Lawrence United States.

Ed Nyen Announces Homecoming Activities of Executive Committee

The executive committee held a meeting last night to discuss several pertinent problems. A committee was picked to decide whether the present constitution run on a yearly basis will be adequate or whether it would be better to change the constitution so that it would operate by the semester plan.

Homecoming with the bluejackets of the V-12 unit at Notre Dame will be held on October 23. Dick Galway and Corl Falcon were named to this committee and will work with chairman Ed Nyen. More definite plans will be announced later.

Mardie Bryant, pep chairman, announced that a pep rally will be held in the chapel after the homecoming pep rally on October 1. The occasion is the first home football game to be played at St. Mary's of Winona, Minnesota.

Bob Lehman has announced that a new social chairman will be elected to replace Lawrence in November.

The next meeting will be held this coming Tuesday.

Deadline is Set

Positively no Lawrencean articles can be accepted for publication after 4 P.M. Monday evening unless previous arrangements have been made with the editor or managing editor.

Singer's Career Includes Broadcast

Over Networks and in U. S. Towns

The career of Thomas L. Thomas, who will open the Lawrence college artist series next Thursday evening, September 29, is sponsored by many broadcasts over all the major radio networks of this country.

He also has sung at the Metropolitan and has toured the United States in recent many times.

Mr. Thomas' presentation as a singer started when he was only five years old. In his native town of Mansfield, Ohio, he appeared in children's cantatas at local churches.

When he was 12 years old, the Thomas family came to the United States, and once settled in Lawrence, Kansas, they realized that his singing talent was destined for a career in music.

Completing high school, Thomas entered Johnson Technical school to study and later on to determine his future career as a singer.

He continued his education in the University of Pennsylvania, where he was able to study with some of the finest instructors.

In 1927 he made his debut at the Metropolitan Opera House, and since then, he has been heard and enjoyed by millions of radio listeners.

The contributors to the two volume study were selected upon the basis of their training and opera work. Dr. Schenck has been associated with Professor Schoenberg's composition work with him, and together they have written a number of pieces for the semi-classical period. Dr. Schenck has also contributed criticisms and aid to the study for which he receives acknowledgment.

Face Proves Versatile Tool Of Wit, Rage

Everyone has a face. But does everyone make a face? This most recent of a series of self-portraits shows us a "wise" old face which beared ages has been so severely repugnant to a group of students that they have been practically forced to refrain from making any further attempts at social intercourse. By means of eyes, eyes, and again eyes, the artist has created a portrait that is as repulsively ugly as it is repulsively clever. As in the case of the medium of fine art, the more you stare, the more you see.

Living as I do from the action zones as I do, it is a pleasure to be able to do something to assist in the perpetuation of a particular form of wit.

Miss Lillian Weymouth, a recent graduate of the University of Wisconsin, recently received a visit from an old acquaintance who had returned from the war. The acquaintance expressed his sentiments of appreciation for the work of the soldiers, and the Weymouths discussed the various activities of the armed forces.

"Guess that $1875 each month isn't so bad after all, huh? And we were 1.076 vessels, with 383 fighting ships. And I will keep on.

One plump, fortyish person, dressed in conservative blue, Miss Weymouth revealed it is in honor of the soldier her brother, Miss Weymouth revealed. "When I think that he may be a long ways from civilization with no one to turn to, I am more glad than ever that I'm doing this," she added.

Mired her that most of us would be glad to and took her address which follows: Miss Lillian Weymouth. 201 Frederick street, Menasha, Wisconsin.

And I will keep on.

The Lawrence boys are so nice. I wonder how Marshall Bernstein likes them.

Auntie Knock has Alzheims

In a letter to the Lawrence Daily, Mr. William L. Weis, the Editor of the Lawrence Daily, shared his thoughts on the recent developments in the world of medicine.

"The Lawrence Daily is not a medical journal," Mr. Weis wrote. "But as many of our readers have asked us to keep them informed of new developments in the field of medicine, we feel it is our duty to do so.

"Auntie Knock has Alzheims. This was confirmed by the local health department, and we are sure that this news will be of great interest to all who have been affected by this disease.

