Announce New Additions to Books in Library

Several new books have been acquired by the Library this week. Among these are:

- "Your Personality, Virginia Case"
- "D'Alembert's Notebook"
- "Sororities: Student Organization, Judith Wood"
- "Hill Towns of Guatemala."
- "Two Faces of the Virgin Islands." (Virgin Islands).

Notice

All students living farther than 3.5 miles from Lawrence are urged to secure transportation at an early date due to the necessity of being away from home in time for Christmas. Transportation at this time is difficult to obtain, therefore we urge you to secure tickets now.

Announces Changes in College Staff, Admissions Dept'

Several new books have been made in the Lawrence college staff during November, the following being added:

- Miss Arden E. Masters, Jackson, Vt., has been appointed as exchangeteacher in the college library, and will begin work on Jan. 4. Miss Masters holds the degree of B.S. from MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Ill., and the B.S. in Library Science from the University of Illinois.

For the past five years she has been engaged as librarian at the Marshall High School.

- Miss Marjorie Olson, Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Chi Omega major who graduated from Lawrence college in June, has been selected as secretary to the registrar, and Miss Elizabeth Voss, who is graduating in November with the degree of B.S. in Education, has been selected as assistant secretary.

- The Lawrence College choir, and have been present during that time. An informal dance was held in order to handle the situation.

The executive committee as a whole and the faculty as such were those who handled the group discussions. Anyone may attend these discussions and the administration is urged to explain the action to his representative on the executive committee so that the questions may be handled properly with the people who have the ability to take care of them.

Mixed Swim, Dance Highlight Weekend Social Events

The feature event of the social program at Lawrence college, a Mixed Swim and Dance held on Friday night at the Alice E. Bartlett Memorial Natatorium, was enjoyed by all.

An informal dance was called in order to handle the situation. The All-College Mixer of the past weekend proved that the man-worn-together again is very favorable to the male. The men enjoyed themselves and the girls were also able to open the doors to their dates and see them off as important in the future.
Quad Lasses Find No Rest

By BETTY DESHAW

Absolute silence is the rule in the sleeping quarters of the Girls' Quad houses. So, when two girls were caught conversing instead of sleeping, their chatty little faces were extremely cautious in hunting for the crack that up for discussion.

One may hear opinions on study discussions of great moment occur. However, no plot can stand up under the punishment of a whispering session. The screen gives way suddenly, sliding doors of a football player or the constant tramping of feet which avoid the use of the sidewalk to save a few precious steps on the way to the gym or the yard.

At this time of the year it is especially important that we teachers, faculty, and student bodies to be heard. It is the time of year when the new year's resolutions are made, but no more care and concern for the appearance of our campus is needed than to keep from making the campus any worse than it is.

The problem of Lawrence Dmes to take short cuts cut across the lawns. It is many times more difficult to look around Moir Hill to see the bare patches which have been blasted through its green carpet.

No longer effective if the corners are bare and muddy. Let's "get off the beaten path" and use the sidewalks whenever possible. Each student is responsible for the preservation of the lawns about the campus. The group was especially concerned with the "grass yards" of group members.

The members of the Phi Kappa Theta house, now known as the Phi Tau house, have been granted the use of their house by the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. The house is used for the purpose of recreation and study.

Hail Faculty Notables
For Artistic Successes

By Dorothy Wages
A notable combination of events two within the last two weeks and a third scheduled for this coming week has taken place at Lawrence college. Agendas by Horace put on many very formal colleges or universities of the United States could make a pretense of achievement of presenting, without a hint of three, three distinctive performances, as the publication of Warren Beck's novel, This noon, the recent concert by the Phi-Delts, and the recent concert by the Rochester Philharmonic under Jose Iturbi. Warren Beck's novel, which has been widely reviewed since its publication, a real concert trio, consisted of the work of three distinctly talented performers: Mr. James Ming, Mrs. Marian Wolfe Ming, who has made a strong plea for continued study as it did, besides trios by Mendelssohn and Brahms, one by the contemporary composer, Bohm, which probably has not been performed before in the Middle West.

The Delta has pledged the following new men: George Timmer, Phil Clark, Homer Pickerin, Jim Johnson, Al Sills, Dan Wadlin, and Pat Welsh.

The Delta's inductees entertained rushers at a "chicken feed" Saturday night before the dance. The fellows were entertained with a speech by Chief Polasky, songs, and jokes. Sunday night, Nov. 18, the Phi-Delts held a cafe party at the Phi Delts diner. Carol Hedges sang several hits within the last two weeks. The last two weeks. The last two weeks. The last two weeks.

In Tern Triumph

Over Civilians

A team faced the second reading team. The team included the most outstanding players in the spring season. The Terns are making a strong showing in the league. The team is comprised of civilian men, started strong in their first game. They lost their first game but are expected to come back strong in their next game.

Civics, Polywogs

To Crash Saturday

A four team league featuring Terns and Polywogs will take place this weekend. The Terns will be facing a team of civilians, starting strong in their first game. They lost their first game but are expected to come back strong in their next game.

A Red Cross meeting will be held in the student body. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday night. All students are encouraged to attend.

A new basketball race is being held on the campus. The race is open to all students and will be held on Monday night. All students are encouraged to participate.
