Seniors will fill out placement credentials and Joe Hoppefanger, placement director, will explain the system of interviews.

STAFF SERGEANT Donald Dicks has been newly assigned to the staff of the Lawrence AF ROTC unit. He will replace Staff Sergeant Gerald Moritzen, standing, who will be discharged Nov. 11.

Sgt. Dicks Joins AF ROTC Staff

The department of the Air Force has announced the assignment of Staff Sergeant Donald Dicks to the Lawrence AF ROTC unit. Sergeant Dicks replaces Staff Sergeant Gerald Moritzen, who has been in the Lawrence detachment for the past two years. Robert Sergeant Moritzen will be discharged around November 11th and will then return to his home near Mitchell Air Force base in New York. After a short vacation, he will re-enlist at Mitchell Air Force base and be assigned to Headquarters Air Force, where he was stationed just previous to his arrival at Lawrence. Sergeant and the father of three small boys, Sergeant Dicks has previously been stationed at bases in New Hebrides to Georgia, his last station. Married and the father of two girls, he is a supply specialist, but will be working in personal records duties while here.

In two years in the Air Force since 1940 and spent December 1941 at Hickam Field in Hawaii during the raid on Pearl Harbor. Trapps Display Pure Simplicity, Strength

BY RAYMOND MEYER

Obvious as their colorful drie-don is, the Austrian Trapp family singers have achieved a highiereinment of art as being one of both personality and delivery, and that about as impressively as the high period of skill and grace will which they showed as a family

Hearing them in Chicago in 1948 was sufficiently charming and persuasive, and one wondered if in a few years the trend of growing popular in America would not lessen their artistic worth. Pleasantly, this is not the case. The art of the Trapps has always been deep; that is to say, the musical heritage from which they drew being barely incomprehensive to general American concert audiences. Singing melodically, mete, chants, lyricism, and folk tones, and in-deep, performing on those strange things called recorders before an dience tightly conditioned to nineteenth century standards,
lyricism was not a fact and fancy free undertaking. It took more than a little spark, however economic necessity may have forced them out on a limb after

Two Meets Set For Debaters

With the return of eight varsity debaters this year, the Lawrence debate team is looking forward to another exceptional season.

The 12 member team will debut at two intercollegiate meets during the academic year. The intercollegiate meet at the Midwest conference will be held at Cornell during the middle of February. This will be a 2-day meet and eight members of the Lawrence debate team will participate.

The Kappa Alpha, national debate fraternity, will hold its annual meet on the University of Wisconsin campus during the middle of March of 1955. Competition at this meet will be on a national-wide scale and will include the Big Ten as well as other schools from the country.

The question to be decided this year is: That the United States government should extend diplomatic recognition to Red China.

Debate team members include: Judy Walworth, Margie Funke, Jerry Seiger.

The dance has been scheduled for Debaters' Night in November. This will be practice pre-season, non-decision for the big meets.

Strange audience and gives them the opportunity to iron out flaws in their speeches. Each year the debate team gives their door painted a Beta fraternity color, sky blue. Last year the Phi Delts held a serenade to their door.

William Jay Foley, faculty advisor and instructor of the debate team, announced that there will be a practice pre-season, non-decision meet with Ripon college sometime in November. This will be more of a clinic than a chance to decide, and will give the students an opportunity to polish their arguments for the big meets. Each year the debate team gives a debate to one of the service clubs of Appleton at one of the weekly functions. This gives the debaters the opportunity to speak before a group audience and gives them opportunity to iron out flaws in their speeches.

SEC appropriated $300 this year for the debate team and this money will be budgeted through the entire year. This year, the money will be used to support the intercollegiate meets.

Pepto-Bismal Pink of Union Portals Inspires Quad Doors

BY O. B. PARISH

In keeping with the latest tradition in architecture and design, the students and faculty have recently centered their attention on the decoration of the various doors on campus. It all seems to have started last spring when Dr. Knight had his front door painted red. From there it moved to the union building where the front doors are now pepto-bismal pink. It was only a matter of weeks until the idea moved across the street to the fraternity quadrangle.

The administration seeing the great need and desire for a change in the decoration of the doors, liberally granted the fraternities permission to have the opening on the gaud painted a color of their own choice. The reaction to this announcement was spontaneous. We now have an array of sky blue, black, red, light purple, and steel gray (to be changed at a later date to light bluish doors) to choose from.

