Sunday at 1:30 in the Union Lounge by O. L. P., Mr. Brooks, and Mr. Caryl will read their favorite poems and discuss reasons for their choices at "Poetry and Why", a fraternality forum.

Don't forget the three one-act plays the Union next Thursday at 7:30. Robert Fretts's "Masque of Mercy" will be presented.

Tonight at eight in the Terrace Room of the Union, a cappella party will take place. Cards are provided; play any game you choose, and refreshments will be served.

IMPORTANT

A meeting for sophomore and junior women interested in freshman planning will be held Tuesday, March 19, at 4:30 in the recreation room of Hamlin Hall.

The objective of this meeting is to point out what is involved in being a freshman counselor. There will be an informal panel covering the different phases of counseling. Miss Morton, Miss Curtis, Mrs. Brooks, and some counselors will participate in the discussion.

Applications for counseling will be handed out at the meeting and must be returned to the Dean's Office by Saturday, March 23. Anyone who is unable to attend the meeting should contact Miss Morton about application blanks.

Ski Club will close the 1957 season with a trip to the Iron River, Mich. The bus fare for this trip will be paid by the club and the students will open to the first 20 members who sign up in the All-Union Office. Bus leaves at 6 a.m. this Sunday.

The pledge class of Sigma Alpha Iota will sponsor a Bake Sale tomorrow from 9 a.m. to noon in the front hall of the Conservatory.

ALL INDEPENDENT WOMEN

Whether you are members of the organized group or not, you are invited to the meeting at 7:30 Monday evening in the Terrace Room. This is important to all of us, and we want to remind you that the only way your vote can be submitted to SEC is through this meeting; please attend.

WLFM programming services its listeners. Beginning now, the station will give direct to those requesting it their "Free Program Guide," called the "CUE SHEET." It will give a complete listing of the programs of the month, including details of FM concerts, broadcasts, etc. For fifty cents, the listing is also available.

Fine Tenor Maintains Excellent Attendance

BY JULIET GOOD

Those who attended the Richard Dyer-Bennet concert last Thursday evening were exposed to a performance of the greatest artists, in his particular field, to appear on the Lawrence campus this year.

Mr. Dyer-Bennet began his program by explaining that he is a singer of folk songs, and not a folk singer. The classification he prefers, that of tenor and guitarist, is the manner in which he was listed on the program.

As a tenor, Mr. Dyer-Bennet proved that he possesses a very fine voice. His only loss of control was on high notes, at the beginning of the concert, especially his most outstanding quality as a singer was his perfect diction. Everyone, no matter how softly it was sung, was heard in the last row of the balcony. This was especially noticeable in his German songs.

During the program, he qualified himself for his second classification, that of guitarist, by playing three outstanding solo selections. Also, as his only accompaniment, the guitar, in his expert hands, created many effects, such as that of bug pipes, a funeral roll, and a life and drum.

As an artist, Mr. Dyer-Bennet captivated his audience for two hours with songs from the sixteenth to the twentieth century. It was amazing and encouraging to see so many people stay for the entire program. This alone emphasizes the fact that Mr. Dyer-Bennet is a great artist.

Lawrence Vet Unit Offers Own Views On Baby Doll Ban

The Appleton Post-Crescent last Saturday published a letter from the Lawrence Veterinary Organization, signed by Grace L. Gerard, Chairman, Special Committee on Censorship. In part, the letter read as follows:

...We believe that this banning is an infringement on the individual's right to morally judge by choice, and a questioning of his capability to do so. ... One goal of every individual should constantly be to develop a better understanding of his fellow man, that he might be better informed to help him in his hour of need, should such an hour occur. ...

Until we now thought that the general public was bearing much about human relations through our country's many communicative facilities, such as the moive industry. But the banning of this film certainlly brings serious doubt to any such belief.

On Sunday, between 7:00 and 4:30, an open house will be given at Falcon Hall for all the Fox River Valley alumni in the area. A tour of the new buildings will also be conducted for all those who have not had the chance to see them yet.

The Hicks Prize in Fiction, for the best short story. The Hicks Prize in Poetry, for the best poem. The Alexander Reid Prize, for the best informal essay or sketch.

The Tichenor Prize, for the best critical and interpretive essay written by any student enrolled in courses in English Literature.

The Hicks and Reid Prizes, it will be noted, are open to all students of the college; the Tichenor Prize is restricted to students taking one or more courses in English, whether or not they are majoring in the department.

