Philo Beta Kappa will hold initiation on March 19 for the members who were recently elected to the society. The initiation will begin at 6:30 in the Tremont art center. The initiates are: Georgia F. Babson, Mary Smith, Betty Hamilton, Mary Shochter, and Jerrold Winkel. There will be a reception following the banquet.

Members elected to Phi Beta Kappa on November were Harry C. Foley, Lloyd C. Hennessey, and Robert Severn. They were elected on April 13, 1966.

President Nominations

Called April 16

Candidates Give Convos

Speeches, Lawrentian To Feature Platforms

The Student Government Commission announced yesterday evening that nominations for the office of student body president would be called for at the next SGC meeting on April 16. Nominations are made in the form of a petition signed by students.

The candidates will speak at the convention on Saturday, April 16, and their platforms will appear in the Lawrence the following Friday, April 22.

The election will be held May 6 and will consist of a campaign period which will last from the time of nominations until 8:00 a.m. on April 18. There will be no campaigning before May 6, and the campaign must proceed concurrently with the spring convocation.

SEC to Underwrite Film Group for $25 Deficit

After a very heated debate Tuesday evening, the SEC voted in favor of a motion to underwrite the foreign film group. This would mean that the SEC would pay for any deficit incurred in showing the foreign films. Randolph Seibel, head of the foreign film group, thought that there would probably be a $25 deficit at the end of the year.

Final Deadline of 'Contributor' to Be April 20

The Contributor has announced that the official deadline for work to be submitted for the summer edition is April 20. All Lawrence students are invited to submit work for this last opportunity to submit work for the last number of the year.

Submitted work is to be given up assuming the next issue will be published in June. The Contributor will be published in May 15.

In this issue the student will find articles, poems, stories, and reviews of books, music, and films.

New Hampshire U. Initiates Women's New Honor System

Suffern, N.Y. (AP) — A new social honor system for all resident women students on the campus of the University of New Hampshire was inaugurated this fall.

Prepared by the Associated Women Students the new honor system calls for individual responsibility for obeying the social rules outlined in the Rules Book and in the case of a violation assuming the responsibility for reporting herself. Under the honor system, each woman student, if she has violated a rule, is required to report herself to the president of her house. If at the end of twenty-four hours she has not done so, she will be reported by her violation if it has been noted by the house director, house counselor, or any member of the house Council.

If, at the end of another twenty-four hours, she has not assumed the responsibility to report herself, a fact which will be entered when her case is considered, it will be pointed out that if the system does not prove to be successful, there will be an immediate change back to the old system of strict supervision.

Since men students are often as much at fault when a rule is violated, it has also been suggested that the women students assist them in learning the rules as well as they know them.

Troyer Honored For Recent Novel 'Salt and Savor'

Citation Presented by Literary Association At Chicago Program

Dorothy Grossman has been here for a half year as secretary to the business manager. Mrs. Grossman's previous position had been with the government in Washington, D.C.

Another secretary is Miss Jeanne Rozum, a student in every aspect of the work. Jeanne just left her position with the Rome Mutual Insurance Co. to begin work with the College Oct. 20.

The best place to Bob "Latey" W., a student who first attended Lawrence as a W.F.W. and later graduated in 38. "Cold War," is his unique ability to hit his column in the Literary Association and various activities while on the campus as a student. Having taught in Valdosta High school for two years, Bob is another newcomer to the business office and serves as administrative assistant in charge of housing, the business end of our sports program, the various' classes and their courses teaching accounting and secretarial courses at Bellmore.

Here's an Introduction to Office Personnel

As many times as we've thrown our hands into our wallets, we've emptied them and made a bee-line for the second floor of the library, but how often have we noticed the smiling faces of the business office huddled over their desks?

Perhaps, the girl behind the bars, Mrs. Evelyn Brown, is our friend and last concern in the business office, and probably, for that matter, the concern of Lawrence about 1943. For Evelyn has doled out funds for six years now and before that worked as M.K.'s secretary for two years with one year previously at the switch board.

The present switchboard operator, Ginny "Bubbles" Maud, is fast from Appleton High school, where she graduated last June. Being on the switchboard is snap as shown by Ginny's day of 318 in the evening, Friday and Saturday nights the grill will be opened until 12:00. Sunday the hours are from 8:00 to 11:00 and from 4:00 to 7:00.

