The wall of selfishness which has spread across the earth is not the whole story. We must also consider the actions of those who seek to profit from the suffering of others. The World Student Service Fund, founded by Dean Donald M. DuShane of the University of Wisconsin, is working to alleviate the suffering of those in need.

The fund is a non-profit organization that seeks to provide financial assistance to students and their families in need. The fund operates on the principle of raising money from a variety of sources, including student donations, corporate contributions, and government grants. The money is then distributed to students and their families in the form of grants, scholarships, and other financial aid.

The World Student Service Fund is currently working on several projects, including a scholarship program for students attending institutions of higher education. The fund also provides financial assistance to students who are experiencing financial difficulties due to unforeseen circumstances, such as illness or injury.

The World Student Service Fund is committed to helping students and their families by providing them with the resources they need to achieve their educational goals. The fund is always looking for ways to increase its support and to expand its reach. If you would like to learn more about the World Student Service Fund or to make a donation, please visit their website at www.worldstudentservicefund.org.

Pinning Ends In Wedlock For '46 Grads

Beto big news of the week centers around the marriage tomorrow of Dick Gallaway, ’46, and Pauline. ’46, in DeKalb, Missouri. Bruce Buchanan will be best man and Betty Wheeler her sister's choice as matron of honor. The couple will live in St. Louis.

Kappa Alpha Thetas will be entertained Tuesday afternoon from 2:30 until 4:00 by the Beta Phi Psi Fraternity.

The Phi Delta expect about 50 couples at their Valentine party tonight. The evening will be livened by another of those famous skits by the pledges. Bert Paul and Dale Johnson are in charge of the proceedings.

The Phi Delts mourn the departure of Ogden McGhee and Two Lange from whom great results are expected on America's industrial front.

Over at the Sig Ep house the boys are still talking of the free time out at their recent Valentine party. Still in a festive mood the chapter entertained all new men on campus at a smoker Thursday.

Mings to Present Combined Recital

Students and the public have been much interested in hearing Marion Graham, pianist, and active in making the highest grades and the most improvements. Those making the highest grades were Barbara Harbison, Betty Hattery, pleased, Gloria Beuhler, active and Shirley Hanson, pleased the best at the combined recital yesterday. Misses in the audience were: Misses Mindy Delek, Grace Smith, and Diane Schilder. Congratulations to them all.

The combined Founders' Day and Initiation Banquet followed Thursday evening with alumni active and pledges in attendance. Carole Hawley, as toastmistress, awarded the highest grades and the highest in grade of improvement. Those making the highest grades were Barbara Harbison, Betty Hattery, Gloria Beuhler, active and Shirley Hanson. The theme of the banquet is under the sponsorship of local alumni chapter of Sulu.

Staff Ready for Yearbook for Coming Debut

With one-half of the book already at the printers and the other half well on the way to completion, the art staff is winding up its days and will start on their first deadline, which came to the midst of exams, the final portion of the book will reach the printer on February 14.

The advertising section under the direction of Bob Curry has been finished, and the work of the staff is now being delayed by lack of short write-ups on the various activities. The editor has asked the cooperation of all club representatives in getting their stories in as quickly as possible and in writing them in the manner which best represents their club.

Freshmen May Join Art Association Now

At the last meeting of the Lawrence Art association, Tuesday night, the section of the constitution stating that "freshmen are not eligible for membership" was amended. This group feels that by such a statement many of the students who are interested in the Art association are prevented from entering the association's activities, and are hindered in their interest in the arts.

Any freshmen who wish to become active in the association and would like to become members may do so. The members will be glad to receive you at the Frank J. Schell lecture on Interior Decoration, Tuesday. Further information can be obtained from the president, Bob Reddin.

Schumann Will Give Teaching Talk at Dinner

Marguerite Schumann, publicity director of Lawrence college, has chosen the topic "Is Teaching in a Taliban?" for her address at the Best-Loved banquet on Tuesday evening, Feb. 12.

Miss Schumann is a former best-loved. All those having been so honored since the inauguration of this custom in 1924 have been invited to attend the centennial year banquet.

The rear covered silver brackets, driven traditionally as symbols of this achievement, will be presented to those newly-elected by Mary Vinson, a Best-Loved of last year.

Other Midwest Schools Keep Busy in New Ways

BY NANCY KINGHERST

It may surprise you to find that there are older colleges than Lawrence, as you read this. In the Midwest besides Lawrence College, there are other colleges that have been around longer, such as Ripon and Beloit, but until recently they were not considered the places of great imaginations. After actually seeing what goes on in these illustrious institutions I feel free to report that there are actually even better places, and not only that, but they do things in a much more relaxed manner than girls to compete in the following:

- Three Annie Oakleys are making a 700 mile round-trip and have high hopes of winning the match.
- The students at Cornell have been offered a hospital building for their students. They intend to move to this building to the north.
- The Knox team at Galesburg, Illinois, has asked to report that there actually are these illusive institutions I feel free to report that there are actually even better places, and not only that, but they do things in a much more relaxed manner than girls to compete in the following:

Of Sentimental Valentines

The year of dreadful realities is almost past;
but it calls when it starts again.

"The year of Chicago's fire..."
A certitude no one could dispute;
But what in the world did they mean by "the year of the yellow jackets?"

The year for which all the nations
Corned their armies and went to war;
Yet, that's what people's always about those dreadful days in April.

Yet, if you're a Saxon or a German
And they're your friends in war;
Then you've got a mighty fine friend in the airship that's going down.

