This concert was written in Beethoven’s first period while he was under the definite influence of Mozart and Haydn. In this composition the orchestra and the piano are fused in the presentation and development of material in the symphony, neither placing the extremity predominant role. These two beautiful musical concerts make the marvel of Love, Paul, Holy Graal and others beautifully woven to introduce the character of the operas, Parsifal. This is rated as one of the most sublime and amaze music ever written. It is performed by the Boston Symphony under the direction of Serge Koussevitsky.

This symphony is supposed to show the growth of the orchestra's personality with the revolutionary style of our time. In the first movement the composer introduces a beautiful flowing theme almost lacking in the typical Russian style. This theme develops rapidly with the addition of rhythm and other orchestral features. In the middle of all this nationalistic fervor he忽然 finds without introduction, a silly parody which seems almost revolutionary in itself.

Class Travels To Michigan

Reed's Geology Class Departs on Annual Dells Trip

Early Friday, April 30, the Lawrentians departed for the iron country of upper Michigan. On the way north, they stopped at the Duck Creek mine and investigated a molybdenum mine near Middle Ilet (Wisc.). The group, on its way to Ontonagon, encountered the Cliffs Steel Mine at Ishpeming, one of the largest iron mines of the region. Later the same day they saw the Duck Creek quarry and investigated a molybdenum mine near Ironwood, Michigan. Most of the afternoon was spent paning the richest of its type. Most of the old workings were worked out, and they got little but "lead's gold." They returned to Appleton Sunday afternoon.

Participants in the trip were Mr. Read. Marcia and Bill Sonksen; Mrs. Rollin C. Mullenix, wife of Dr. Rollin C. Mullenix, professor of geology at Lawrence college, who arrived in April 27 in San Diego. She visited in May 1929, in Illinois, and attended Wheaton college. Faculty and student alike are burdened with final exam preparation, but the committee has not yet been announced.

Their pledges before the year ends. It is hoped that Lawrentians will redouble their efforts in order that their fellow students abroad might make a special effort to fulfill the help they need.

Cancel WSSF Benefit Show For This Year

The WSSF committee announced Sunday that it would be unable to put on a final benefit show this year. The committee has been working on a student variety show to make a special effort to fulfill the help they need.

Weakened by Week End!

BY BRED DILY

About this time of the week colored life is returning into Lawrence. At least this is the way it seems. When Dad pulls in the driveway and Mom glances at the hall, the faint sound of voices can be heard,

"All that racket!" she proclaims.

"It's the neighborhood," your father says.

While saying this, she is walking down the hall towards the dining room. The screen door slams shut behind her.

"You know, Dad," your mother says, "I think the neighborhood was quiet before you came.

Dad glances at her, and replies: "I'm not so sure about that."

Before you know it, the front door is flung open, and in comes your Aunt Edna with a basket of chopped vegetables.

Dad's eyes are wide open, and he gasps, "What's all this?"

"Oh, it's nothing," your Aunt Edna says, "just the neighborhood.

"I wonder who they are," Dad says, "I mean, I've never seen them before.

"They're just the neighborhood," your Aunt Edna says.

Dad's face is red, and he utters, "I don't care if they're a neighborhood, I want you to get out of my house.

Mom says, "I think Dad's right, Aunt Edna.

"Well, then," Aunt Edna says, "just let me go, and I'll be out of your hair.

Dad says, "Fine, just go.

Aunt Edna slams the screen door shut, and your father begins to walk towards the fridge."

Vikes Off to Midwest Meet

Thindlad Odds Favor Grinnell And Carleton

Grinnell and Carleton are tied for the lead in the field in track competition Saturday afternoon at Grinnell in the Midwest Conference meet, with ten points each. Lawrence, who was ahead, is not certain of the lead, school, after entering with a marquee of power in the last meet by luring away Brother Adam's star athlete. The Carleton cards, Laurence, defending conference champ, looks like the strongest of the three teams. It appears capable of contesting the final championship with all competing conference champs.

Lineman With Javelin

The Vike team, which had never lost to the Gauzier from second place last year, has been weakened by graduation. Four losers: Bob Drover, Jack Tweed, Charles Cook and Bill Peterson, all departed last season. The latter two positions will be filled by Crash Goon and Bob Collier, respectively.

The Co-operative Effort

We believe there is no conflict between the faculty, the student body, and the administration in regard to convocation. We attempt to cooperate productively and constructively in solving problems. All are educative -and fun. With that in mind we hope to George Morike to represent us in its realization next year.

Dear Joe,

What a terrific picture you sent me. It was almost enough to make me feel like my grandpa says, (you know, like my grandpa says), "Don't sit and whine about it. You've just got to go and get it." Sally has a good philosophy of life. She says, "Just go out and get it." She's not just going to sit around and wait; she's got to go and get it. (by June French)

Sally said it was a good thing to keep on the old "Capital Circuit," a lot of folks come over that way. So I decided to go. I copied it down to send to you. (by June French)

Life is good.

Keep on going, keep on going.

P.S. Don't forget the frisbee. (by June French)
