Lowe House Hosts Thriving Business
With Turkish Bath

Happy right up, good, and back home again, in the heart of the best Turkish Bath on the campus. Conquer Old Man Cold in the best steam baths in Appleton! That's right, pets, two baths, up and down. Plenty of towels. No waiting. Stay as long as you like!

An eager line surged through the door of Lowe House and soon the steam rooms were filled to capacity. Business thrives, the steam rooms busy and faster and faster the bath doors opened with the steady rhythms of the Belts race to operate. The customers here, a little disappointed, the house returns to its normal "quiet" atmosphere, the steam rooms are over.

"But what was it?" you say. "What made all the steam? Where did it come from?"

Hamann Concentrates Upon Defense; Prepares Team for Hilltop Game

The Marquette basketball team, which is directed by Coach Ray Hamann and trained by a large contingent of Lawrence rooters, will invade Sheboygan, Wis., for the Christmas vacation. It should certainly provide some darn good basketball playing in spots, even with a schedule that refreshes the Lawrence total, providing the home scene with a new "white" hope. Coach Hamann multiplied forces during the last week to give the Lawrence total, providing the home scene with a new "white" hope. Coach Hamann multiplied forces during the last week to give

Hamann: On Defensive For Next Game

Believing that the Lawrence college offense will take care of itself with any kind of shooting, Coach Hamann and his assistants are concentrating on defense as he prepares his Viking squad for next game with Marquette at Milwaukee tomorrow night. With a squad that has proven before last season's and just as adept at ball handling, Hamann hopes to tighten up on defense and with the aim of getting ability against the dribbling tendencies. . . .