20th Century Fox' new cartoon, "Three Little Pigs" in 1933, a very complex, accomplished story. The animation was created by a team of artists working under the supervision of Walt Disney. The film won an Academy Award and became a classic. Disney's technique has been described as "storyboarding," where artists create a series of continuous drawings to illustrate the story's action and timing.

Are you one of those unfortunate who are forced to stick in a dark corner when your name is called? Do you find yourself in the back of the class as everyone elses is called out by name? If you are, take heart. Your private name is as important as any other part of campus personalities, all stages. Even a private name, as the case of the Greek gods, can make the difference between escaping the inevitable limelight of the campus or being subjected to it.

Imagine a day at Lawrence when everyone is called out by name through their middle name. Wandering casually in and out of classes with a friend Jesus (Fitch) or a fellow student (Tina). The summing of your name to the summing of your personality is complete.

Financial Panic Strikes Campus: Result: Economy!

You might be led to think that the fiscal situation at Lawrence is our most pressing problem. Student Council Action Indicates Student-Faculty Interest Merger

Prompt, courteous and interested faculty ad- ncerning the renewal of a merger indicates a healthy climate of student-faculty re- nation on campus. The administration could have been expected to deal with this matter with more promptness. There has been a definite step toward the issue. It did neither; instead the course will be incorporated into the curriculum at the earliest opportunity.

The circulating of the petition is indicative of another healthy trend. Here we had student action in reference to a fei academic need. Both the instigating of the petition and the response to it are manifestations of "growing up" and increased awareness among stu- dents. The majority of those wanting the course does not want it for sensationalism intimated but rather for the factual accounting of ancient and modern times that are unprecedented in the experience of many. In addition, by initiating action, the students proved the power of an undergraduate voice with a coarsen.

The recent Iowa trip undertaken by the Vike wrestlers proved to be a most successful tour. With Bill Davis and Johnny Erickson, the Vikes also salvaged a successful season by playing heads-up ball in the remaining five games. In all probability Dick Miller will see only limited action in the remaining contests due to the condition of his knee, but his presence on the squad will be a definite psychological weapon. You might say that Dick Miller is the key in the program. The most important reason for the latter and the third straight win for the victors. The pounds and looked like a close relation of the "Angel". In a minute, though, the powerful Campbell had him on the mat and was giving the Angel a hard time when he racked up against Cornell on Friday night. Coach Denney is in charge of the program.

Vike Wrestlers

Fred Thaxter and Jim Campbell moisture a bit of glamour last Saturday against MacAlester as the two Vikes pinned their men while the Lawrence squad was dropping a 13-15 decision to the invading wrestlers last Saturday.

Thaxter pinned O'Leary in 5:08 for the 160 pound bracket, while Campbell, a recent addition to the Lawrenceweight bracket, Davenstock on the other two points for Lawrence on a 5-0 decision.

Notice

There was an interesting item in the sports staff of the Lawrence office last Saturday when our boys who wish to write stories on the campus team, were looking for a story. It was the first time for the boys and the third straight win for the Vikes. The boys had almost two pages of stories on the game, which was a very successful one.

A general recreation of the sports department department was in place in order to get more adequate coverage of campus athletic events.

New Magazine Solicits Articles

From Students

"Controversy," a new magazine and non-profit effort for social research, is soliciting material of a controversial nature to be published in their forthcoming issues. While emphasis will be placed upon political and regional fields, any controversial subject is acceptable. Among the most sought after types of articles of this nature which are solicited: Extraordinary, Underrepresented, the perspective which pay for their space at the rate of one-and-a-half cents per word. Writers will retain complete reprint rights.
Vikes Finish Season With Home Battle

With all chances for a conference championship evaporated in the Iowa air, the Lawrence Vikings will go all out to cause as much trouble as possible in the Midwest conference this week when the squad tangles with Ripon and Beloit on Tuesday and Friday nights respectively.

The Vikings will be away from home, but on Friday, February 14, the Vikes get their long awaited chance to get revenge for their 49-43 failing of defeat when the lads-slinging Gold Horde Appetites downed the Vikings in the conference opener. Since only twice beaten Knox has a chance of finishing in second place here tonight.

Wrestling fans in this area are in for a big treat on March 1, when one of the top mat squads of the western conference wrestling meet at Alexander gymnasm.

Cornell, always noted for the quality of its grappling, boasts one of the best teams in its history this year, and a chance at the season record will bear out their claims.

Recently on a tour through the east, Cornell succeeded in humiliating unbeaten Lehigh by a 27-2 setback.

The "toughest" match of the east-center, and Burton and Bahnson at the long end of a 26-7 score against Cornell succeeded in humiliating unbeaten Lehigh by a 27-2 setback.

WAA Sponsors Sports Meet; DGs and Pi Phis Take Honors

BY JANE REIHFELD

Winter sports ended the campus year Saturday afternoon when W.A. promoted an intramural skating and relay meet.

Lively spectator interest dazed the skating tests and relay events. In the first event, figure skating, a series of judges, including Dr. Mrs. Edward A. Waterman; R. B. Fiske, and Helen J. Kenyon, president of the university, were present. After the competition, Miss Waterman announced the winners. The next event was a relay, involving both men and women. The first place went to the University relay team, consisting of Edward A. Waterman; R. B. Fiske, and Helen J. Kenyon, president of the university. Several other teams also participated in the relay event.