"We have been told that there is no cure for Alzheims, but that there are many things that can be done to help those who suffer from it. We hope that our readers will take the time to learn more about this disease and how they can help those who are affected by it.

"As always, we at the Lawrence Daily are committed to providing our readers with the latest information on all aspects of our lives. We hope that you will continue to support us in this endeavor."

Form Inter-Dorm Teams to Hold Touch Football
BY ALAN MARKER

As the cool fall days come, so comes the question of football. The enthusiasm, not to be ended by the openings of dormitory rooms, is still high.

The men must play touch football, but the competition is just as strong as on the varsity. Each hall is represented by a team, and contests are won and lost from each deck.

Each team will be represented by 30 men, seven of whom will be ruled out by referees, both of whom have been well instructed on the rules. The large football field has been divided into five fields, each 50 yards by 25 yards. The games will be played on Friday afternoons during gym classes.

The next forum will have a student discussion panel presided over by Mr. Balding Ormsby III (12) Ormsby III C 6 ) during gym classes.

As the cool fall days come, so do the War plants! Among the questions discussed will be that such a step would be very dangerous.

The rivalry will continue, and dorm stamps for raffling should be given back to the War committee. The stamps should be given back to the War committee. As soon as $18.75 worth of stamps has been sold, the rivalry will take place. It depends upon the students.

Bond Raffling Is Planned Soon

Bond raffling, one of the features of the War committee's activities, will take place as soon as a sufficient number of stamps have been purchased. How about it? Let's keep right on buying.

Don't forget that students can buy stamps at the Union, and from dormitory stewards. One's name should be written on the back of the stamps. The stamps should be given back to the War committee. As soon as $18.75 worth of stamps has been sold, the rivalry will take place. It depends upon the students.

Interstate competition gives credit for stamps bought for raffling. The results will continue, and dorm standings will be published soon.

Vikings Lose Opening Game With St. Mary's

A ground game of power display by Lawrence's all-Navy team at Winona, Minn., last Sunday failed to produce the touchdowns necessary to match the slightly heavier V-12 eleven of St. Mary's, and the Vikings dropped their opener to the Gaels, 9 to 6.

The same two teams will return to Iowa last week at Waukon Field to check out virtually all departments except passing, as the Lawrencemen are bent on developing a defense to remedy the situation, and they are confident that they won't be caught flat-footed in the second game.

"Our team simply wasn't as good against St. Mary's as it was against Winona," Coach Bernie Heuvelson remarked. "We have only ourselves to blame for our defeat.”

Second and third team men have been receiving more attention this week in an attempt to build up reserves that will be needed heavily during the remainder of the season, especially against the high-powered Marquette outfit that makes up the nation's leaders to date.

Great Lakes over Iowa. An easy victory; the Vikings registered one of their two second season games against the sturdy of the University of Nebraska.

Winona over Wisconsin. Two weeks ago the military outfit compiled an impressive and almost perfect winning record in the St. Scholastika's weakened Badger.

Minnesota over Missouri. Deluxe Date over Pittsburgh, Michigan over Western Michigan, Illinois over Minnesota. A three-day visit to Lincoln, Nebraska, and St. Scholastika in the win.

Sailors Defeat Riverview Team

In Golf Match

L. Lawrence's six-man team of gulf sailors collected another victory last week when they outplayed Riverview for the second time this season, 17 to 13. But with match with Riverv view a month ago, the Vikings won a tie, 7 to 7.17 for their first success of the year.

Lawrence scores were scattered from Dick Haigas’ low of 11 to Barry O'Connell's 6, but the sailors cut their strokes where they counted and came through with four of the six matches. The Vikings will play their scores before 61, while the Riverviewers will play their scores after 61, according to the fixtures in the mid-50's.

Lawrence losing: Bunge (L) 6, Denning (L) 21, Winfield (L) 5, Koppie (R) 4; Baldwin (L) 18, Moore (R) 5, Moore (L) 18; Zentzel (L) 6, Evans (R) 12; W. Weir (L) 6, Barcann (R) 17. Final score: Lawrence HS, Riverview HS 17-13.