Faculty to Vote On New Courses

Lowered Enrollment Necessitates Changes

Several new courses proposed by the committee on instruction will be voted on by the faculty upon the recommendation of the committee. The courses are entirely new, with others drawn from integrated courses in the present curriculum. The changes are made to fit next year’s reduction in the faculty which will be announced in a later issue.

Here is a rundown of the courses under consideration:

General Biology 1-2
- Professor: Brown
- Department: Biological Sciences
- Description: This course is as follows: “This begins with the study of botany which will be carried over into the new combined course to be offered in Botanical Zoology and Tassonomy 1-2.”

American Religious Thought
- Professor: Goeser
- Department: Philosophy
- Description: “This course aims to delineate the growth of the characteristically American features of American Christianity and to show the place of religion in the development of American society.”

Slavic World of Pagan Times
- Professor: Chew
- Department: Languages
- Description: “This course is as follows: "A review of the Slavic world of pagan times and the growth of the characteristically Russian religion in the development of Russian history appears to be completely lacking. The course to be proposed will fill this gap by an exposition of Slavic paganism and the rise of Christianity in the Slavic world.""}

For Experience, Responsibility
- Professor: By Dan Tree
- Department: Geography
- Description: “What are you going to do this Summer? Most people on campus haven’t made up their mind about their specific job yet; but all students should have decided what the purpose of their vacation will be. Some will seek money, others will seek experience; some will go to work, and a few will just fool on the Old Man. For those who aren’t planned for next year’s action and want to test out their classroom ideas away from home, there are several summer projects which deserve your attention.”

New Courses
- Combined course
  - Instructor: Blank
  - Description: “Combined course will be offered in the following branches: Botany: General Botany, Zoology not covered in the new course and in the proposed Invertebrate Zoology course. History: Modern History, Slavic World of Pagan Times. Mathematics: Integrated branch of physics, chosen to meet the interests and needs of the student. The American Friends Service Committee and the YWCA are giving supplementary employment to leadership training for college students.”

Summer Jobs Give Opportunity
- Professor: St. John
- Department: Economics
- Description: “Summer jobs give opportunity for experience, responsibility, and advancement of the student.”

Poplin Jacket
- Price: $4.50
- Features: For work, play, for Spring, for Summer, for work, play, etc. for this water repellent, Stain treated cotton jacket . . . wind and dust resistant, fast color . . . completely washable. Pull out for comfort with zipper front, slash pockets. In tan, gray, navy, small, medium, and large sizes.

Tennis Racket Re-Stringing Service!
- Cost: $2.10
- Description: This service is as follows: "In tan, gray, navy; small, medium, and large sizes. For a A Short Snack
- Price: $0.35
- Description: "For a Short Snack, stop at the restaurant with the Checkerboard front! That's Murphy's Lunch 219 E. College Ave."

Spring is here. Now joyous are the days of fog, rain, mud, and swimming in classes. It is rumored that the river bank will soon be haunted by the return of the fish. The last time the fish were seen was when some of the Phi Alpha Tau members were fishing. Because there wasn't any sound track, Marion took over and suggested that we gave some of the history—Wednesday we had a tea for our Province President. The annual election for the Song Fest is drawing near, and we hope that the Phi Alpha Tau can be heard practicing in the gym.

Freshmen Challenge Varsity
To Inter-Squad Play, April 21

It will be freshmen against the varsity for the first time in the annual spring inter-squad football game next April 21. For the first time in Lawrence football history, Bernie Henderson, who has brought Lawrence free championship for fourteen years, will have some experienced material to work with in this game.

After two weeks of practice, it will be possible to make selection of next year's squad. This week the results of the open try-out of the squad will be discussed, while the definite lineup will be announced next week.

A change has been left at left halfback with the loss of McCabe and Rossi. It appears that the personnel has been fixed on the idea that Frank Stengengberg, Carl Ed Green and John Landers have all shown flashes of brilliance at halfback. The breakdown reason that Lawrence has not lacked could come from one of these men. Any one of them is capable of going all the way anything that they carry the ball, and from Stengengberg can pass with ball with uncanny accuracy.

If anyone from the left halfback position is key to any single wing attack. A shrewd move that can make the powerful single using the most effectiveness of all formations and can make the "I" play deep look good by comparison. Lawrence has kept the classic blocking backfield formation, which shows the Blue and White backfield as well as any backfield in the Midwest Conference.