Students are encouraged to consult members of the department concerning material which they may wish to submit. The poems, stories, sketches, and essays may be of any length. There is no limit to the number of entries which any one contestant may submit.

All manuscripts to be considered by the judges must be in the hands of the chairman of the English department, Mr. Thompson (Main Hall 27A), not later than April 8th. The names of the winners will be announced on the first page of each manuscript.

The Hicks Prize in Poetry will be awarded to the student composition which is published each year in the Spring issue of The Contributor. The Hicks and Reid Prizes are awarded to first and second place authors of exceptional merit. Military Court Backs AFROTC High Rating

Mary Shaw was announced as the queen of the 1957 AFROTC Military Ball last Saturday evening in the Alexander Gymnasium. Mary's court consisted of Valinda Anderson, Jeanine Regalite, Dorothy Lawrence, Cindy Perry, Jeanine Regalite, Brenda Shanahan, and Mary Ann Sullivan.

"Lawrence College AFROTC graduates are far above the average." This is the conclusion of recent statistics released by AFROTC Headquarters. Out of the 17 Lawrence graduates who were graduates of 1955, 14 finished flying school. This made the average 82.4 percent who completed flying training. The total average for all AFROTC graduates of that year throughout the nation was 68 percent. This makes Lawrence AFROTC cadets some of the most outstanding in the country.

Members of this group who completed flying training are: William Axelson, George Beltson, Fred Brendlmaier, Thomas Burbank, Donald Carlson, Lee Boyer Cleckley, Joseph DIamonde, David Harwood, Charles Morris, James Owen, Marshall Pepper, Richard Pratt, Charles Schepis, and James Stump.

Last Saturday night the Lawrence College AFROTC presented their annual military ball. The evening was highlighted by the grand march and the presentation of the Honor G R O U P Commander, and her court of Honorary Squadron Commanders.

The grand march was led by Cadet Col. John Borges and Cadet Maj. John Lewis. The honorary group commander was Miss Mary Shaw.

The court consisted of Miss Shirley Johnson, Miss Mary Shaw, Miss Mary Ann Sullivan, and Deborah Shanahan.

UTILITARIAN — one whose thoughts wander.
LUSTY — given to pleasure.
PESADAY — strong rule.
EXTRAVAGANCE — with wrinkles.
CREDENCE — rhythm.
BEATIFIC — pretty, having beauty.
DISPARAGEMENT — one who spreads some unkind words.
FOIBLES — tales; stories.

Knight Lauds Spirit, Predicts Bright Future

Dr. Douglas M. Knight presented a resume of progress on the campus and an outline of future plans in Convocation Thursday.

Dr. Knight reviewed the progress the Lawrence Development Fund has proposed and announced that work will begin on the summer of the sixth year. He also stated that the college hoped to begin the new academic year at the end of the summer. This however, was still tentative as final plans have not been completed and bids are not yet open.

Student government was another of Knight's points. He felt that the increase in the student control was very evident even over the past few years. Knight indicated that the college would be faced with growing problems in the next ten to fifteen years. The greater numbers of students means the idea of college spirit will have to meet with competition in quality but the college must still serve the community as fully as possible. If our enrollment does not increase we will be faced with the problem of coming in contact with a smaller percentage of the population yearly.

The scholarship fund should continue to grow was another of Knight's wishes. He felt that it is the duty of Lawrence to offer the opportunity of an education to intelligent students who otherwise would have no chance to further their studies.

The increasing enrollment and consequent rearrangement will also mean the necessity of finding and maintaining a first rate faculty at all times.

Knight's final point was the idea of college spirit. He said that Lawrence was supposed to provide. He felt that the idea of college spirit differed from the superficial competitive spirit found in high school. Knight said that a college's spirit must grow out of its many different values and purposes. That the interests of a liberal arts school must be broader than in other institutions.

Deferred Rush
To be Discussed
Tomorrow P.M.

In view of the fact that deferred rush has come up in the past, and that there is a possibility of it becoming a reality on our campus, this year's Pen Heil Workshop will be held around discussions of that issue. The Workshop will be held tomorrow, in the Colman hall recreation room at 1:30.

Miss Curtis will make the introductory speech, which will be followed by a panel discussion bringing out the pros and cons of deferred rush. This panel is composed of one girl from each sorority: Sheila Schwandt, Judy Larsen, Ann Dempsey, Carolyn Fisher, and Cindy Veis.