The Phi Deltis at first were very conservative in having their door painted steel grey; however, after witnessing the progressive ideas of the other groups, they too decided to follow suit. Their door will be painted light blue, a Phi Delt fraternity color. Moving around the quad, we find the door of the Phi Tau house to be painted a cozy black. It has been said that this is to symbolize the mourning over the liberalism shown by the administration concerning the current activity.

The aesthetic members of the Delt fraternity pulled colors out of a hat, and came up with deep purple, which by coincidence happens to be a Delta fraternity color. The college painters at best were only able to come up with a light lavender purple. To ease the Delta feelings they have promised that next spring they will make another effort to try to paint the front door a deep purple. The Beta, though not so radical in their choice of color, felt that they should keep up with this new decorative trend to some degree, and voted to have their door painted a Beta fraternity color, sky blue.

The national Sig Ep fraternity, who seems to be an authority in this field, has for years proclaimed the only ruby for fraternity doors is red. For the last several years the Lawrence

To Vote for LWA Social Chairman

Next week LWA will elect a new co-social chairman to replace senior Connie Clark for the spring and fall term, according to Norma Crawford who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Pat Hansen who transferred.

The co-social chairmanship is one of the most important jobs on campus as far as the students and faculty are concerned. It is the executive secretary of the WEA, and has already served the organization as treasurer.

Voting over one of the sectional meetings is Dean of women George Walter, who will select a student on a guidance panel international relations was Amphitrite Superintendent of schools J. P. Mann. He spoke on "Teaching Foreign Languages in the Elementary Grades" yesterday.

LADIES' CHOICE DANCE

Women have begun the search for dates for the All-College dance, Nov. 28, according to Co-Social Chairmen Barbara Randall and Paul Kline. The dance has been scheduled as a "ladies' choice" event and the theme will be Eastern. Bow ties, shoes, and forfed grey flannels will be in order. The dance will be held at the union.

Filling in the whole wide world—no cigarette can satisfy you like CHESTERFIELD

I Like CHESTERFIELD best!

says Job Hunter

Appearing in "Track of the Cat," a Warner Bros. Production in Cinemascope and Color

BEST FOR YOU... no cigarette can satisfy you like a Chesterfield, because Chesterfield has the right combination of the world's best tobaccos. Only the tobaccos that are highest in quality, low in nicotine, and the most pleasure to smoke. Change to Chesterfields now. Smoke them regular or king size. You'll understand why Chesterfield is the largest selling cigarette in America's Colleges.

Hagen Places Second
$1,000 for 5000 Tote

With a balanced team, the defending champion Carleton cross country team defeated the Lawrence harriers in a hard fought dual meet 29-31, last Saturday, on the site of the WIAA state meet course.

Hagen, who ran the 5K meters in the good time of 16:16, placed second behind the Carleton Midwest conference champ, Bob Jefferson, who placed in 15:38 following Hagen were Jim Smith, Phil Wein, and Dave Dickenson.

Vikes Drop to Third Place
After Loss to Carleton

Last Saturday Carleton virtually cinched the Midwest conference title by edging the Lawrence Vikings 35-29, at Northfield.

The win was Carleton's seventh straight and dropped the Vikes to second place. St. Olaf moved into second place with a 3-14 conference mark. Carleton's fourth place, sealing their entry to the Conference, culminated with an 8 point Grimoldi 21-13 in the dual with Gustavus.

Next weekend Koss and Grimoldi will face the Dakotas, whose names win over when they mean to be the closest of the year.

Soph Women Victors
In Swimming Meet

The initial intercollegiate swim meet sponsored by the Carleton Athletic Association was held Thursday, Oct. 28. The swimmers varying from six to ten places out of a possible seven. The meet was held, with the exception of the swimmers and their coaches, in the Carleton gymnasium.

The diving event was won by Pat Rice, Carleton, with a score of 57. The diving boards were only part of the venue, as the girls had swimming and diving in the same pool.

The swimming meet was won by Carleton, who scored 80 points to Gustavus' 44. Carleton's top swimmers were: Carole Norton, Lenore West, Joan Kopp, Sue Kjeldsen, and Mary Bowen.

Overby, Preston Furnish King-Sized Strength, Ability

Pinning shoulder to shoulder back into the end zone, where their names are stitched in the pebbles, are John Overby and Stan Preston. As seniors they are the Lawrencians and the Vikings - both in the strength - both in the size and the size at 210. He, too, started his athletic career at Lawrence, but his interest in Lawrence football was not reflected in his studies. Now, a senior, he and the Lawrence offensive line have grown strength, both on and off the field, and his coaching is now the cornerstone of their defense.

