SAC News

In the previous Constitution, "Women to Sell Christmas Goods" was not mentioned. It was a provision that provided opportunities for female students to sell Christmas goods to offset the costs of running the student council. However, in the revised Constitution, it was not included.

The LAWRENTIAN can be found in the revisions of the SEC Constitution. These revisions, presented by Mark Rodman, are designed to ensure that the SEC is a more inclusive and representative body. They are expected to be approved by the SEC at its next meeting.

A report on the National Student Association will be given on the next meeting by Mark Rodman. A district meeting will follow, and a vote will be taken on whether the LAWRENTIAN SEC will become a member of that national organization of student councils.

Extra-Curricular Committee to Pass on Concert

by SANDY BERRY

Will the Dave Brubeck Jazz Concert appear at Lawrence? The SEC “Brubeck fans” rests in the hands of the extra-curricular committee, for at the SEC meeting, November 8, President Bill MacArthur announced that Brubeck’s terms are acceptable, and that he will be available for an appearance here on February 5, 1959. The financial terms give Brubeck $450 of the total receipts if they exceed $900.

What’s Wrong with Conformity?

“Our hallowed halls have long been ringing with the cries of nonconformity. Nonconformity of thought, nonconformity of mind — nonconformity of anything.

“Being a confirmed conformist, this distresses me greatly. If this popular myth gains momentum there is no telling what may happen.

“Already many of our larger colleges and universities are filled to the brim with seedy looking, beat generation type nonconformists who dedicate their lives to writing ridiculous poems and philosophy, rebelling against anything accepted, living with extravagant absurdity..."

“Now I would like to turn my thoughts... to the other 9944/100 per cent of the world. The world of the conformist. He goes through life unhappy. He is unhappy because he is part of a vast group of people who are also unhappy.

“They are supposedly unhappy because they are not recognized. They are supposedly unhappy because they mouth the thoughts of others. The fact that they think basically what others think has nothing to do with it. Well, I think basically the same things other people think, I conform, and I am blissfully happy.

“Now let us turn our attention to that oft-decried American institution, Suburbia. The typical fellow marries the girl next door and moves to Suburbia. The picture is complete — the ranch house, two-car garage, wife in shorts, and (the nonconformity advocate shudders to think of it) a barbecue pit.

“What is wrong with the ranch house, two-car garage, wife in shorts, and sturdy, well-constructed brick barbecue pit? Yet the advocate of nonconformity believes this is a bad influence — it conforms people. Well, if all people conformed in this manner it would be a heck of a happy world.

“Yet I suppose I must concede that nonconformity is necessary in this world for a certain degree of change. Yet I wonder if Hegel, Freud, and Pasteur were going to car school whether or not they would have a belt in the back.”

Endgame

A Surprise

Violating all the theatre goes normal expectations. "Endgame," by Samuel Beckett, will be presented by the Lawrence College Theatre on November 17 through 22.

Mr. Clock, director, explained that this presentation contains "the fullest expression of what seems to be a current tendency in drama and a reflection of modern thought."

The four off-beat characters are played by Karl Schmidt, Joe Holzon, Carter Johnson, and Sally Keller.

"A Peculiar Position," by Eugene Scribe, is a story of mistaken identity and deliberate misunderstanding. A cast of nine takes part in this brilliant and artistically costumed French production.

VIKES RALLY TOO LATE
Mulford and Scovel Run Wild

They showed it. They did it. They won't be any closer any time for a while. Mulford, Lawrence's four-year star, and hard driving Scovell took a long way toward straightening out the Vikes in the final football game of the season, which was played Saturday afternoon.

They still have a lot to work on. The 20-18 score is a far cry from a game they were expected to win. But the team has come a long way this year. They started off with a 0-60 loss against Ripon. Then came a 9-0 victory against Ripon. That was quite a turnaround.

The next game was against Monmouth. It was a 15-0 victory. That was a good game. The team showed good defense and good offense. They played well.

Against Stagg, they lost 1-15. This was a tough game. The Stagg team is one of the best in the nation.

In the next game against Knox, they scored 20 points to 18. This was a good game. The team showed good defense and good offense. They played well.

Against Cornell, they scored 20 points to 18. This was a good game. The team showed good defense and good offense. They played well.

Lawrence Ladies...

Want to Marry a Count?

Or an Italian Bus Driver?

You don’t get an absolute money-back guarantee if you fail to achieve either of those vital statistics during the summer of 1959, but you will at least get your foot in the door through the good offices of Hannam tours, now forming its sixth almost-annual trip to Europe.

Hannam is no mysterious off-campus organization; it is a joint checking account made out in the names of Marguerite Schumann, college publicity director, and Mmes. Pierre Benoit of Paris, the former Shirley Hanon, one-time Lawrence French teacher. The two alumnae have escorted more than 75 Lawrenceans and their off-campus friends on five past tours of the continent.

Longest stops are made in France and Italy—three weeks apiece—with a week in Germany and Switzerland for contrast. Since the student ship usually used by the group docks in Rotterdam, opportunity to see Holland is also included. There is generally a week of free travel time at the end of the summer for students to visit friends and relatives.

Sailing dates are not yet announced, but in past years the group has left about the third week June, preceded by Labor Day weekend. Student ships of the Holland-America line have been used.

Interested students may contact Schule in the publicity office for further details.

Michigan Tech has recently been under attack regarding the low status of student bodies. From a recent article comes the proposed solution: "To increase school spirit, we need women."

This is not the only one we have. So, as a favor to yourself (not to mention the S.E.C. hard-working revisionists), please vote on the constitutional revisions next Tuesday in Main Hall.

please vote

NEXD TUESDAY, you will be called upon to vote on proposed revisions to the S.E.C. constitution. The point of these revisions is, for the most part, to ease and democratize the methods and procedures for electing the major S.E.C. officers.

The authors of our constitution, unlike the framers of the American Constitution, provided only one method by which amendment (or revision) might be accomplished. That is, two-thirds of the entire student body must vote AFFIRMATIVE on any given revision in order that it should become operative.

This is not the easiest of methods, I agree, but it is the only one we have. So, as a favor to yourself (not to mention the S.E.C. hard-working revisionists), please vote on the constitutional revisions next Tuesday in Main Hall.

Massachusetts College in Minnesota, taking up the theme of the recent SNA conference has decided to more actively continue their foreign student program. They feel that in this way student bodies around the world can come to better know one another.

Also from Macalester comes the proposition that imagination, morality, and strong character could be developed among students by the teachers.