Each will present their views on this issue and also present available information which has been gathered from schools that have deferred rush at previous times. Any questions that have arisen should be answered by the end of the discussion.

After this, there will be an individual meeting of the sorority presidents, pledges, trainers, treasurers, and social chairmen. All girls are urged to come, as deferred rush has been a problem at other schools and may become one on our Lawrence campus in the near future.

WHERE IS THE WINTER ISSUE OF THE CONTRIBUTOR?

Coffee Call
BY JOE SHIPEK
"The answer to that question, I countered, "is basic to the point that it has managed to elude followers for quite some time now. It's simply that the reputation stems from previous years or from current critics who have no basis of comparison. Moreover, a group is not good merely by virtue of the fact that it sits around continually telling itself just how good it really is.
There has never yet been found any substitute for plain old hard work, and this information seems to be missing from the minds of a goodly number of Choir members."

"Some say", I continued,
"that the Choir cannot be expected to display the same polished quality of the Band and Orchestra, since it contains many non-music students. This I say, is not a valid argument, for I am referring here to an ACTUAL potential, not a REL-ATIVE potential."

"As I see it", T concluded,
"the group is composed of several small groups plus numerous individuals; each vying for power with the conductor—he Mr. Maesch or guest. I say it's time this self-centered egotism was eliminated, and a goodly dose of year-long cooperation substituted in its place."

Well then", he said, "if you hold the organization in such high disfavor, why, praytell, are you a member of it?"

"Fm not", I countered; "I quit last week."

Melting Pot

To the Editor:

With this letter, we feel that we are expressing the opinion of the majority of the freshmen girls. It concerns the subject of "campusing."

We realize that the rules laid down for us during the first semester, such as not leaving until 11:30 and "in our rooms" are quite arbitrary, making campus simply a drab routine which is for our benefit, at least study-wise. However, after four months, these good habits have become formulated. We feel that we are able to decide, long how we may have our lights on, a rule that has been changed since second semester began, and at what hour we may leave our rooms, a rule which has not been altered. An International Affairs Column by Paul Schreiber

Last month President Eisenhower made the statement that it might be necessary to increase government controls over business and labor, for their good as well as that of the nation, but that it did not "discharge their responsibilities and exercise their authority in conformity with the needs of the United States."

No statement is more representative of the general public's view of the federal government than Eisenhower's statement. The federal government has maintained during the past twenty-five years. Wherever there has been felt that private business has not done an adequate job, the government has stepped in. Government regulation and control have become by-products of our society. Certainly we should not permit the present administration to go unchecked. It would appear that the president has all but abandoned the conservative economic doctrines he was pledged to hold when he came into office four years ago. Let us not let this type of government continue. The question before the American people is, are we going to give up our freedom to the individual or are we going to stand for freedom of the individual? Congress is able to pass legislation that furthers the principles with respect to which we stand for freedom of the individual, Congress is able to pass legislation that furthers the principles with respect to which we stand for freedom of the individual, Congress is able to pass legislation that furthers the principles with respect to which we stand for freedom of the individual.

The American tradition of freedom of the individual has been one of the factors that have always kept the American people so unique, so different from the rest of the world. Today great emphasis is placed on the level of production, employment, and standard of living. Many people argue that the economy is unbalanced.

Three, one, nothing

Lawrence College requires a course which requires attendance and participation three hours a week for all male students for two years, but which bears only one class hour for girls, and gives no credit to all at graduation. This situation is almost unique, even on one of the AFROTC school, the University of Wisconsin. It is clear that this discrepancy between required class attendance and credit hours toward graduation occur in a liberally-minded school? Why should students be forced (and the LWA) to attend and prepare lessons for a class for which they receive no credit?

Virtue, Morality Labeled as Chastity Queens Chosen

At a recent meeting of the Committee on Action, steps were taken to eliminate from the present system of electing Beauty Queens and vote in their place the election of Chastity Queens. The ballot used for the election is reproduced below.

VOTE FOR FIVE GIRLS WHO BEST REPRESENT THE FOLLOWING QUALITIES:

1. Chastity
   a. Campus reputation—Chastity
   b. Moral attitudes—straight and narrow
   c. Innocence
   d. Sweetness
   e. Virtues

We offer our congratulations to the five chosen representatives of chastity, purity, and chastity, with the hope that they will be held anywhere.