Big Stan Preston, 6-5 and 205 pounds will be holding the center position for Lawrence's Vikings against Caroll for his final game at Whiting Field.

Carleton Gridders are Victorious
In Homeward Tilt; Score, 14-7

Staving off a fourth quarter rally by Carleton college edge the Lawrence Vikings at Northfield, Minnesota last Saturday 14-7, to assure their first Midwest conference title since 1954. The 1-0 a season earlier the Vikings took to the field again today with a 5-0 victory over Carleton.

Carleton scored late in the second period and tied the opening kickoff of the second half. The Vikings scored early in the first half and a pass interception by Joe Cianciola in the end zone.

The summary
Carleton: 7, 0, 7—14
Lawrence: 0, 0, 7—7

Touchdowns — Carleton: Grein, Preston; Lawrence: Kiefert, Cianciola.

Field Goals — Carleton: none; Lawrence: none.

Passes attempted — Carleton: Grein, 15; Kiefert, 4; Lawrence: Grein, 15; Cianciola, 4.

Completed — Carleton: Grein 7, Kiefert 1; Lawrence: Grein 4, Cianciola 2.

Yards rushing — Carleton: Grein, 43; Preston, 30; Lawrence: Kiefert, 57; Grein, 12.

Passing — Carleton: Grein, 211 yards, 107 yards against Carleton; Kiefert, 76 yards, 60 yards against Lawrence.

Big Stanley Preston, 6-5 and 205 pounds will be holding the center position for Lawrence's Vikings against Caroll for his final game at Whiting Field.

As I gazed out the window of this cell known as the Lawrence office I noticed a note taped to a wall drawer in the back.

The Carleton defense was waiting for Sal. On every play he managed to snag a few passes. This week a solid gold football team to tackle Jim Overly, a regular bear on defense all afternoon, spending considerably more time in the Carleton backfield. This Saturday is the last chance for many members of the student body to see this 1954 Viking football team in action as a group. They play their last home contest against Cornell. I would seriously recommend you not to miss out on this great Viking squad.

Put on your snowshoes, grab your blanket and canned goods, or whatever other method you use to keep warm, and join the merry crew at the old ball game. Also, don't forget the Lawrence barriers will run over hills and date Saturday morning. Cross-country is a spectator sport which has fine opportunities. While you're waiting for the next runner to stagger by, there is always time to whack a little bit of brick. You'll enjoy the beauty of nature and the advantages of a class cut. Don't manage to wander out to the golf course there ain't no more 'till next year. In case you should happen to see Sal, be sure you stop and say hello.

What makes a Lucky taste better?

to taste better!

What cigarette do college students go for? According to the latest, biggest coast-to-coast survey, students prefer Luckies to all other brands. And once again, the No. 1 reason is taste better. Of course Luckies taste better. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is roasted to taste better. “It’s Roasted”—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies’ light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. Try a pack. Maybe you’ll be as fortunate as the student in the Droodle to the right, titled: Lucky smoker . . . faulty cigarette vending machine. Even if you aren’t, you’ll enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER
Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother
BARF BY HARRY CLARK

To people who have never lived in a dormitory, people who are used to quiet homes, single bedrooms and all manner of things they had never been accustomed to before—there was a vast difference. The roommates next door were a constant source of noise and disturbance. What was worse, it was all in the middle of about three dozen walking, talking, laughing, smiling, slumbering...and not without good reason. Most had been here for only a month, but by the time the semester ended, many of them had become good friends. It was a great way to meet people, and to have a lot of fun—which was exactly what they did.

The Lawrentian Board of Control is an organization that oversees the dormitories, and is responsible for maintaining them in a safe and comfortable manner. They are constantly on the lookout for any signs of disrepair, and work hard to ensure that all students have a pleasant experience while living there. This year, they were particularly focused on the problem of noise in the dormitories, and took steps to address it.

The students were aware of their responsibilities, but it was often too much to bear. The dormitories were not designed to house so many people, and the lack of privacy and personal space was a constant source of frustration. But despite all of this, they continued to thrive, and to enjoy each other's company. After all, they were all in this together—sharing the same experiences, the same challenges, and the same joys. It was a time of great change, and a time of growth. And for all of that, they were grateful.
