Schroeder and Byler will speak on "Woodwind Problems — Emphasis on Double Reeds," and "String problems.

Other speakers on the program included Dr. Clarence Manion, former dean of the University of Notre Dame college of law, who is the author of the current best seller, "The Key to Peace;" Dr. Murray Banks, professor of psychology at Long Island university, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Professor Russell T. Gregg, department of education, University of Wisconsin.

Ming, Duncan Will Give Music Program

Twentieth Century Music to be Played

BY CAROL CONNIX

A program of twentieth century music for two pianos will be presented by Janus Ming and Clyde Duncan, duo-pianists, at 8:30 in the evening, April 9. The program will be held at the Conservatory.

Works written by Mr. Ming and Mr. Ming expressly for the concert will be played. The program of unfamiliar music is intended to give the campus a cross-section of contemporary piano music.

Mr. Ming's sonata for two pianos was composed while he was on leave last year. It is sought several objectives: first, a work primarily lyrical in character; second, as much clarity in texture as possible; and third, work of symmetrical proportions which would appeal not only to the layman but the professional musician as well.

The first movement of Ming's work is song-like throughout. The second is a felicitous scherzo, the last is a vigorous dance movement in 3/4 time.

Mr. Duncan's Toccata Ostinata was written to provide a brilliant and effective closing number to the concert. Its effectiveness is due to the inexorable and interesting momentum throughout, rich and varied harmonic vocabulary, and the masterful use of all registers of the pianos.

Music Students Honored at Tea

Pi Kappa Lambda Honors 14 Students

Pi Kappa Lambda, honorary music fraternity, gave a tea last Friday afternoon in recognition of the honor students of the first semester. The event was held in the library of Peabody hall.

Honor students in music are: Seniors — Don Vollstedt, June McFarland, Alice Lalk, Donna McDonnell, Ephphor — Beverly Buxton, Donna Zintelke, Jean Balfe; and Freshman — Nancy Owen.

In addition to the honor students, all conservatory freshmen were invited, and during the course of the tea LaVahn Maesch, president of Pi Kappa Lambda, spoke briefly about the professional aims of the organization.

The tea was planned by Miss Elva Williams, vice-president of the chapter. Mrs. Harold Holle, editor of the Lawrentian, was chairman of the Lawrentian."
Phi Taus, Sig Eps, Phi Delts to Hold Parties April 11

The basements of Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Delta Theta and Phi Kappa Tau will be turned into "temples of joy," and the lower rooms of the fraternity houses will be transformed into "squares of France," respectively, when the three social fraternities hold their annual spring costume parties on Saturday evening, April 11. The party at the Phi Delta Theta house will be held from 9-12 while the other two groups continue until 12:30.

Chuck Morgan, social chairman of the Delta Psi Theta, will be in charge of arrangements for the Sigma Phi Epsilon "Reno-Saloon." A general "saloon" theme will be carried out, but definite plans have not been disclosed.

Chuck Morgan, Dick Norman, Ken Anding, and the Delta Psi Theta social committee are planning a "Reno-Saloon" theme for the Delta Psi Theta party. The entertainment will be staged as part of the movie in charge of their annual "Bac-Bury." A "Heaven and Hell" theme has been selected, with the upper rooms of the fraternity house going along very well, according to the formal reports from the basement. The chairman says that Matheson has been selected as 50 each. In the house will be Peter and Abe Olgalant as the jive vole, with those being pinned receiving two. Ward and Tom are the ticket chairmen.

The house will be converted to Delta Pi will entertain their alumnae at 9:30 and will hold a turn-about record party in the Terrace room of the Union. The only preoccupation for admittance to the party is that you must bring a record, and (2) you must be in costume.

The decoration theme will be that of a regular dancing situation, with a movie and a drug store. The entertainment will be in charge of the Delta Pi "Apostle Brawl." The theme there will be the usual column. This should make the Greek news as new, more readily accessible without cutting out the "creative" writers' offerings, by presenting them in separate places on the Greek pages. In the future a Greek column writer will simply hand in his column as before, but with any item that would be of general interest, such as a coming party or written up separately as news items. We think it will create a vastly improved Greek Masterson was initiated into Phi Pi on Saturday, March 21, Meredith Hooks was in charge.

All blonde deltas of Delta Gamma sorority, who participated in the folk dance festival last Friday night, became brunettes to participate in the Hounds-Halti dance which won first place. From left to right are Robin McGraw, Delphine Jonnis, Jan Wullner and Donna Emley. The Missis Jonnis and Wullner directed the dance. The dancers were costumed in bright tropical shirts and shorts.

It seems like the column last week was a little tricky for some people to figure out, so maybe we should clarify matters a bit. We really shouldn't say anything you can't think now, but now that the school has officially given up the TV set as hopeless, it is working again. Must be gremlins--or maybe it really wasn't so hopeless after all.

Even though it may be short, we hope you will find vacation sweet. If you don't want another booted holiday next spring it's not too early to start doing something about it.

Latest to succumb to Captives' critics were Phi Delta Zeta Bolds, who pinned Phi Pi Lois Thomas, and Phi Tau George McNeil, who pinned Marcella Peterson.

Shirley Gebhard Reigns Over Second Annual Military Ball

Miss Shirley Gebhard was crowned group sponsor of the Lawrence college air force reserve officer's training corps at the second annual military ball in Alexander Gymnasium last Saturday evening.

The council of the Arnold Air Society was presented to the Lawrence College Cadet Troop Hill by General John Stewart Mills, Lawrence alumnus for whom the local chapter has been named. The Arnold Air Society is an honor group of cadets.

The gymnasium was decorated in blue and white, and a false ceiling was constructed above the dining room I see many who go to church but do not say grace before meals. They like to help others, I respect that. But I wish they had stronger faith. I expect that many Americans go to church, but so many more do not.

Last fall, Lawrence pledged $3,728.00 in response to the Lawrence United Charities drive. This unencumbered generosity was a fine indication that Lawrence students are aware of student conditions in other less fortunate schools. To date 91% of the pledges have been fulfilled.

However, 100 students have yet to complete their pledges, thus meaning they have not fulfilled all their obligations. Only if every student fulfills his pledge can LUC meet its commitment.

Will you give one more excuse when your LU check comes to you?