In the November sixth convocation of this past fall, the program included a panel discussion election will be held on the administration of Lawrence College. Past student body president Roll Dillard had introduced the speakers of the panel in the following way, "The Student Executive council is not at a pacifist stance. We would, however, be open to the views of the student body if they were to be presented in a peaceful manner."

Administration Announces Drastic De-Emphasis Policy

For Lawrence Social Life

Unprecedented Morality Drive Designed to Renew Scholasticism

 Apparently following in its recent alleged trend of de-emphasis, the Administration has adopted the proposals of the Faculty Committee of Sex.

1) All fraternity houses will be closed to members of the opposite sex.
2) No more dances will be scheduled on Sundays, nor will any more dances be held at 1:30, move may save the college that best exemplified the qualities which the Administration feel that you, the students themselves, should possess. The President Knute said that this action would not only be a means of improving the student body's attitude towards the opposite sex, but it would also be a means of improving the student body's attitude towards the Lawrence College social life.

The elections will be held on the following dates:
- 9:00, 6:00, and 9:30, 6:30, and 9:00.

The faculty of the conservatory of music have made the following change in policy: "Be it ordained that the sex of any size, shape, or form will no longer function within the student body."

Purification of campus life has been achieved by the committee at this time. We feel that it will be strong. The Lawrence staff, upon receiving the results of the committee's report, said that they were pleased with the results. The committee's report was published in the Lawrence student newspaper.

One member of the committee, as he was frequently informed by the committee's report, said that "there was no need for this thing."

Miss Groshen has participated in too kind of activity. The committee that favoring the enthusiasm with which this idea was greeted, felt that the program included a panel discussion election will be held on the administration of Lawrence College. Past student body president Roll Dillard had introduced the speakers of the panel in the following way, "The Student Executive council is not at a pacifist stance. We would, however, be open to the views of the student body if they were to be presented in a peaceful manner."

No Activities on the Menu

President Dehnem then announced that a committee has been appointed to investigate student feeling on the subject. A poll was conducted and although 82 per cent of the students voting expressed the opinion that sex was being treated in an improper manner, the administration felt that a general need for de-emphasis prevailed.

With this factor in mind, the committee was set up and the members have recently completed their research and have formulated their ideas. In a twenty-one page thesis, this committee, consisting of twelve freshmen boys, presented the argument that the problem of sex could never be eliminated as long as Lawrence remained a coeducational institution.

Conclusion Presented

"The problem is with the women on campus, and not with the men," remarked one member. "Get rid of the women," was a special plea in the keynote, said another. Since a poll was conducted and although 82 per cent of the students voting expressed the opinion that sex was being treated in an improper manner, the administration felt that a general need for de-emphasis prevailed.

New Look Is Given Sage

In recent months the recreation room at Russell Sage Hall has received some vast improvements and more are still to come.

Mrs. Myrtle Webb reports that all the dark, marred furniture in the fourth floor room has been sanded and refinished in blond and the chair seats have been painted black and fitted with rose tweed slipcovers.

The alcove in one corner of the room has been partitioned and the washrooms in the dorm have been remodeled.

Given a new automatic washer and dryer and ironer. In addition, all the washrooms in the dorm have been remodeled.

Indicate Planning Will be Advisable For Colleges Now

Public and private interests in Wisconsin should undertake "intensive long-term planning" now in order to take care of the coming "tidal wave" of college-age students, a report to the State Coordinating Committee for Higher Education said Saturday.

The report, prepared by the committee's joint staff representing the University of Wisconsin and the State Colleges, was submitted at the monthly meeting of the committee.

Enrollment projections based on trends of the past quarter-century, the report said, indicate that Wisconsin's higher education enrollments will jump from 54,092 in the fall of 1936 to 50,300 in 1960, to 71,000 in 1965, and to 88,400 in 1970.

"Despite the fact that the 1960, 1965, and 1970 undergraduates and graduate and professional enrollment projections reveal very large increases," the report continued, "it is believed that the projections are extremely conservative. No allowance has been made for any and if they are to have educational opportunities at the 1956 college-age youth in college. equality level, intensive long-term planning is necessary."

"One thing is certain — if term planning is necessary Wisconsin youth during the next 10 to 15 years continue to move to physical plant facilities attend college at the 1956 rate and personnel needs."