The Press Box

The boys working out in shoulder pads and helmets at Whiting Field these days are the Lawrence college football squad of next fall. And if tradition and the past are any indication of the future that day will be here November rolls around.

One thing that clearly developed at Lawrence over the past year has been football tradition. Year in and year out the football program has been top order equipment for the team to boot for the conference crown. From top through bottom, from the line to the star position, quality men have played at Lawrence.

This year Coach Beirne has captured his third straight conference title and has more from Evanston Illinois. Last year Ron Myers, letter winner in '49 and number four last year, is the only team prospect who has had extensive varsity experience.

The three others who, with Van Holstein, will form the nucleus of the team are all sophomores who have experienced only freshman competition. Ron Myers is slated as the star for the number one varsity single wing. The March intake of the six men who were on the basketball team this winter will be well taken care of in the next two years.

Ron doesn't seem to be very supersensitive for he is not a basketball player at all. Instead he feels that he is his lucky number. It was the only number he wore while in high school.

Inexperienced, as Van convicted of producing the same potent attack that the Blue and White track and field squad carried the team to the state track and field meet of course is the big one on this year's schedule, and will be held at the Wisconsin State A.A.U. meet.

Tennis Team unexperienced, says Vet Hill

Look of experience will probably prove the weak point of Coach Vet Hill's '51 tennis team. Only one topflight player remains from last year's strong team. Tom Van Haaleb, letter winners in '48 and number four last year, is the only team prospect who has had extensive varsity experience.

Myers is Outstanding Prospect
For 1951 Viking Tennis Team

by John deJ.

Now that spring is finally here, the familiar sound of tennis has once more filled the air. And with it comes the usual discussion of who is the best player in the conference....

The Vikings as usual have five of the basketball team veterans back from a game from his past guard. For Ron, Jim Lemke and Payton Burks could be the key players of the team. The Vikings also will count on the double team of Ron Myers and Carl Ed Green to help the cause.

The line is veteran and powerful. The Vikings have veteran partners in Don "Tiger" Blandino, Len "Mouse" Webers, Bob Marreven and Myron "Butch" Bigford. who has been football tradition over the years.

Delts Take Second, Sig Eps Third Place

The Delts took first place honors in bowling by sweeping the Big Four. The Phils tied the Sig Eps for second place.

Harry Kuester, partol leader, will have the responsibility of helping the band take the field to pick up some more depth in the fall due to the relaxing of the freshman eligibility rule. A happy Berrie Hamilton emphasized that spring practice has already been a tremendous success and that the team retained by Lawrence cannot be underestimated.

evaluation-a necessity

It is often desirable to know just where one stands. Not only does this hold true for students, but also for teachers. Students are frequently approached by their instructor and asked questions concerning their progress so far. If the material is presented in this way, the student will know the exact place he is in his course and improvements, if any, might be made.

Columbia's new admissions policy is one of the 9 Midwest conference colleges, all but 3—Beloit, Col., and Lawrence—have some form of selective enrollment. This evaluation program is something a personal board which the handling the hiring and firing of faculty is to know, for some reason or other. Teachers are required to do a certain amount of teaching and supervising, but this does not mean that he must do it alone. Lawrence, like other colleges, has a director of admissions who is responsible for the student's success. From another angle, since Lawrence has no admission committee, the director is responsible to the faculty for his work.

Lawrence's newest downer, the memorial union, has now been in operation for two weeks, and from all appearances it has been one of the most efficiently managed operations to date. It is the work of a body of students who have been selected by a committee of the faculty, and it is well managed.

One day a boy was walking in the park, a path not too crowded, and the wizard of the kindergarten in the kingdom of Nod. He did all sorts of things, like making the trees bloom at night and the nightingales sing. The wizard made the trees bloom at night and the nightingales sing, but Lawrence the student, who was a lawyer, said to the wizard, "I will not proceed, having clarified my main point, to an amazing little digression of thought. Some famous philosopher said that the solutions to the world's problems lay whole in its parts (this is an interesting thought, don't you think?) but if you look at the world's problems, you'll see that they don't lie whole in it. So I don't believe this myself, but I'll call my theory the "cob theory.""

Great Opportunity For Poor Old Men

Though they are not always ready to admit it, Mordean college, that has no classes in the spring, is a poor old man. Many of the modern industries. You get into the hotel rooms that the fortunate one that the day that the lad was not happy. This disturbed the wizard, and then he began to think. He thought through such things as dust and disaster, through dust and disaster, through dust and disaster.
